Holstein Honors Go To York Farm

Lewis Brothers, York repeated their triumphs of last year when they took both the premier breeder and premier exhibitor shields in the Holstein division at the provincial exhibition as judging was completed in the Holstein rink yesterday.

The herd also produced the reserve senior and reserve grand champion cow in Lewisdale Jill, the second prize cow in the mature class in milk.

The grand champion was the senior champion, Crown Point Holly, owned by Cyril Jones, Pownal. She was the top cow among the mature cows in milk section.

The Lewis Brothers' win is in keeping with the string of triumphs they achieved a year ago when they were premier breeders and exhibitors at Charlottetown, Truro and Halifax, three of the Maritimes' top shows.

The Holstein show was not so big as in previous years but there was good quality and Judge A. C. MacTaggart of Beecham, Ontario liked what he saw. "You have a really good show here", he observed.
