ROBS IT OF RESPECTABILITY. III. The Scott Act robs the liquor traffic of a seeming respectability...

IV. Then the Scott Act has so worked on public opinion that we raise our heads at the sight of one of our public houses...

V. The Act should be supported because of the good it is doing elsewhere, and because a terrible injury would be inflicted in the country if it should be repealed...

VI. The sixtieth reason is because nothing better has been proposed.

Among the objections often made to the Act we hear, I. That it is wrong to collect duties on a commodity and then prevent its sale...

law. To-day they know that a man who becomes drunk is far more likely to be the means of bringing them to justice than one who leaves their place in his right senses.

There can be no doubt that drunkenness has decreased very much. The storekeepers all affirm that the farmers go home from market earlier in the afternoon; the roads after night are never made dangerous to travel as in the olden time, by crowds of drunken reckless drivers.

WOODILLS GERMAN BAKING POWDER. Pur'ty & Wholesomeness SECURED IN USING. BENS DORP'S ROYAL DUTCH COCOA. BENS DORP'S Royal Dutch Cocoa has a most enviable reputation the world over. It is manufactured at Bensdorp & Co.'s extensive works in Amsterdam, Holland. The excellence of the beverage is not to be wondered at, considering the care exercised in its production. The beans from which it is manufactured are the product of one of the famous South American plantations, exclusively. The crop is shipped to the factory, where it is carefully picked, roasted and ground; the grease is then extracted by hydraulic pressure, resulting in a powder entirely free from oil and moisture, which completes the manufacture. The product is then put up in parchment papers and in turn enclosed in hermetically sealed tins, which preserve it from deterioration in any climate. It is so highly appreciated at court that it is manufactured under Royal Letters Patent of the King of the Netherlands, by whose special command it is known as the "Royal Dutch Cocoa." The Royal family of Great Britain are constant consumers and prefer it to any other. Bensdorp's Royal Dutch Cocoa is for sale in Charlottetown by Geo. Carter & Co. Dec. 15, 1890.

Is the report of the Dominion Government Analyst. We are now better prepared than ever to turn out promptly at low prices, hand bills, doggers, bill heads, letter heads, note heads, envelopes, shipping tags, etc. Orders by mail promptly attended to.—K. D. O. Will cure you.
