Sport Echoes From Prince County

Sport Echoes From Prince County—Softball has taken the initiative in organization for summer sports. Under Elmer Matheson, new softball press, the ladies' softball league was placed on an operational basis Thursday evening, and the loop will have four teams this year, one less than in 1952.

Sport Echoes From Prince County (continued)—Tennis will probably be the next sport to make plans for the 1953 season. Earl Smith, tennis chairman, and his assistant, Mrs. Charles Linkletter, are holding a meeting this week, and it shouldn't long before the tennis enthusiasts will be on the asphalt courts.

Sport Echoes From Prince County (continued)—Gerard Bernard, baseball chairman, is busy making plans for the coming season, but nothing definite has yet. Joe assures the fans that the intermediates will have a team in whatever league is formed this year.

Sport Echoes From Prince County (continued)—Bill O'Connor, in answer to a query, said it was quite all right for Little League baseball pitchers to learn to pitch curves. The impression in Summerside was that, because of their tender age, boys from 8 to 12 should stick to a straight ball.

Sport Echoes From Prince County (continued)—Mrs. Harold Perry recently returned to her home in Miscouche, having spent several days in the Prince County Hospital receiving treatment.

Let's Talk It Over

Let's Talk It Over—The Summerside Rotary Club is to be congratulated on its initiative in launching an inquiry into the disturbing question of juvenile delinquency in Summerside.

Let's Talk It Over (continued)—There is no question, however, that the combined efforts of church youth movements, sports leaders, service clubs and boy scout and air cadet organizations are making an appreciable contribution to juvenile delinquency control.

Let's Talk It Over (continued)—It seems youth must have an absorbing interest in something. Their enthusiasms must have something to feed on, and if something wholesome is not provided, or if they cannot be cajoled into taking an interest in some worthwhile and interesting activity, the unsavoury lure and attractions will gobble them up.

Let's Talk It Over (continued)—After all is said that can be done for youth, it has to be admitted that under-privilege and crime run significantly parallel courses. Records show conclusively that in a large percentage of cases poverty pinches the boy before the police "pinch" him.
