Attention Fellow Business Students:

On Friday September 18th the Business Society had its first slow-pitch game followed later in the night by a harbour cruise. The turn-outs were modest but everyone had a good time.

The cruise was the main event and everybody was pleased with the free beer. The ball game went well, so I heard, and now it's on to the other events of the year. Hopefully now you're all settled into your classes and I hope you do well in the semester.

If you're having any problems or questions, talk to Mollie, our secretary, the Business Society executive or myself about what's happening in the School of Business. You can get in touch with me through the aforementioned sources or by leaving a message at the Student Union for me or inquiring at the Kelly or the Pit - I'm always hanging around someplace. Your concerns are my concerns!
