If the Americans wish to control our destinies they must do something more than bluster and lay ridiculous and impertinent resolutions before the legislature : they must prepare themselves (we speak in plain terms) to wage a war of extermination against a peaceful, prosperous and unoffending people ; they must accept the chances of a desperate conflict, which will undoubtedly involve them with Great Britain, and probably with France, and their own conquered Southern territories, out of which it may be that all life is not yet crushed out,—in a most dishonorable cause, and they must be content to exhibit democracy once more as the deadliest foe to freedom, the most ruthless oppressor of the human race.—Montreal Gazette.

FAREWELL TO LORD BROUGHAM.—A late Paris letter says :—The venerable Lord Brougham, now verging on his nineteth year, passed through Paris several weeks ago on his way to his pleasant villa in the vicinity of Canness, in the south of France. He is still a sprightly, vigorous, clear-headed old man, still retaining much of that fire which used to wake his antagonists in the House of Commons more than fifty years ago.—But, admonished that his time of public service is passed, he has just taken his leave of the literary and forensic world, in a letter addressed to a member of the French Institute, conveying to him a copy of his address at the last English Social Congress. The parting advice to the world from the veteran statesman and scholar is, to live in peace—to beware of royal murderers—"like Napoleon the First;" meanwhile he accords high praise to the present ruler of France for his pacific and enlightened policy. He insists that wars are wicked and fruitless, and always retard civilization. And so the great Henry Brougham, who has been almost constantly in men's mouths for considerably more than half a century, passes from the stage. Few men have left more numerous or more substantial memorials of fame.—When we look back upon that long career, so full and so varied, we cannot but marvel at the extraordinary genius of the man—excelling as he did in legal lore, in oratory, in science, in political philosophy, in moral thesis, and in various departments in physical knowledge. He has now gone of his own accord into history.

RELIGIOUS PERSECUTIONS IN POLAND.—All the intelligence that reaches us from the kingdom of Poland concurs in stating that, since the rupture of diplomatic relations between Rome and St. Petersburgh, and the renunciation of the Concordat which subsisted between Russia and the Holy See, the Catholic clergy of that country are in an extremely difficult position. There is no longer any question of the free exercise of Catholic worship; and the assertion may be made without exaggeration that, from the bishop down to the country cure, the entire clergy is placed under the surveillance of the most intermeddling police in Europe. The schismatic clergy with which the Russian Government has infested the country, cannot endure that sermons should be preached in the Catholic churches while they are entirley forbidden to the Russo-Greek Church. In every discourse from the pulpit the Muscovite clergy and police scent out political allusions, and threaten the preachers with prison in Siberia. Whoever knows how profoundly the Catholic faith rooted in the hearts of the Polish people will easly understand how greatly this system of violence has excited public opinion against the Government in the kingdom of Poland.—Augsbury Gazette.

A case of small pox was discovered in the city yesterday. The patient was promptly removed to the City Hospital by Dr. Garvie, the City Medical Officer.—Hx. Paper.

Artemus Ward has directed in his will that his property shall go, after the death of his mother, toward the erection of an asylum for printers.

Advices from the Cape of Good Hope bring the sad intelligence that Dr. Livingstone, the celebrated African explorer, has been killed by the Caffres.

The Pall Mall Gazette warns the Government against being betrayed by the rash acts of a few ignorant and desperate men into the adoption of cruel or oppressive measures in Ireland.

At last accounts, the Galtee and Devil's Bit Mountains swarm with Fenians. The latter of these ranges is situated on the north, its summit forming the bit. The name is derived from a legend that the devil, in one of his nocturnal rambles, being faint with hunger, bit a mouthful out of the crest of this mountain while passing over it, but finding the morsel far from tender and difficult of mastication, he dropped it on the plain, where it is now known as the Rock of Cashel. The Galtee Mountains are partly in Tipperary and partly in Limerick.

It is said that a portion of a raw onion, eaten just before retiring to rest, will insure refreshing sleep to persons suffering with lungs overburdened with oppressive and irritating matter.

Holloway's Pills and Ointment.—Dangerous Diarrhœ.—The causes of this weakening disease being so various, and the nature of its attacks so changeable, fully account for the enormous number of its victims. Under Holloway's treatment the source of this complaint may ly in obscurity and the successful issue be still the same whether the stomach, liver, large or small intestines be the seat of malady, for his Pills judiciously taken, and his Ointment, briskly rubbed on the abdominal walls, restrain the excited vessels and regulate each erring function, let it spring whence it may.

He emigrated to Newfoundland at a very early age. Having determined to follow the sea for a living, he joined the British Navy, at Newfoundland, in which service he remained for above fifteen years. While serving in the navy he saw active service at the battle of the Nile, and, with the pride so characteristic of the British sailor, used the veteran recur to that memorable occasion. The deceased was a man who believed labor and industry to be compatible with a due observance of his religious duties, for while he strove with a praiseworthy zeal to procure a livelihood, he was at the same time most faithful in the discharge of all those duties that pertain to his religion. He was, therefore, much and deservedly respected by all classes of this community.

To the Electors of the Second District of King's County.

GENTLEMEN—

AT the earnest solicitations of many friends, I have, though with much hesitation, consented to come forward as a candidate for the representation of the District in the House of Assembly. In politics I have always been a Liberal, and, should I have the honor of being elected, I will support that Party in all good measures. The independence of the Colony being a matter of paramount importance, I am opposed to Confederation upon any terms—feeling satisfied that if our liberty is once lost it can never be recalled ; and that we will be placed altogether at the mercy of a distant Government, over which, from the contemptibly small number of our representatives, we can exercise no control.

As a resident of the District in which all my interests are centred and identified with your own, my highest ambition will be to look after its local wants ; and to promote its prosperity without injury to any party. The Education Act requires, in my opinion, to be amended by defraying from the Treasury the whole salary of the Teacher. All measures, in fact, having for their object the good of the country, will receive my support. Not being an office-seeker, should I have the honor of being elected, I will not put you to the trouble of a re-election ; nor is there any consideration which would induce me to violate my promises, or betray the confidence you might repose in me.

I have the honor to be,
Gentlemen,
Your obedient Servant,
WM. H. McEWEN.

Prepare for Lent!

FOR Sale at the Kent Street Book Store: THE OFFICE OF THE HOLY WEEK, according to the Roman Missal and Breviary, in Latin and English.

"The week before Easter has been called by several names, from the great mysteries and various ceremonies celebrated and performed in it. The Greeks and Latins anciently called it the Great Week, the Holy Week; sometimes the Painful Week, that is, the week of austerities; also, the Week of Sorrows, the days of the Cross or of sufferings. "We call it the Great Week;" says S. Chrysostom, on Ps. 145, "not that it consists of a greater number of days, or that the days in it are longer, but on account of the great things which God has wrought in it: for on these days was the tyranny of the devil overthrown, death disarmed, sin and its curse taken away; heaven opened and made accessible, and men made fellows with the angels."

The chief object of the Church in this week, is to celebrate the memory of the passion and death of her Redeemer; every part of the sacred liturgy is directed to this end; the Church's offices, more solemn and more multiplied in this week than in any other during the whole year, are most especially adapted to excite in the hearts of the Faithful those various sentiments of love and gratitude, of compassion for the sufferings of our Lord, of sorrow and detestation for sin, &c., which every Christian ought to cherish in this holy time. It is with the sincere desire of exciting pious sentiments in the hearts of the faithful, that the whole liturgy of the Church for the Holy Week has been collected in this volume; and is presented to the public, both in the Latin and English languages. Thus, while the pious Christian unites his voice with that of the Priest and of the choir, he may also penetrate the sense of the divine office, and sanction by the fervor of his heart what he pronounces with his tongue. For this reason, the editor flatters himself that this book will not fail to please all those who still entertain a due sense of piety and religion; and may profit even those who, through a want of instruction, seldom or never reflect on the great mysteries which the Church commemorates during the Holy Week. The very reading of this most pious and affecting part of the Church's liturgy is capable of exciting in their hearts a true and solid devotion.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Is a concentrated extract of the choice root, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effectual antidote for diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. Such a remedy is surely wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove, as this has proved, of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it, has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints :—

Scorfula, Scorfulous Swellings and Sores, Skin Diseases, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Eruptions, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, &c.

Syphilis or Vernal Disease is expelled from the system by the prolonged use of this SARASPARILLA, and the patient is left in comparative health.

Female Diseases are caused by Scorfula in the blood, and are often soon cured by this EXTRACT OF SARASPARILLA.

Do not reject this invaluable medicine, because you have been imposed upon by something pretending to be Sarasparilla, while it was not. When you have used AYER'S—then, and not till then, will you know the virtues of Sarasparilla. For minuet particulars of the diseases it cures, we refer you to Ayer's American Almanac, which the agent below named will furnish gratis to all who call for it.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS, for the cure of Costivness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Pain or Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Neuralgia, and as a Dinner Pill, are unequalled.

They are sugar coated, so that the most sensative can take them with pleasure and they are the best Aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by all Druggists and dealers in medicine everywhere.
