RHEUMATIC PAIN Can Be Costly!

"This winter I had to quit work because of rheumatic pain," writes Mr. T. Gloschek, Wilno, Ont. "I became fearful of being laid up as on a previous occasion with rheumatic pain. My pain became increasingly severe and spread from hip to ankle. Out of bed, the legs felt cold as though in cold water, so I stayed in bed. A friend persuaded me to take T-R-C's and I'm glad I did. In a short while I was relieved of my pain and was soon on the job again."

New President For The Bank Of Montreal

Mr. Gordon R. Ball

Mr. Arthur C. Jensen

MONTREAL, Dec. 1—Election of Gordon R. Ball to the presidency of the Bank of Montreal and appointment of Arthur C. Jensen to succeed him as general manager, were announced today, following the bank's 135th annual meeting, by B. C. Gardner, B. of M. president since 1948. Mr. Gardner has been elected chairman of the board and of the executive committee.

Mr. Ball becomes president of Canada's senior banking institution after five years as its general manager. Beginning his career as a junior at Perth, Ont., the new president—a Torontoite, by birth—takes over as chief executive officer after a broad experience over 38 years. Immediately before his appointment as general manager in 1947, he was head of the bank's important agency in New York, where he was active in Canadian affairs.

Over Half A Century—His predecessor, Mr. Gardner, who was recently made chancellor of McGill University, comes to the chairmanship of the bank with more than half a century of banking experience behind him. Born in England he came to Canada in 1906 at the age of 22, after five years' banking in his native Bristol. Four years later—at 26—he was a bank manager.

Like Mr. Ball, Mr. Gardner was also once head of the bank's New York organization. Subsequently, he was made an assistant general manager, and ten years ago he became general manager under the late George W. Spinney whom he succeeded as president upon Mr. Spinney's death nearly five years ago.

Is Newfoundland—Arthur Jensen, a Newfoundland-born, succeeds Mr. Ball as general manager following five years as an assistant general manager. As in the case of Mr. Ball, Mr. Jensen's experience in banking extends over 38 years, during which he has served the bank in both London and New York. His first appointment with the bank was as assistant manager of the securities department at the head office in 1935. Eight years later he became a super-intendent and in 1947 assistant general manager in charge of the bank's Ontario division at the head office.

During the war, Mr. Jensen served with the National War Finance Committee at Ottawa under Mr. Spinney who was chairman of the committee until shortly after he was elected president of the bank.

Mr. Jensen has been active in the affairs of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, in which he has recently served as honorary treasurer and as a member of the national board of directors and executive council.
