RUMORED POLITICAL CHANGE

The Lib-Con. Leadership to be Offered to Hugh John Macdonald.

OTTAWA, September 25.—A well authenticated rumor of great political importance is in circulation here. It is to the effect that Sir Charles Tupper is so closely engaged in private business matters just now that he desires to be relieved of the Leadership of the Liberal-Conservative party in order to devote his attention to the different mining companies with which he is connected.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell is accompanying him to Winnipeg.
It is said, with approbation of leading members of the party that they will offer the Leadership of the party to Hugh John Macdonald.

troops who, on Wednesday last, captured the Badman Pass which was held by the Haddah Mullah with a large force of Mahmouds and Shinwaris, have pushed on from the Pass and have without opposition, occupied the Jarabi village and the headquarters of the Haddah Mullah who has fled.

THE TARTE-GRENIER LIBEL CASE.

Judge Wartelle's Ruling.

MONTREAL, Sept. 25.—"As accused was in the dock the complainant should be in witness box."

This was Judge Wartelle's ruling yesterday when the Tarte-Grenier libel case was called. The Minister of Public Works was the first witness examined in this now famous libel suit against the editor of La Libra Parole for an alleged defamatory article published in Sept. 1896. Very interesting evidence was given by plaintiff in his own behalf.

LATEST NEWS BY WIRE AND MAIL

CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 22.—The murder of Arroyo, who attempted to assassinate President Diaz, continues to be the one topic of discussion in this city.
Fresh arrests have been made, mainly among the officers attached to the second police station, supposed to be implicated in the bloody drama. One of the men arrested, named Carmone, is alleged to be the person who wielded the dagger so effectively. Among those arrested are servants of the late inspector-general of police and the assistant chief detective, it being believed that they knew much of what took place, if they were not directly implicated in the killing. All these prisoners were consigned to the grim old prison of Belm. All the newspapers are going for the murderers, and say that the police officers feel sure that Arroyo had accomplished. Failing to secure from him an admission confirming suspicions, they proceeded to strangle him by the thumbs, and he, being an epileptic, went into a convulsion and the idea arose of getting up a pretend lynching in order to prevent the blame coming upon themselves.

IN MEMORIAM

Kate A. Doyle, Who Departed this Life
September 19th, 1897.

You must leave us, dearest Katy,
Like a rosebud in its bloom;
You will leave us here so lonely
To weep o'er thy tomb.

Hark! she calls her loving father,
Come and sit beside my bed;
Oh, I feel my strength is going,
Father, raise my sinking head.

Fondly in his arms he raised her,
Father, help me, quick, she cried,
Lay me down; I feel I'm going,
Christ the law has magnified.

The fond mother feels it keenly,
Finding no relief in tears,
Standing by the one she cherished
Joy of her declining years.

Who can paint the grief and anguish,
Rending that poor mother's heart,
Gazing on her form so lovely,
Called so soon from her to part?

When her brothers gathered round her Burning tears their anguish told;
Soon the one who loves them dearly
Will be called to her long home.

All her brothers love and pity Cannot now her health restore, Though their hearts should burst with anguish,
Pressed with sorrow to the core.

Fondly talked she of her brothers,
Who in foreign land that day,
Did not see her in her sufferings,
But did not forget to pray.

Death has fixed her on his arrow,
He has marked her for his prey,
In her youth and strength and beauty,
Doomed to mingle with the clay.

MINNIE M.

September, 1897.
