DO IT, SAY IT.

If you've any task to do,
Let me whisper, my friend, to you,
Do it.

If you've anything to say,
True and needed, yea or nay,
Say it.

If you've anything to love
As a blessing from above,
Love it.

If you've anything to give
That another's joy may live,
Give it.

If some hollow creed you doubt,
Though the whole world hoot and shout,
Doubt it.

If you've any debt to pay,
Rest you neither night nor day,
Pay it.

If you've any joy to hold
Near your heart, lest it grow cold,
Hold it.

If you've any grief to meet
At a loving father's feet,
Meet it.

If you know what torch to light,
Guiding others in the night,
Light it.

HE WAS UNRELIABLE.

Why the Minister Looked With Suspicion Upon Hiram Snyder.

The author of "Little Journeys to the Homes of American Statesmen" tells a story of the civil war, when the days dragged gloomily in anticipation of news from the front and when grief was likely to overtake any who had boys in the ranks. He says:

One night the postmaster was reading aloud the names of the killed at Gettysburg, and he ran down to the name of a youth we knew. The boy's father sat there on a nail keg, chewing a straw. The postmaster, for his sake, tried to shuffle over the name and hurry on to the next.

"Hi!" said the father. "Wha-what's that you said?"

There was nothing to do but face the issue, and the postmaster repeated with a forced calmness:

"Killed—Snyder, Hiram."

The boy's father stood up with a jerk. Then he sat down. Then he stood up again, staggered to the door and fumbled for the latch like a blind man.

"God help him!" said the postmaster, wiping his eyes with his red handkerchief. "He's gone to tell the old woman."

The minister preached a funeral sermon for the boy, and on the little pyramid that marked the family lot in the burying ground they carved the inscription:

"Killed in honorable battle, Hiram Snyder, aged 19."

Not long afterward grange, yellow bearded men in faded blue began to arrive. Great welcomes were given them, and many a big gathering was held in their honor. At one such gathering a ghost appeared—a lank, saffron ghost, ragged as a scarecrow, wearing the cape of a cavalryman's overcoat, with no coat beneath.

The apparition was a youth of about 20, with a downy beard and over his face and a countenance well mellowed with coal soot, as he had ridden several days on the top of a freight car near the engine. The ghost was Hiram Snyder.

We forgave him the shock of surprise he had caused us—all except the minister who had preached his funeral sermon. Years afterward I heard the minister remark in a solemn and aggrieved tone:

"Hiram Snyder is a man who cannot be relied upon."

No Cure for... Bright's Disease

In its advanced stages—The Reason Why—Danger Prevented by the Timely Use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

To understand Bright's Disease is to know that in its advanced stages it is past the reach of human aid. The cells of the kidneys undergo a wasting change, which leaves them dead so far as performing their functions is concerned. Just think of having the kidneys dead. Think of the poisons left in the system when these organs could no longer perform their duties as filters of the blood.

It would be difficult to conceive of anything more dreadful, and yet this is the goal to which every case of neglected kidney disease must lead. When the back aches, when urinating is difficult or too frequent, when there are deposits in the urine after standing for 24 hours, there is no time to lose in procuring Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

It is not claimed that they will cure Bright's Disease in its last stages. They are an absolute cure for kidney disease, and so long as the kidneys are not entirely wasted away they will give new strength and vigor and enable them to resume their duties of filtering the blood.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills will stop backache and headache in short order by removing the cause, and will positively prevent Bright's Disease. One pill a dose, 25c. a box. At all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Startling Confessions

Show that 25 per cent. of men and women suffer the tortures of itching piles. Investigation proves that Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment has never yet failed to cure itching piles, and all of these men and women could end their sufferings at once by using it. Scores of thousands have been cured by this treatment. Every body can be cured in the same way.

Imitations

of Dodd's Kidney Pills are legion. The box is imitated, the outside coating and shape of the pills are imitated and the name—Dodd's Kidney Pills is imitated. Imitations are dangerous. The original is safe. Dodd's Kidney Pills have a reputation. Imitators have none or they wouldn't imitate. So they trade on the reputation of Dodd's Kidney Pills. Do not be deceived. There is only one DODD'S. Dodd's is the original. Dodd's is the name to be careful about—

CARD!

To the Electors of Ward 5.

After a considerable earnest solicitation I have decided to contest Ward 5 at the coming Civic Election.

My desire and ambition is to make a thorough and personal canvass of this extensive Ward, but I know they are very many that time and circumstances will not permit me to see, and therefore from all those I fail to wait on in my personal canvass I hereby most respectfully solicit their hearty support and vote.

Should I have the honor to be elected I faithfully promise to exercise my best judgment for the general welfare of the city, but especially Ward Five.
