

A Matrimonial Romance.

Some of the American papers tell the following romantic story, in which a Scotsman figures as the hero:—Rather a notable wedding took place in New York the other day, with a romantic story attached. Mr. James Robertson Blackie, of the great Glasgow publishing house, came over the ocean to take back with him in the guise of a helpmeet Miss Ellen Arthur Botts, of Savannah, Ga., who is a niece of the late President Arthur. He is a tall blonde young fellow, who is an excellent business man, as the present prosperity of his house shows, and with a heart in the right place, as the following little story proves:—His wife was a relative of his stepmother, and came as a school girl to Glasgow to be educated, living in his father's home. He fell in love with her and they were provisionally engaged owing to her youth. Upon her return to this country she was for some time the devoted nurse of his grandfather, and after his death was attacked with a fever as a result of her fatigue. While still convalescent the great earthquake that shook Charleston to pieces came to Savannah, and the shock and terror acting upon her enfeebled nerves entirely destroyed her sight. The specialists here, when consulted, declared the case was hopeless, and she must resign herself to lifelong blindness. Upon his painful verdict she wrote to her fiancé, releasing him from the engagement, and resigning herself to darkness and loneliness for the rest of her life. The manly young Scotsman, however, refused to submit. He took the next steamer for this country and on arriving declared that he loved and would marry her whether she ever regained her health or not. Stimulated by this unexpected proposal, she at once began to mend, and with the restoration of her general health her eyes began to improve, and now she has as bright a pair of brown eyes as are to be seen anywhere, and no one can see further into the millstone than she. They were married, and will proceed to Scotland some time in the course of this month.

Mrs. John Minturn is worth $2,000,000. Mrs. Kate Terry is worth nearly $6,000,000. Mrs. Thomas A. Scott counts her wealth at 5,000,000. Mrs. Jacob Astor is worth about $8,000,000. Mrs. Edwin Steves, of New York, is worth $15,000,000. Mrs. Hetty Green, of New York, is worth $40,000,000. Mrs. Robert Goelt, worth about $3,000,000, owes her fortune to hardware. Mrs. Martin Bates was left $1,500,000, which her husband made in dry goods. Mrs. Joseph Harrison, the widow of the man who built the first railroad in Russia, has $4,000,000. Jane Brown received from her husband's estate about $4,000,000, which was accumulated in banking. Mrs. Josephine M. November Weather Signs.

As the wind is in the month of November, so it will be in December. Thunders in November indicate a fertile year to come. If there is ice in November that will bear a duck, there will be nothing thereafter but sleet and muck. If at St. Martin's (November 11) it is fair, dry and cold, the cold in winter will not last long. If the geese on Martin's Day stand on ice, they will walk in mud on Christmas Day. When in November the water rises, it will show it all the winter. As November 21 so the whole winter. As at St. Catharine's (25th) foul or fair, so will be the next February. As November so the following March. If the leaves of the trees and grape vines do not fall before Martin's Day, a cold winter may be expected.

TAMARAC

Alderman R. E. Elbeck, Kingston, Ont., says: "Tamarac Elixir" is the best medicine on earth for Coughs and Colds. In my own case it produced rapid and gratifying results. I caught a severe cold which it seemed impossible to break up, but continually became more thoroughly seated. Finally a hacking cough set in which troubled me day and night, causing soreness of the Lungs. Hearing your "Tamarac" highly recommended, I procured a bottle. The first dose eased the cough, and one bottle completely cured me. It is a splendid preparation, pleasant to the taste, and should be kept in every house. Sept. 21, 1887.—cod & wky
