Braves Even Series 2-2 With Seven Goal Splurge In 1st Period

MONTREAL, April 24—(CP)—A seven goal scoring splurge in the first period was enough to give Valleyfield a 9-6 victory over Sydney in the fourth game of the Eastern Canada senior hockey championships for the Alexander Trophy. The victory for Braves squared the best-of-seven series at 2-2 in games.

It was a fighting band of Blue Nostrs that provided 9,227 fans with one of the game's displays seen on Montreal ice this season.

The Maritime hockey champions went into a five-goal deficit midway through the first stanza when they took a double penalty and the Braves rallied for a four-goal scoring spree in a minute and five seconds. Before the period ended Valleyfield held a 7-0 lead.

In the next two stanzas Sydney started their grueling uphill fight that stopped three goals short of catching up with their opponents.

George Bougie, Larry Kwong and Jean Paul Bisillon led the Valleyfield snipers with two goals each while Rosalind (Kiloute) Joannette, Andre Corrivau and Jack Irvine accounted for the others.

For Sydney Bill Cupolo, Ron Matthews, Fred Hildebrand, Don Whalen, Alex Birukow and Cliff Roach collected a marker each.

Although Braves held a decided edge in the first period, Sydney took over command of the play in the next two frames and out-shot the Braves 39-38 over the full route.

Penalties played a big part in the contest. Although Sydney drew only three of the eight minors, two of them cost the team four goals.

Saints Defeat P. W. C. 48-41 To Deadlock Island Hoop Series

Father McGugan's Saint Dunstan's University hoopers registered a close 48-41 victory over Earl Nicholson's Prince of Wales College Welshmen last night to send the Island Physical Fitness basketball championship finals into a deadlock to force the series into a third and deciding game.

Played over the P. W. C. auditorium floor before a crowd of some 200 or more excited fans, it was a sparkling display of clever hoop action every inch of the way that saw both teams pace one another basket for basket with only the last few minutes of play finally deciding the issue in favor of Saints.

The series is now tied at one game each, P. W. C. having won the series opener last Saturday night by a 61-45 count. The third and deciding game will be played either Thursday afternoon or evening.

Reardon Was Star

Displaying almost perfect accuracy with long, looping hook shots, Jack Reardon was the star of the game when he came up with a terrific performance to sink home 28 points of his team's full total and continually scored the important shots that took his club out of hot water under the pressure of smooth-working Welshmen attacks.

Red thatched Bill Hine performed brilliantly for P. W. C. when he racked up a total of 18 points, mostly on well-executed lay-up shots. Other leading point-getters were Ian Ashford and Jack McAndrew, P. W. C. with eight points each, while Pete Dunphy and Bill Reardon of Saints potted five each.

Saints finished the first half with a 23-18 advantage, but only after both clubs had battled furiously all through the frame that waged back and forth at a roaring pace, with first one team and then the other holding the advantage on points, and in almost all instances by narrow one and two point margins. Only once each during the frame did one or the other hold more than a four-point advantage until the final minutes when Saints stretched and held their lead to five and held it at half time.

In the second half was almost a repetition of the first, with both teams playing it close to the vest for the first few minutes that saw Saints increase their lead by one point at the three minute mark with a score of 27-21, only to lose ground by the time the five minute mark was reached to cling tenaciously to their point margin built up in the first frame. Scoring on two free losses and then following it up with two quick baskets, Hine put Welshmen right back in the running to make the score read 35-32 at the 7:30 mark, Reardon and Dave Kennedy accounting for baskets for Saints to make that count. Ready put the Saints lead to four points a few seconds later, but Jack McAndrew dunked a nice hook shot to pull within two points of Saints, with Ian Ashford coming through with a nice side-basket shot at the 9:30 mark to deadlock the count at 33-all.

At the 11 minute mark Bill McAndrew sent the Welshmen in front for the first time in the half with a smart field shot, but Reardon deadlocked the count again with one of his famous one-armed specials. Clarence MacDonald sent the Saints up two again with a well-placed shot, but once again Bill McAndrew brought P. W. C. abreast again at 37-37 with seven and a half minutes left.

Final Splurge

From there on it was a torrid battle that saw the Saints manage to hold one and two point advantages until the three-quarter mark when they put on a final splurge led by Reardon that put the game in the bag.

Ever on the move, the elusive, sharp-shooting Reardon came up with three baskets and a free toss in the final minutes, which, aided by a neat basket by Ready, overshadowed some nice work by Jack McAndrew and Joey Hoyt

P. E. I. Rifle Ass'n. Annual Meeting Held

The annual meeting of the Prince Edward Island Provincial Rifle Association was held in the Ward Room of the H. M. C. A. Queen Charlotte last night with a good attendance of riflemen present. The President's report appears below.

The report, submitted by secretary-treasurer Lt.-Col. W. J. MacDonald, ED., showed a good balance on hand. Among the matters discussed was the provision of rifles for this season's shooting. Col. MacDonald stated that some 75 rifles would be available to members who would put up a bond and pay five dollars. When the rifle was returned in the Fall, in good condition, four dollars would be returned. He also stated that arrangements were being made for a supply of ammunition to be on hand for the first practice shoot which would be held on Saturday, May 12th.

Col. MacDonald read a letter from the Secretary of the New Brunswick Rifle Association stating that they had decided on June 16th as a date for the annual Inter-Maritime Shoot and it would be held at Sussex, N.B. range. As an added attraction they planned on having a speaker, the Secretary of the National Rifle Association of America. The above dates are satisfactory to this Province, and Col. MacDonald notified the New Brunswick Association to that effect.

Suggestions had been made at the Inter-Maritime matches last year that alterations be made in the range and conditions of the Inter-Maritime Shoot. This was discussed at last night's meeting and it was unanimously resolved that the P.E.I. Rifle Association go on record as adhering to the original conditions of this historic match which dates back to 1886. All the members were pleased to know that Sgt. G. C. Cole and Lt. Mary McLennan would represent us in the matches at Bisley, England, and $25 was voted to each of them.

A committee was appointed to select the Inter-Maritime team. Four shoots will be held and the three highest scores to count. The committee is composed of Lt. P. Hooper, Capt. Allan McCabe and Capt. E. R. Burke.

Conditions for the British Consols Match which had been 10 rounds each at 600 and 500 yards will this season be changed to 15 rounds at 600 yards. That was the only change made in the program for this year's event which will this year be fired on July 30th, July 31st, August 1st and 2nd.

The election of officers resulted as follows: Patron, The Hon. T. W. L. Prowse, Lt.-Governor of Prince Edward Island; Hon. President, Brigadier W. W. Reid, DSO, ED.; President, Lt.-Col. D. A. MacKinnon, DSO; Vice-Presidents, Major J. M. Jones, Sgt. G. A. Coles, Major J. A. MacDonald.

Council, Lt. P. T. Hooper, chairman; Capt. E. R. Burke, Brig. W. W. Reid, Capt. R. A. McCabe, Capt. J. J. Connolly, Major A. F. Gormley, Lt. E. Jenkins, Col. A. L. Rodd, Lt. B. E. Jones, P. J. Landrigan, Lt. G. J. Rogers, Capt. James Coles, M.M.; Cpl. W. M. Beatty, R.C.M.P., Capt. A. J. McCabe, Lt.-Col. A. W. Rogers, CPO. S. Bowles, Lt. Col. Leo F. MacDonald, Brig. G.G.K. Russia Seeks Olympics Berth

MOSCOW, April 24—(AP)—Russia named an Olympic committee today and applied for membership in the international sports organization.

At Lausanne, Switzerland, permanent headquarters for the international Olympic committee, chancellor Otto Mayer said the membership application had been received and he was "certain it will be approved" at the I.O.C.'s meeting in Vienna next month.

Mayer today received the application, written in English, and forwarded it to J. Sigfrid Edstrom of Sweden, Olympic president.

Mayer said that Russia had received several invitations to rejoin the Olympic brotherhood from which it withdrew in 1912, and that "since we invited them there is no doubt about their admission."

P.S.S. Girls In Close Win Over Rochford Square

In the opening game of the City Interscholastic girls basketball championship finals held over the P. W. C. floor last evening, Prince Street School garnered a close 10-7 verdict over the Rochford Square School girls.

The victory gives the P. S. S. quintet, who eliminated West Kent School last Saturday in semi-final play, a three-point margin to carry with them into the second game of their two-game, total point series for the City title and the right to continue on into Provincial playoff competition. The second game will be played later this week.

It was a closely contested encounter all the way, with the Rochford Street hoopers holding a 5-3 margin at the end of the first half, only to go down under a strong final half rally by P. S. S. that netted them seven points while limiting the opposition to two.

S. Perry and E. Murphy were the leading pointgetters for the winning Prince Streeters, collecting four points each, while B. Gallant was the leading scorer for Rochford Square with three. Other pointgetters were Edie Smith and M. Worthing with one point each for P. S. S. while Claudette MacMillan and L. Reeves accounted for two points each for Rochford Square co-eds.

Prince Street were awarded 10 personal fouls and Rochford Square nine.

Veterans Feller, Lopat In 2nd Straight Wins

By STEVE ROBERTSON (Canadian Press Staff Writer)

Bobby Feller and Ed Lopat, a pair of veterans, turned in their second straight victories of the 1951 major league baseball season Tuesday. Feller was aided by tight fielding in taming Chicago White Sox, who lost to Cleveland Indians, front-running team in the American League, 5-2. Lopat turned back Philadelphia Athletics 3-0 on a neat four-hitter for New York Yankees in an American League game.

Max Surkont and Bob Kuzava, a pair of comparative newcomers to the majors, matched these performances with their own second victories in a row—Surkont, a hefty righthander, pitched Boston Braves to a 7-4 decision over Brooklyn Dodgers in Brooklyn to halt the Brooks five-game winning streak. But the Dodgers held on to first place in the National League by a half-game margin over Pittsburgh and Chicago.

Kuzava went all the way as Washington Senators stopped Boston Red Sox 7-5 in an American League game at Boston. Kuzava is the second lefthander to go the route and defeat the Red Sox in their home grounds this year. Alex Keitner of the A's performed the feat last Friday.

Tuesday marked the 50th anniversary of the start of the American League as a major circuit. On April 24, 1901, Chicago defeated Cleveland 8-2. All other games that day were rained out.

Feller scattered 10 hits in the Indians' triumph at Cleveland while his mates collected eight off lefty Bob Cline, making his initial appearance of the campaign.

The Yanks scored all their runs against the A's at New York in the first inning against little Bobby Shantz. Joe DiMaggio, Jackie Jensen and Johnny Mize batted in the runs.

The Yanks were directed by coach Frank Crosetti. Manager Casey Stengel was removed to hospital before the game with an internal disorder. The ailment was diagnosed as a kidney stone.

The Senators hammered Bill Wight and Mickey McDermott for nine hits, wrapping up the game with a four-run outburst in the seventh inning. Rookie Gene Verble and sophomores Irv Noren led the attack, driving in three runs each.

Frescher Roe started for Brooklyn against the Braves but left after the seventh inning, victim of a pulled leg muscle. Carl Erskine took over and yielded a three-run homer by Sid Gordon.

Young Vernon Law of Pittsburgh and veteran Max Lanier of the St. Louis Cardinals came up with their initial victories of the season in the National League.

Law, with help from Bill Werle gained credit for the Pirates' 6-4 triumph over Chicago Cubs. Lanier pitched the Red Birds to a 3-1 decision over Cincinnati Reds.

The scheduled American League game between St. Louis Browns and the Tigers in Detroit was postponed because of rain.

Philadelphia Phillies soaked six New York hurlers for 12 hits, including five doubles and a triple, to defeat the Giants 6-4 in a night National League game in Philadelphia. Bob Miller, making his first start of the season, did not allow a hit until the fifth inning. Then he ran into trouble but weathered the storm until two were out in the ninth. At that point relief expert Jim Konstanty was called in to get Monte Irvin out, with the tying runs on base.

Baseball Standings

On the night's performance, the Earl Nicholson-coached Welshmen, exhibited probably a slightly smoother style of passing and close-in attack than their Saints rivals, but there was one big factor on the Saints offensive that the City scholars seemed unable to cope with, and was wrapped up in the person of rangy forward Jack Reardon. Putting on a display of amazing shooting ability, particularly at long range, the shifty Saints sharpshooter was dumping in baskets from all angles to rack up the huge individual points total of 28 on the night's play.

Effectively employing two-handed, long, looping shots and an expert one-handed hook shot at either close or long range, the speedy Saints forward was almost impossible to cover, and time and again banged home the baskets that counted most for his team at critical points throughout the contest. A one-man team in himself, Reardon garnered his total from 13 field goals and two free tosses.

Husky Bill Hine was also a stand-out on individual scoring during the fast, close battle, to lead the P.W.C. quintet in their losing cause. The carrot-topped basketballer piled up a total of 18 points, mostly on smart lay-up shots and the rest on long-range shooting. Bill garnered seven field goals and led the field on foul shots, potting four out of six attempts.

But the contest was anything but an individual contest despite the high scoring of Reardon and Hine. Both teams worked out smart plays on well-balanced teamwork to engineer most of the scoring efforts and gave some 200 or more spectators a really classy evening of exciting entertainment. The final game on Thursday should be a must on the entertainment list of hoop followers who like their basketball clean, fast and action-packed all the way. In last night's game Saints chalked up 17 fouls and P.W.C. 14, with nobody on either club fouling out.
