If you're looking for a place to put your corporate hat, Dominion will provide the land, design and engineering, then build it, finance it and manage it.

The offer and the operation have proved successful enough over 53 years for Dominion Construction to accumulate 750 employees, a handful of subsidiaries, and contracts worth hundreds of millions from Victoria to Halifax.

The company has just announced its boldest venture and biggest eye-catcher yet: a 21-story office tower in downtown Vancouver to cost $13,000,000.

Peat Producers
In Que. Unite

QUEBEC (CP) — Peat harvesters in eastern Quebec have formed an association in the face of strong competition from mechanical peat operations in New Brunswick.

The 38 producers said they face serious difficulties unless they and the government can carry out a concerted plan of action to overcome problems.

The brief said while production in Quebec has decreased in recent years, it is rising in New Brunswick. About 90 per cent of Quebec production is exported to the United States.

The new association asked the Quebec government to carry out research on peat cutting, drying and marketing. It also asked for a subsidy system such as that in effect where chemical fertilizers and clay production is concerned.

Cowardice Seen
If Que. Quits Confederation

OTTAWA (CP) — It would be an act of "cowardice and betrayal," Quebec separatists said from Confederation "now that its main aims have almost been reached."

Speaking in French to the Richelieu Club of Ottawa-Hull, Mr. Lessard defended the Canadian constitution which, he said, allowed Quebec to raise itself to its present level.

"During the century prior to Confederation in 1867," he said, "there was a physical, moral, and spiritual, while the British..."

North was of course delighted to hear the spade bid. He drove the bidding, understandingably, in six spades. East-West might have bid seven clubs down two.

West led a heart, won in dummy, and declared, after some reflection, "by the contract."

West turned out to be declarer, he wanted to encourage a spade lead from partner. Further, he would be got doubled in one more.

Laval Students
Critical Of
Wagner Report

QUEBEC (CP)—Robert Marceau, president of the Laval University Students Association, said that Solicitor-General Claude Wagner's report on police activities during the Queen's visit to Quebec City was "nothing other than a political act."

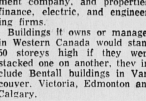

"For us this report seems to be a utilization of the penal code for the silencing of political opponents," Mr. Marceau said.

Mr. Wagner, who also is Quebec's acting attorney-general, said in his report to Premier Lesage Tuesday that separatist university students, thugs from Montreal and a small group of reporters caused most of the trouble when the Queen was in Quebec City Oct. 10-11.

Mr. Marceau said in a statement that the Liberal government has been trying to identify its political opponents with extremists.
