

Keep in mind that Scott's Emulsion contains the hypophosphites. These alone make it of great value for all affections of the nervous system. It also contains glycerine, the most valuable, soothing and healing agent. Then there is the cod-liver oil, acknowledged by all physicians as the best remedy for poor blood and loss in weight. These three great remedial agents blended into a creamy Emulsion, make a remarkable tissue builder.

Sowing and Reaping. No one can live for something and hold hopes of being something else. You cannot change the character of the harvest when you are reaping, but you may when you sow. Then it is, when you sow the seed, that you may screen out the cockle and the cheat and the tares, and keep only the golden grain that hath promise of happy harvests. Thus we sow for beautiful days. Have you ever seen God make a beautiful day? Well, first He banishes the night, then he gives it a dawning rich color, then throws abundant sunshine into it, then cleansing it by the night, He fills it with fresh atmosphere, then He makes the cool winds to blow. Then he hangs a blue sky over it and tells the birds to sing, and the sun to flood it with Himself, and the day is perfect.—Dr. Cuyler.

Happiness. There are people forever in search of happiness who never find it. Happiness oftenest comes by indirection. You are intent on duty and are surprised to find you have tumbled on more than you sought. To make happiness the end of your seeking is an easy way not to find it. It is a coy blessing. Hovering about your path, it yet eludes your grasp. Attempt to put your hands upon it, and like a wild gazelle upon the mountain, it bounds away. The search for happiness is like the search for the end of the rainbow; it recedes as you advance. You cannot capture it. After all your planning and your straining after happiness you will have to give up the pursuit and content yourself with following the plain and plodding path of duty, and to find your joy in fidelity to conscience, and in obedience to the Divine will. In attaining this blessing imitate the boatman, who directs his prow above the point of destination and so makes sure of it. Aim at something higher than happiness, and the higher will be sure to include the lower.

Listening to the Preacher. "If it be difficult for some people to listen, it is ten times harder for other people to follow, for it is evident a person may listen and not follow," writes Ian MacLaren, in the May Ladies' Home Journal. "Very few are accustomed to think about the same thing, or indeed to think about anything, for thirty minutes; after a brief space their interest flags and they fall behind: they have long ago lost the thread of the preacher's argument and have almost forgotten his subject. The sermon which suits such a desultory mind in one of twenty paragraphs each paragraph an anecdote or an illustration or a startling idea, so that wherever the hearer joins in he can be instantly at home. Sensible people ought, however, to remember that a series of amusing lantern-slides and a work of severe art are not the same, and if any one is to expound the Gospel of Christ worthily he must reason as he goes and ask his hearers to think. The chain may be of gold, but there ought to be links securely fastened together, and a hearer should try them as they pass through his hands. If one does not brace himself for the effort of hearing a sermon he will almost certainly finish up by complaining either that the preacher was dull or that the discourse was disconnected. No sermon is worth hearing into which the preacher has not put his whole strength, and no sermon can be heard aright unless the hearer gives his whole strength also."

Helped By Goodness. Certainly, in our own little sphere, it is not the most active people to whom we owe the most. Among the common people whom we know it is not necessarily those who are busiest not those who, meteor, like, are ever on the rush after some visible charge and work. It is the lives like the stars which pour down on us the calm light of their bright and faithful being up to which we look, and out of which we gather the deepest calm and courage. It seems to me that there is a reassurance here for many of us who seem to have no chance for active usefulness. We can do nothing for our fellow-men. But still it is good to know that we can be something for them; to know (and this we may know surely) that no man or woman of the humblest sort can really be strong, gentle, pure and good, without the world being better for it, without somebody being helped and comforted by the very existence of that goodness.—Phillips Brooks.

Howards' Heart Relief Cures Heart Disease and Weak Circulation. by its peculiar influence on the heart, arteries and nerves. It also makes good healthy blood, so as to make the cure permanent. This prescription is in daily use in the great hospitals of England, America and Germany. The great heart specialists say it has no equal for heart derangement or sluggish circulation. Mr. John Melash, Garnet P. O. was recently cured of heart disease of eight years standing. Mrs. Mary Proctor, Dundas, Ont. cured of dizziness, loss of appetite and weakness. Is now the smartest lady we know at such an advanced age. Joseph Morture's child, Hagersville, 11 years old—born with defective circulation through the brain—was nervous and intellectually dull. Has been made bright like other children. May be had at drug stores or by mail at 50c. per box or 5 boxes for $2.50. S. W. HOWARD, 71 Victoria St., Toronto

SEED WHEAT DEAR SIR,— I am very glad to be able to inform you that after testing the WHITE FIFE WHEAT, imported by you from the North West last fall, I have no hesitation in recommending it to the farmers of P. E. Island. I sowed twenty grains without making any special selection, and out of the twenty, nineteen grew strong and healthy. Farmers in this section of the country pronounce your seed wheat the best sample that they have seen imported to this Island. Yours etc., R. P. BAGNALL, Farmer, Hazel Grove, P. E. I.

I still have a few bags of this specially selected wheat to dispose of. HORACE HASZARD, QUEEN SQUARE, Ch'town, April 18, 1899
