RIPLEY'S BELIEVE IT OR NOT

DR. JONATHAN WATSON of Holbeach, England, ALWAYS TOLD LEAVE OF A DYING PATIENT BY PLAYING A FINAL GAME OF CARDS WITH HIM!

IF THE PATIENT WAS TOO WEAK THE DOCTOR PLAYED WHIST WITH FRIENDS AND THE DYING MAN WAS THE "PUMMY" WHO WAS THE FORTUNE TELLER.

WHILE ISLAND IN CHINA WAS FOUND IN CHINA'S BELGIUM NATURAL STONE FORMATION.

IT WAS BUILT BY KING INDUMBARA OF SIAM TO MARK HIS FIRST BORN TO HIS WIFE.

A DRINKING GLASS SHAPED LIKE A HORN WAS FOUND IN CHINA'S BELGIUM NATURAL STONE FORMATION.

CONTRACT BRIDGE

By R. JAY BECKER

count of a hand, it is only because we deem the subject worthy of stress.

West leads a diamond. Declarer sees he has all the tricks provided there is no loser in clubs. He can lose a club only if the suit is divided 4-1 or 6-0. Declarer's entire attention is therefore riveted on the club situation. He can overcome a bad break in some cases if he knows how the clubs are distributed.

In an effort to learn as much as he can about the construction of the opponents' hands, declarer takes the diamond with the ace and promptly ruffs a diamond. After drawing two rounds of trumps, he cashes the A-K of spades and ruffs a spade.

Then he trumps dummy's last diamond. At this point the grand slam is sure to make. Declarer is on Easy Street. He has gotten the count he was looking for.

East showed up, during the play, with a singleton spade. West, therefore, started with seven spades. West also followed to two hearts and three diamond leads. Hence he could not have dealt more than one club.

Accordingly, South leads a low club to the king (West following suit) and a low club back. When East plays the seven, South plays the eight. (It would do East no good to play the ten. Declarer would enter dummy with a trump and take the marked club finesse.) That's all there is to it.

Here's how to work it: AXYDLBAAXK is LONGFELLOW

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
