PLAIN AND FANCY SEWING.

Splendid Exhibition by the Pupils of St. Joseph's Convent.

The exhibition of plain and fancy sewing in connection with the closing exercises of St. Joseph's Convent has been visited by a large number of people, and all express themselves as delighted with the amount of work performed and the skill displayed in its execution. The work has all been done by the day scholars, most of whom are of very tender years. Instruction in this useful branch of domestic economy is given by the Sisters on the afternoons of each Friday, and the results show how thoroughly grounded the pupils are.

Miss Mary Toole's contribution to the display consists of a large number of children's dresses, well made in every particular. Miss Gertrude Griffin also shows some excellent plain sewing, besides a handsome cushion crocheted on silk and some very pretty ties and pillow shams. Miss Clara Steele shows a beautiful cushion of arasene work on plush finished in satin, together with some pretty doilies and a quantity of plain sewing. Miss Florrie DesRoches's showing includes a handsome table scarf and some neatly-worked pillow shams. Miss Mary Ann Callaghan also shows some very pretty ties; and Misses Aggie Croke and Mary Pidgion each show handsome cushions crocheted on silk.

Among the other pupils whose work was admired are Minnie Corcoran, Mary Wise, Lena Trainor, Charlotte Gallant, Gertrude Curley, Ella and May Dougan, Rose and Maggie Connelly and B. Wynne. There are several others whose work is well deserving of mention but their names have escaped us.

Several maps of the Dominion and the Maritime Province were also on view. They were drawn by the pupils, and the work was well performed in every particular. The exhibitors were May Toole, Gertrude Griffin and Mary Ann Callaghan.
