THE DAILY EXAMINER

JANUARY 3, 1882.

The letter of a merchant's wife contains a timely hint. Some men permit their wives to go to stores and run up accounts, when they might better furnish them with amounts sufficient to meet household and personal expenses.

The Quebec Chronicle reports the receipt by the Credit Foncier in that city, of a cable telegram from Paris, informing them that the rate of interest at the Bank of France had gone up to six per cent.

The trouble into which the Halifax Sugar Refinery has fallen, shows that it is not "all pleasure and profit" with the bloated manufacturers. The Toronto Globe now informs its readers that "at no time that we are aware of under the new tariff has the price of refined sugar in Canada been less than the price at which it could have been laid down here under the Cartwright tariff."

Mr. THOMAS WHITE, M. P., says: "This Canada possesses within itself the elements of commercial greatness. We have the little land of Prince Edward Island, with its magnificent agricultural interests, and its splendid fishing interests. It is like a beautiful garden and equal to the fine country of Devonshire in England."

Some one who has been there himself gives an account of the progress and prospects of the Canadian Pacific Railway. He says that during the past season, in addition to the large amount of work that claimed attention on the main line, sixty miles of grading was completed on the south-western and Pembina Mountain branch and the air line, shortening the road between Winnipeg and Portage la Prairie, has been completed, and will in a few days be open for traffic.

Homeward Bound.

There is no great good that does not contain a certain admixture of evil. There is no pleasure without more or less pain. Where there is great wealth there is apt to be great poverty. Boston, New York, Chicago, San Francisco and Denver, are cities of colossal wealth. Yet there are no cities where one will see such abject poverty.

When last in Boston, I had occasion to go down to the Eastern Depot to get my trunk transferred and re-checked to Boston. It was a cold December afternoon. The streets in that locality, had been very muddy, but were now half frozen. The mud was pretty well hardened, and that was all.

Everyone who had been in the "hub" knows what throngs of human beings are continually passing in and out of this depot. Pushing my way out of the entrance, I noticed on the sidewalk, a poor, ragged, hatless, barefooted boy. Ladies in silk robes, gentlemen in broadcloth, little boys and girls in furs, all swept carelessly along, never stopping to the outer edge of the sidewalk to let them pass.

I could stand it no longer. I put my hand into my pocket and gave the little fellow all the loose change I had—something over a dollar. "You're a good gentleman," said he, and in a second, was bounding across the street over the deep, stiff mud with his bare feet. I thought I would follow him and see what he did with the money. He ran into a grocery, and purchased six cents' worth of pies and cakes. Then he rushed out, around the corner, and up the street a short distance. Finally, he ran into the door of a dilapidated old house, and called his two pretty, little, ragged sisters. They pushed in on a gang-way, squatted down, and I never saw bread and pies disappear so rapidly before.

Poor little things! God only knows what is in store for them this winter. The boy was to busy eating to notice me, and I had no time to enquire into their history, as the train was nearly ready to start, I gave them one hour's happiness, however, and I venture to say that that dollar gave me more happiness than any dollar I ever expended before or since.

Cavendish Items.

Cavendish is getting to be quite a lively place. On the evening of the 23rd ult. a church festival was held at the Baptist parsonage. The young people added greatly to the entertainment of those present by giving an excellent entertainment. The programme consisted of recitations, dialogues, etc. interspersed with fine music, both vocal and instrumental. Proceeds $26.

The Supervisor of Falconwood Asylum.

HIS DISMISSAL AND DISAPPEARANCE—CHARGES OF EMBEZZLEMENT, FORGERY AND HORSE STEALING AGAINST HIM.

MR. P. S. MULLIGAN, Supervisor of Falconwood Asylum, was dismissed on Thursday. On Saturday morning he took a horse belonging to the Asylum, and a bride and saddle belonging to the Medical Attendant, Dr. Blanchard, and left for parts unknown. This caused the Asylum Commissioners to investigate more carefully the acts of the Keeper. Consequently they found that he had been keeping forged and irregular accounts and embezzling money from the Government.

The Supervisor of the Asylum, Mr. P. S. Mulligan, was appointed on the death of Mr. Martin, about two years ago. He was, we learn, a most efficient officer—on whom the Commissioners cast no suspicion until December, when a slight irregularity was discovered by the Medical Superintendent and one of the Commissioners in the Asylum's account with Messrs. Arthur & Toombs. This irregularity consisted of Mulligan purchasing two barrels of flour and 100 lbs. of dry fish on the Asylum account, and sending them to his home in Cardigan. The matter was investigated at a full meeting of the Asylum Commissioners, on the 27th of December. It was not clear on the first day of the investigation whether or not Messrs. Arthur & Toombs had inadvertently charged the items above mentioned to the Asylum, instead of to Mulligan.

During the investigation of Messrs. Arthur & Toombs' accounts with the Asylum, Mulligan, no doubt, feared that it would be followed by other investigations and that other irregularities would be discovered. He therefore, on the 28th, went to J. D. McLeod & Co's, and asked to examine their account with the Asylum. The Ledger was shown to him by Mr. J. G. McLeod. Finding that the amount due by the Government up to July was $62.20, he asked Mr. McLeod to change the amount to $29.72, so as to make it correspond with a voucher in the hands of Mr. Morrison, Secretary of the Asylum Commissioners. The amount due to Mr. McLeod had been paid by Mulligan shortly after it was furnished. He therefore, told Mulligan that it was impossible to comply with his request. This incident excited Mr. McLeod's suspicion.

On Friday evening Mulligan visited the Asylum, and remained there until seven o'clock. The horses had been attended to for the night, and the day's work about the outbuildings had been finished. He, without the knowledge of the attendants, took Dr. Blanchard's saddle from the Asylum and one of the Government horses from the stable, and left for parts unknown.

A warrant was issued for his arrest on Saturday. It is believed he drove through to Georgetown on Friday night and escaped in the "Northern Light" on Saturday morning.

Irish National Land League.

A public meeting of the Charlottetown Branch of the Land League was held last evening in St. Patrick's Hall. A large and enthusiastic audience was present. After the admission of new members and other business had been gone through, the President stated that the unfavorable weather prevented the principal speaker of the evening from attending.

P. D. Cox, Esq., at the request of the President, read the Right Rev. Dr. Nulty's letter on the present state of affairs in Ireland. In this letter Bishop Nulty truthfully portrayed the deplorable condition of the people of Ireland, the brutality of the police and soldiery, and strongly condemned the excessive severity with which the Government exercises the exceptional powers given them by the Coercion Act.

Hon. Simon Bolger, being called on, said he was pleased to see the able manner in which the Bishop of Meath advocated the claims of his people. Mr. Bolger, in the course of his remarks, referred to the landlordism of Prince Edward Island, the means adopted for its abolition, and also to the iniquitous system under which the people of Ireland have so long and patiently suffered. But he felt certain that the day was near at hand when Ireland would be in possession of the same privileges now enjoyed by the "little sand bank in the Gulf of St. Lawrence."

Interesting speeches were made by other members; and the President having expressed his satisfaction with the successful termination of the evening's proceedings, the meeting adjourned.

Peace reigned here to-day for the reason the agents of evil were all at Court in Georgetown except Mr. Archie McLaren, whom the constable could not find, neither could he get into his home. There has been little of interest moving since Xmas holidays set in. Open water and bad roads add nothing to the business of the season.

THE NORTH AMERICAN MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

HEAD OFFICE, TORONTO. Incorporated by Special Act of the Dominion Parliament.

HON. ALEX. MACKENZIE (ex-Premier of Canada), PRESIDENT. HON. ALEX. MORRIS (ex-Lieut. Governor of Manitoba), VICE PRESIDENT.

GUARANTEE FUND $100,000. DEPOSITED WITH DOMINION GOVERNMENT 50,000.

ADVISORY BOARD OF DIRECTORS FOR P. E. ISLAND:

L. H. DAVIES, Esq., Chairman. Hon. H. J. CALLECK, W. A. WEEKS, Esq., D. FARQUHARSON, Esq., BENJ. ROGERS, Esq.

MEDICAL EXAMINERS: F. P. TAYLOR, F. R. C. S., Edinburgh. JAMES MACLEOD, M. D.

General Agent for P. E. Island, FRED. W. HYNDMAN.

The main objects the promoters of this Company have in view is to establish in the Dominion of Canada, under our admirable Insurance Law, a purely Mutual Life Insurance Company, wholly for the benefit of the insured.

THE MUTUAL PRINCIPLE is the only one by which the participating members of a Life Insurance Company can receive full equivalent for their money. It gives insurance at net cost, while the soundness of the principle and the stability of such institutions are proved by the fact that the largest and most successful Life Companies in the world are mutual.

It has no stockholders to deplete its Treasury by enormous annual dividends, and its directors are always selected from the very first citizens in the community, while its Executive propose to conduct its affairs with the strictest economy, consistent with its management and prosecution of its business, confidently anticipating that results as successful, proportionally to those attained by mutual companies in other countries, will be realized in Canada by a prudently managed company.

This Company issues three classes of policies—First—Ordinary Life and Endowment with Profits. Second—Tontine Savings Fund Policies (deferred profits), Life and Endowment. Third—Industrial Class Policies, Life and Endowment.

The Ordinary Life and Endowment Policies of this Company provide the greatest amount of insurance for the least amount of money, and the best possible security for a family against want, should the bread winner be removed by premature or untimely death. The Tontine Savings Fund, or Tontine Investment Policy, offers to all who have a reasonable prospect of being able to continue their payments, results which are incomparably better than the ordinary plans of insurance. To all possessed of a reasonably certain income there are few investments more attractive in their results.

The Industrial Plan of Insurance of this Company offers special advantages to the working classes, and persons of small means, who by monthly quarterly, or half-yearly payments can secure a risk of from $100 to $500 on their lives, payable within twenty-four hours after death.

All Policies incontestable after three years from date for unintentional errors, mistakes or omissions in application.
