

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

NOVEMBER 15, 1890.

Execution of Birchall.

It is not likely that men of the Birchall type will, in future, bring their victims to Canada. The prompt vindication of the law in the Birchall case must have a wholesome effect throughout the country.

The Proposed Tunnel.

We learn that Mr. Palmer, C. E., of England, consulting engineer under Sir Douglas F. X.—an authority of the highest standing—visited Capes Traverse and Fortemine a few days ago and went over the route of the proposed tunnel or subway.

Bridge Over The Hillsborough.

WHILE here, Mr. Palmer, C. E., was retained by the Local Government to examine the site of the proposed bridge across the Hillsborough River. Mr. Palmer was furnished with measurements and soundings; and we understand that the Government will obtain from him an estimate of cost, etc.

Notes and Comments.

—It is stated that the Russian Minister of Finance has proposed to the Council of State to sanction a considerable increase of the duties on tea imported into the Empire from British India, and it is said that the new tariffs will strike a heavy blow at the Indian tea trade.

—The Engineering News of the 1st November refers to the "Prince Edward Island Tunnel Project," and says that "An English syndicate has offered to build the tunnel if the Canadian Government will guarantee 6 per cent. interest on the bonds for 100 years."

—Montreal Gazette: "Canadian Liberals will duly appreciate one part of Lord Salisbury's speech at the Lord Mayor's banquet. The claim that a succession of defeats in the bye-elections does not indicate that the country's sentiment is going against a political party should fall upon their worried hearts like dew on the parched grass."

—The "Pen and Pencil Club" has been incorporated and established at Montreal to secure mutual amusement and recreation by the encouragement of literature and art. The charter members are Messrs. J. T. Davies, John C. Pinkey, R. W. Boodle, N. T. Rielle, O. R. Jabobi, Wm. Hope, John F. Torrance, John G. Logan, R. Harris, S. E. Dawson, E. B. Brownlow, Wm. McLennan, W. C. VanHorne and W. Brynner.

—Montreal Witness: "Hundreds will mourn the honorable fate of that magnificent specimen of manhood, Captain Lindall, of the Vancouver, who was washed overboard at the height of the storm by which the stalwart ship was buffeted and detained long enough to cause much anxiety ashore. How can a man die better than facing fearful odds at the post of duty. He has been taken into the arms of the 'mighty Ruler of the sea,' whose praise he delighted to sing. Captain Lindall was a Swede by birth, and his speech betrayed his origin in the land of the sea kings; but he was a Briton in feeling, and with his ship served the Queen at the taking of Alexandria."

—A correspondent of the English papers writes: "The time is rapidly approaching when a revision of our fiscal system must occur, and then Imperial Federation takes its place. When any statesman is courageous and sagacious enough to propose 'Free Trade between England and her Colonies and Dependencies, protection against all countries which lay duties on all British goods,' he will have a following which will astound himself, and the greatest Empire the World has ever seen will consolidate with lightning-like rapidity. In our possessions the wide world over we have inexhaustible resources, and all possible variety of products, far transcending those of Brother Jonathan, and nothing but our ruinously absurd fiscal laws prevents our making proper use of them. Alter or revoke those laws, and the British Empire is instantly self-supporting, and her sons and daughters will be ten times as prosperous as now."

—A correspondent in the St. James's Gazette, signing himself "A Canadian," who has a right to be heard on this subject writes: "There never was a time when England and her Colonies had more cogent reasons for uniting in one grand scheme of British Imperial Free Trade, with Protection against outsiders! But England must lead the movement. The Colonies cannot abandon their protective policy to become the slaughter market for the surplus manufactures of the United States and other countries. The "most favored nation" clause should be abandoned by England, and then the Imperial Federation could discriminate against foreign countries according to their own high tariffs.

—The Montreal Gazette remarks that a favorite idea advanced in the Liberal press is that Sir John Macdonald is becoming afraid of the noise it makes about unrestricted reciprocity, and contemplates a complete reversal of policy on trade and fiscal matters. Here is what it is presumed makes the Premier shake. There have been in the past two years fourteen bye-elections. They have been carried as follows:

The Conservative majority in the House of Commons is at least six larger on a parity than it was at the beginning of 1889. If Sir John Macdonald is shaking at anything in connection with commercial union, it is with laughter.

Smelt Fishing.

At the request of a number of smelt shippers, Mr. Richard Hunt applied to the Minister of Marine and Fisheries for permission for the Island fishermen to fish before the 1st of December—the legal time to begin. The reasons given, were that Island shippers were at a disadvantage as compared with those of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, on account of the difficulties of navigation; and that after the summer boats stop running, the extra expense, uncertainty and delay render the latter part of the season unprofitable. The Minister has, we learn, instructed Inspector Hackett to permit fishing to commence as soon as the weather is cool enough to ship with safety.

Supreme Court.

Nov. 15. D. A. Bruce vs. Joseph Taylor—In this case the Court reverses the judgment of the County Court of Queen's County, amending the garnishee order and allowing the appeal with costs. Davies for appellant; D. C. McLeod for respondent.

In the matter of the application of Lemuel Coffin for certiorari—The Court fixes the first day of Hilary term next for the hearing of the motion to quash conviction.

Forbes vs. Murphy—Action on account. Tried Trinity term last when verdict was given for plaintiff. Court discharges rule nisi for new trial costs. Hazard for plaintiff; Hodgson for defendant. Court adjourned until Monday, at 11 o'clock.

Religious Services.

Don't forget the re-opening services in Kensington Hall to-morrow,—in the afternoon at a quarter to four, Rev. J. Read, Rev. W. Brewer, Mr. Sutcliffe, Evangelists; in the evening at 7, Mr. Sutcliffe. There will be good music rendered at each by the Hall Choir, under the direction of Mr. W. Turner. The Hall has been greatly enlarged during the last four weeks to meet the requirements of those who were turned away for want of room before. We understand that Mr. Sutcliffe's idea is to have some meeting in the Hall every night during the winter season, so that people cannot complain and say, Churches are only open on Sunday's. All will be made welcome to-morrow.

Preaching in the Methodist Brick Church to-morrow morning and evening by the pastor, Rev. John Read. A temperance sermon will be preached in the evening. All are cordially invited to attend.

Gospel Meeting—Don't forget the Railway gospel meeting in McLeod's Hall to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. Strangers always welcome. Lesson, St. John, 5-8 "Jesus saith unto him, rise, take up thy bed, and walk."

Y. M. C. A.—The gospel meeting in the Y. M. C. A. Hall to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock will be the closing service in connection with the week of prayer for young men, and young men are specially invited to come in large numbers. Everybody else will also be welcome. Subject—"Knowing what he ought to do, but refusing." St. Mark, 10, 17 to 22.

Zion Church.—Services to-morrow will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. D. Sutherland, in the morning at 11, and in the evening at 7 o'clock. The evening sermon will be specially addressed to young men. Morning prayer meeting at 10 15 Sabbath School and Bible classes at 2.30 p. m.

Personal.

Mr. J. B. Dawson, son of ex-Mayor Dawson of Charlottetown, was in town yesterday, the guest of All Tombs. Mr. Dawson is on a pleasure trip to Vancouver and Victoria city, and will return via the Central Pacific—Moncton Transcript.

A Few of the Prices—The cheap sale at the Diamond Bookstore is still going on. Five boxes of stationery 10 cents; pocket knives, 5 cents; nice cloth bound copies of the poets, 25 cents; Foolscap paper, 8 cents per quire; envelopes, 6 cents per hundred. But hold, it would occupy too much space to give a full list of the bargains. Call and enjoy them.

Bring your tin to Beer & Goff's, and have it refilled with the best American kerosene oil at the lowest rock-bottom price. nov15 31 wky 1

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

A Signature Required.

SIR,—Will the writer of the article in THE EXAMINER of the 13th, in reference to my case with an insurance agent named Tessier, kindly give his name in full in order to give me a chance to explain matters fully; otherwise I will consider his article worthless. I must say that I got the very best of satisfaction out of Mr. Tessier, which the whole community knows; and if the writer of the article wishes to hear anything further about the affair, let him come out with his signature and I will give him more information concerning the matter.

DANIEL MCKINNON.

News Notes.

M. Parc died in Quebec a few days ago at the age of 104 years.

On her last passage the SS. Linda had a rough experience, and 300 cattle shipped by James Atkins, of Port Hope, Ont., were killed. The cattle were insured.

Bermuda is one of the places which the Minister of Finance is to visit on his trip to the West Indies. The year just closing has been a memorable and profitable one with Bermuda. The laying of the cable to Halifax will stimulate trade with Canada, and also enhance the value of the place as a pleasure and health resort. The crops in 1890 have been very good, and the planters are well satisfied, the season having been an early one, enabling them to get their produce to the markets before competition was strong. A system of better inspection of produce and the methods of packing has been instituted with good results.

POLICE COURT—John Ross appeared before His Honor this morning charged with the larceny of fifty cents in cash from the store of John Connelly, Lower Malpique Road. He confessed to the theft and was given four months imprisonment with hard labor. It is just seven days since John was released from jail after serving a three months term for a crime similar to that for which he was sent down to-day. The only other case on the docket was one against a man for depositing a dead horse on the Brighton shore. The magistrate inflicted a fine of five dollars on both the defendant and the truckman who hauled the carcass to the beach, saying that though it was a large fine for poor men to pay he knew of no more indecent and dangerous act, and in all future cases a larger fine would be imposed even if it resulted in imprisonment for want of ability to pay the fine, as the health of the citizens was of more importance than the case of individual suffering in a poor man's family.
