Opening lead - three of hearts. We include in this series a hand from our match against the Argentine team, not only because it is quite interesting but because it is equally amusing. I held the South hand and decided to open with only one spade even though, for practical purposes, I had a game in my own hand. After Lerner doubled and Blousson bid two hearts, I decided as a matter of strategy to bid just two spades, confident that in a hand where I was missing twelve hearts and thirteen diamonds someone would bid again.

Stone opened a trump. Declarer was in his hand and then crossed to dummy's jack of spades. He led a low heart from dummy in an effort to steal a trick. But Roth was on his toes and stepped up with the ace to lead the three of clubs and try to get a club ruff.

The jack lost to the queen and the ace of clubs was cashed. East playing the two. Stone did not even look at the deuce. He tried to cash the ace of diamonds...

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE

Here's how to work it: A X Y D L B A A X R L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
