

THE DAILY EXAMINER. JUNE 24, 1882.

Early Geographers and Prince Edward Island.

EXACTLY three hundred and eighty-five years ago to-day, on St. John Baptist's Day, June 24th, 1497, an Anglicised Italian, John Cabotto by name, discovered an island which, in commemoration of the day, he named St. John's. This was the first European name given to any part of the northern portion of North America, after the discovery of Columbus.

But the question has never been fully decided; and geographers and antiquarians are still in doubt as to what Island really did first receive the name of St. John. As a matter of fact, our Island has received the name from very early times, though this may be accounted for when we consider the mistakes likely to be made both by sailors and chart-makers at a time when the whole country was very little known.

The earliest maps (I think) on which the Island of St. John is named, are the Portuguese and Spanish Charts I have just mentioned. After these is an Italian one, made about the year 1550, which is unique. It represents the Gulf of St. Lawrence, with the neighboring lands, Labrador is on the north; Nova Francia and Norumbega (Nova Scotia) form a peninsula on the south, on which Indians are represented as dancing, shooting, and sitting down together; Newfoundland is a group of islands, of which one is inhabited by demons with wings, tails, horns, and cloven feet.

As we are driven north of Newfoundland from an Italian, an Englishman, Michael Lok, brings us south of Nova Scotia, by way of compensation, and in his map of 1682, St. John is far out in the Atlantic, absurdly near the Azores, with the fabulous islands of Jean Steeven, and St. Brandon (whither Judas Iscariot is said to have been sent).

The discoveries of Jacques Cartier gave the French more accurate knowledge of the St. Lawrence coasts than any other nation; and in a French map, after Cartier, we have a tolerably correct representation of the island, which is there called Aleany. A map of about the same time, engraved in Belgium and ascribed to Sebastian Cabot, gives the island almost its proper position and shape, and calls it Isla de St. Juan. If this map were certainly Cabot's, it would settle the question of Cabot's "prima vista," but there are strong reasons for doubting its authenticity.

Little by little the position and shape of this island as well as of Nova Scotia and Newfoundland became better known, and were less vaguely represented. The Portuguese map of Diego Homem describes it fairly well, giving it the name of Ile de Sabloes, probably on account of its low, sandy shores. A German map, published towards the end of the sixteenth century also marks it rightly, though it does not name it; and nearly all later charts give it its correct position, and something resembling its correct outline.

VINSOR.

"No person who is a Member of any Legislative Council or of any Legislative Assembly of any Province now included, or which may hereafter be included within the Dominion of Canada, shall be eligible as a Member of the House of Commons, or shall be capable of sitting or voting in the same; and if any one so declared ineligible is, nevertheless, elected and returned as a member of the said House of Commons, his election shall be null and void."—See Statutes of Canada, 1873, page 4.

DR. ROBERTSON and Mr. S. F. Perry have both been duly elected and declared members of the Legislative Assembly of this Province.

But it is held that they have duly resigned their seats. Now, an act of the Local Legislature respecting the Independence of Parliament, passed in the session of 1876, provides that:—

"If any member of the House of Assembly wishes to resign his seat in the interval between two sessions of the General Assembly, and there is no Speaker, or if such member be himself the Speaker, he may address and cause to be delivered to any two members of the House the declaration before mentioned of his intention to resign, and such two members, upon receiving such declaration shall forthwith notify the Lieutenant Governor thereof under their hands and seal, who is hereby empowered and required within seven days after the receipt of such notification as aforesaid, to issue a writ for the election of a new member in the place of the member so notifying his intention to resign. And the member so tendering his resignation shall be held to have vacated his seat and cease to be a member of the House."

His Honor the Lieutenant Governor has not yet, as we learn from his Private Secretary, received any notification whatever of the resignation of Mr. Perry and Dr. Robertson. Now, the question is: Is Dr. Robertson's election in the House of Commons "null and void," or are the seats of Mr. Perry and Dr. Robertson in the Legislative Assembly vacant?

One of the other they must be. The question is one in which we think the Sheriff of King's County should be advised before making declaration on Tuesday next.

For if the election of Dr. Robertson be

"null and void," then it seems to follow that Mr. A. C. McDonald, who received the next highest number of votes, should be declared elected.

If, on the other hand, the seats of Mr. Perry and Dr. Robertson in the Local House of Assembly are vacant, the writs for a new election in Tignish and Murray Harbor must forthwith be issued by the Lieutenant Governor. We have no doubt that His Honor the Attorney General will give this important question his most careful consideration.

ANNUAL EXAMINATION—THE PRIZE LIST.

The prize-giving season opened at St. Peter's Schoolroom last evening. All the teachers, and quite a large number of parents and others interested in the school, were present. E. J. Hodgson, Esq., presided, and distributed the prizes according to the following

5. Popularity Prize—Presented by Mr. E. J. Hodgson, H. Hunt.

6. Choir Prizes. 1—W. Egan, 2—G. H. Peake. For Easter—E. Messervy.

7. Mrs. Newbery's Prize. Awarded to Charles Swabey, the senior boy of the school, on the occasion of his leaving to enter College, for diligence and general good conduct during a school course of nine years.

GIRLS' SCHOOL.

FIRST CLASS. Lily Swabey, highest number daily marks. Isla Swabey, highest in examinations. Isla Swabey, French. Isla Swabey, History and Geography. Lily Swabey, Popularity.

SECOND CLASS. Charles Longworth, highest number of daily marks. Isabelle Newbery, Examinations. Charles Longworth, History and Geography.

THIRD CLASS. Arthur Carvell, highest number of daily marks. Lottie Strickland, Examinations. Ethel Scott, Geography. Constance Webb, General Improvement.

FOURTH CLASS. Frank Cotton, highest number of marks. To each of the prize winners, Mr. Hodgson, when giving the prize, addressed a few appropriate words of commendation, encouragement and advice.

After this part of the business on hand was completed, Mr. Hodgson referred to the fact that the Rev. R. D. Bambrick has resigned his position as head master of the school, and is about to leave the Island, and on behalf of St. Peter's Church, and more particularly the younger members of it, presented Mr. Bambrick with a purse containing a sum of money.

On behalf of their pupils, tokens of kindly appreciation were also presented to the Misses DesBrissay who have, during the past few years, had charge of the girl's school, and been most successful in their work.

The Rev. George W. Hodgson, at the conclusion of the ceremony, delivered a short address in which he gave some statistical and other information respecting the school. When the school opened ten years ago, there were but fifteen pupils. The school has steadily grown and prospered. One hundred and sixty-seven pupils have been admitted to the school, thirty-five of whom came from the neighboring Provinces. Boys will not, in future, be boarded at the Clergy House; and there will, therefore, be the more room in the school for boys whose parents or friends reside in the town. There will be several changes in the staff of the school. The Rev. Mr. Bambrick, whose services have been highly appreciated and very successful, will be succeeded in the head-mastership by the Rev. W. B. King, B.A., a former pupil of the school, who graduated at King's College with honors. Mr. Wilson has, to the great regret of those interested, resigned his position in the school; and the Misses DesBrissay, who have had charge of the girl's school during the past two years will, in all probability, be succeeded by Miss Harris, the former teacher.

Special prizes for next year have been offered by Mrs. E. J. Hodgson, Mr. Newbery, Miss Wright, and Mr. E. J. Hodgson.

GENERAL NEWS.

ALEXANDRIA, June 22.

The exodus of Europeans is diminishing. Much sensation has been caused by an official violently denouncing Europeans at a reception given by the Khedive. It is understood that the English and French Consul-General refuse to hold intercourse with the Ministry.

LONDON, June 22.

The Stockbridge races began to-day. The race for Beaufort handicap was won by Keene's three years old bay colt Golden Gate. There were four starters.

Advices from Sherbrooke, N.E. near Sierra Leone, state that the natives of Martio, having plundered a boat belonging to the British offices station and having fired on the police who went to arrest them, the Governor of Sierra Leone proceeded to Martio with a force of blue jackets and inflicted a loss of 200 killed on the inhabitants.

In the Commons, this afternoon, Sir Charles Dilke confirmed the statement that the British and French consuls-general have been instructed to do nothing implying a recognition of the new Egyptian ministry.

The "Standard's" Alexandria correspondent is informed on the best authority that if France and England intend to enter actively in Egyptian affairs, Arabi Pasha will blow up the Suez canal, cut the railway to Cairo and oppose the landing of European troops in Alexandria. If beaten he will retire to the desert, where he is promised the support of 30,000 Bedouins. The Egyptian Ministry is prepared to sanction the above on patriotic grounds.

LONDON, June 22.

The Times' St. Petersburg correspondent says that the important discovery of a Nihilists' lodging has been made on Vacilia Island here. Forty-nine persons have been arrested, including military men and others of position; and a large quantity of dynamite were seized, also correspondence and plans of the Krenlin at Moscow.

LONDON, June 22.

The magistrate of the Clerkenwell police court received a letter threatening him with death if he does not release Walsh on bail.

The Daily Telegraph's Alexandria correspondent says the Sultan is urging the Khedive to return to Cairo and several Americans, including Stone Pasha, give him a similar advice. The Ministers ordered all Europeans in the employ of the Egyptian Government to return to Cairo and begin to work. The News says it believes Lord Dufferin has been instructed to confine his action at a conference to effecting such a settlement as will provide for the maintenance of the rights of the Khedive preservation of the liberties of Egyptians and the observance of Egypt's international engagements.

The Standard says there is reason to believe that there are differences in the Cabinet in regard to the Egyptian question, and that the retirement of John Bright showed an active intervention to be decided upon is probable. The Standard's Alexandria correspondent reports the Khedive has written to Arabi Pasha entrusting him with the entire command of the army.

Weather Bulletin.

Probabilities for the next 24 hours for the Maritime Provinces. TORONTO, June 24—10 a. m. Moderate winds mostly west and south, fair warm weather with local showers.

THAT rheumatism is indigenous to the climate of our section of the globe, we admit, but this does not confine it within our limit or incur an attack to foreigners by special cultivation on it, therefore we advise all who are in the least exposed to dampness or marshy districts to use St. Jacobs Oil, the great rheumatic cure, liberally, as did Professor F. Belois, who resides at 1,117 Callowhill street, Philadelphia, and has been for more than two years the cornet-soloist of McClurg's Band. He was formerly first-violin of Theodore Thomas' renowned orchestra, and for several years was a prominent orchestra leader in Europe. He is a graduate of one of the best medical schools in Germany. Mr. Belois stated that he had suffered severely from rheumatic attacks since he had been in the United States, and never found any substantial relief until he commenced using St. Jacobs Oil, at the request of Prof. McClurg. He had bad attacks in the limbs and joints, and never found any other remedy to do him any good. He always keeps the Oil on hand.
