TORONTO

TORONTO (CP) — The stock market Tuesday showed only token appreciation to the Progressive Conservatives' landslide victory in Monday's general election.

Brokers said there was considerable discussion among traders about the election results but no action was taken, investors apparently willing to wait until the government puts its plans into operation.

Golds had an index - gain of nearly three-quarters of a point. Base metals lost three-quarters of a point while western oils lost a quarter.

Golds were firm and Hollinger all climbing. Senior base metals lost fractional ground but juniors showed no definite trend. Western oils were quietly softer.

Index changes: Industrials up .70 to 423.87; k0n.nfn75 to 78.97; base metals off .77 to 151.02; western oils off .25 to 127.74.
