

Jaycees Hear SDU Students

As part of the observance of International Brotherhood Week, two foreign students attending St. Dunstan's University spoke at the regular meeting of the Charlottetown Junior Chamber of Commerce on the economic and political life in their respective countries.

Ivin Singh, British Guiana, told of the struggle for self government and some of the challenges that face his people in the years ahead. Robert Luiz of India briefly outlined the history of his country, and put particular emphasis on the period from 1947 on. He also spoke of the advances made in education and the development of the resources within his country.

The two men were invited to speak at the meeting in conjunction with Brotherhood week which was supported by Jaycees across Canada.

Miller MacLellan was the general chairman and the Charlottetown president Harry Mackinnon and Summerside president David Darby were in attendance.

The meeting heard reports from the various committees including the organizational report from Tom Davies Jr., Atlantic Provinces Annual Spring Convention chairman.

The meeting was held at the Charlottetown hotel.
