The last two heavy snow storms piled up mountains of banks, due to the high winds, especially in the western part of the island. Some cuttings are 15 to 20 feet deep. Much credit goes to the plow operators and dispatchers as they have quite a task to get traffic moving. Most people do not realize the many hardships experienced by the operators, often when snow business strikes and hospital cases have to be taken care of as well as bus routes. It often means working around the clock for these people.

PHARISES ASK, IS DIVORCE LEGAL?

Christ Journeys To Peraea

(Editor's note: The following material relating to tomorrow's Sunday School lesson with scripture references to Mark 10 is based on copyright material prepared by the Division of Christian Education, National Council of Churches in Canada, and is used by permission.)

By N. SPEER JONES

On an ordinary study of Mark's narrative, we find ourselves journeying with Christ to a part of Palestine east of the Jordan, known as Peraea.

It was there that the legal-minded Pharisees, led by him, asked Christ whether or not divorce was legal. Jesus replied that whatever legal sanction was given this by Moses, such provision was only because of the hardness of their heart, "from the beginning of creation." God destined that a man and a woman should leave all their former ties, if necessary, to cleave to one another in matrimony, both only. Divorce, he tells his disciples, constitutes adultery, except when the partner has already committed adultery (see Matthew 19:9).

In this matter and in the one following, concerning children, Christ is dealing with human, everyday problems. Christianly, it is more than theological philosophy, it is practical behavior.

The preciousness of human life nowhere pointed up more dramatically than in Mark 10:13-16.

One day a rich young man ran up and knelt before Christ, saying he would follow him, and asking Jesus for eternal life. Jesus told him to sell all he had and give to the poor. The young man could not and went away sorrowing. — Mark 10:17-22 complete antithesis—the height of selfish vanity. They ask to be given the greatest places of honor in Christ's glory.

Christ tries patiently to let them know that a such honor does not come except through the kind of baptism (death) He is about to undergo—that the greatest sacrifice brings the greatest glory. Later these two did indeed drink the cup they offered to drink—James was killed with Herod's sword and John was deported to the original settlement on Patmos for a long life of suffering.

NO PLACE TO GO

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

All dressed up, the expression goes, and no place to go. These boys are hardly "dressed up." But the rest of the description fits them perfectly.

They are two of the millions of American children who are growing up WITHOUT A CHURCH. Boys with the God-given right to grow up in faith... with the American right to worship God freely according to the dictates of their own conscience. But someone hasn't understood their rights.

Parents who make no provision for their children's religious education are, in effect, robbing their children of the most precious heritage of every American. Groupings who, by the tell-tale example of indifference, encourage boys and girls to emulate the Godlessness that in Iron Curtain seeks to foster are undermining the spiritual substance of our nation.

No more serious problem faces America today than the children who on Sunday morning in a land of churches have no place to go.

Honestly, now, are you creating the problem—or helping to conquer it?
