FIGHT OVER GIRL ENDED IN DEATH.

HAVERHILL, Mass., May 17.—That rivalry over a West Newbury high school girl prompted the fist fight in which 20-year-old Herman H. Taber was killed last night, was admitted today by his opponent, 19-year-old Paul Claridge, also a student at West Newbury High School. The girl is Miss Frances Sonier, 17, a senior at the school.

Young Claridge is under arrest on a charge of manslaughter, and he will be arraigned in the district court Monday morning. Taber, the dead youth, was graduated from the same school a year ago and had been employed as a typist by a Boston concern.

Claridge, weeping bitterly, protested that he had fought "clean" and had declared he had no intention of seriously injuring the other youth. He admitted that their fight, which was a fierce one, was a "squabble over a girl."

The death certificate filed by Dr. Francis A. Anthony late yesterday reads that young Taber's death was due to "hemorrhage and shock consequent to force applied violently to the jaw, causing two fractures of the skull and rupture of the left meningeal artery." Claridge insists that his opponent was not knocked unconscious by the blow from his fist, but by striking his head against the ground when he fell.

Friday night Taber took Miss Sonier and her sister Margaret, to a high school performance. Claridge was there, but after the play he drove away in his own machine
