

Labor.

Labor is rest—from the sorrows that greet us; Rest from all petty vexations that meet us; Rest from sin-prompts that ever entreat us; Rest from world-sirens that lure us to ill; Work—and pure slumbers shall wait on thy pillow; Work—thou shalt ride o'er care's coming billow; Lie not down wearied 'neath woe's weeping willow; Work with a stout heart and resolute will. Droop not, though shame, sin, and anguish are round thee; Bravely fling off the cold chain that hath bound thee; Look to the blue heaven smiling beyond thee; Rest not content in thy darkness—a cloud; Work—for some good, be it ever so slowly; Cherish some flower, be it ever so lowly; Labor—All labor is noble and holy; Let thy great deeds be thy prayer to thy God.
