

Mr. Jones Re-elected President Of P.E.I. Fish And Game Ass'n

Mr. Stewart Jones of Charlottetown was re-elected President of the Prince Edward Island Fish and Game Protective Association at the annual meeting of the Association held recently at the Rendezvous.

The president, vice-presidents and secretaries of the three county branches were elected as directors. Representatives from each county attended the meeting.

Guests present at the meeting were Mr. Wilfred Saunders of Fisheries Research Council, St. Andrews, N. B.; Mr. J. L. Larrabee, Federal Fisheries Supervisor for P.E.I.; and Mr. Spurgeon Jenkins, representing the protective services of the Provincial Government.

The guest speaker, Mr. Saunders explained the history, growth habits and movement of trout as it pertains to streams in Prince Edward Island.

He stressed the importance of the tagging of fish in connection with research work and emphasized that the catching of tag trout by anglers be reported to the Department of Fisheries.

Mr. Larrabee spoke briefly on the matter of stream pollution and he assured the meeting that everything would be done to correct unfavorable conditions.

The president's report was delivered by Mr. Jones who reviewed the operation of the Association during the past year. Speaking of the construction of dams he stated that two dams in Prince County are about completed and that a third has been repaired.

He dealt on the matter of stream pollution at some length and stated that "Sawdust conditions are found in some streams and the washing of fertilizer equipment and bags is doing more damage than is generally realized. While those things are bad, by far the worst and most disgraceful condition has developed at North Lake, Hunter River and Murray Harbour where refuse from starch factories is disposed of in fishing waters."

The secretary-treasurer's report was read by Mr. H. P. Vessey who also read the minutes of the last annual meeting. Mr. E. K. MacNutt, chairman of the constitution committee, presented a new constitution to the meeting.

IN THIS CORNER

Tommy Henrich, former outfielder and now a coach with the New York Yankees recently wrote an article entitled "Managers Win Ball Games." Baseball men differ in their opinions on the subject but a local baseball manager, Tom MacFarlane, pulled off a strategic move in the intermediate game here Sunday that could go a long way in supporting Henrich's ideas.

The move was made when Tommy sent in base thief Wally Shephard as a pinch runner for "Spy" Reedy in the last half of the ninth inning with the Abbies one run behind. "Spy" had one more than his share to win the game with his flawless play at first and his hard single which started off the winning rally but his base stealing record for the season was not up to that of Shephard's.

Shephard proceeded to steal second on the first pitch and barely made it despite his speed. It is doubtful if any other man on the team would have made it. When Charlie Ryan hit a grounder to short Shephard broke for third running in front of the Summerside shortstop and proceeded to bobble the ball and let men reach first and third. Ryan went to second on the first pitch to the next batter and both runners advanced on another error. Ryan scored the winning run on the next play.

If Tom had not sent in a pinch runner it is doubtful if Reedy would have stolen second and doubtful if he would have tried. With a runner at first base instead of second base the Summerside shortstop might have fielded Ryan's grounder and got at least one man out if not two. Under those circumstances the result probably would have been defeat for the Abbies and not victory.

"Chick" Whalen also made a strategic move in the eighth inning when he lifted pitcher Bob Ashe in favor of Joe Bernard. The soundness of the move has been thoroughly debated but the loss of the game could hardly be blamed on Bernard who took over pitching duties in the eighth with two men on and one out. Bernard allowed only one hit during the remainder of the game and two runs in the ninth were unearned.

Ashe had pitched brilliant one hit ball until he was relieved. In the sixth inning there were Abbies on second and third with none out but no one scored. In the seventh he left a man on second but in the eighth he issued two straight walks an indication that he was tiring and with "Buck" Whitlock at the bat a tiring pitcher is in an unenviable spot.

The Summerside team and Ashe deserved a better fate. During the first eight innings they played unbeatable ball, committing only one error and giving up only one hit. The Abbies on the other hand had committed four errors and Charlie Ryan, who hurled great ball, gave up five hits.

Any manager would have quite a time being Benny Carson Sunday. Benny had a no-hitter and two men out in the eighth before the Summerside Juniors got their only hit. Carson hurled the last four frames with a blood blister on one of his pitching fingers and it was clear from the press box that it was bothering him. With courage like that and the ability he has, Carson may get that no-hitter before too long.

Holman's hopes of winning the Intermediate series received another setback last night with the word that right fielder Gordie MacKay is leaving for Quebec this morning. MacKay has been a standout in the series both at the plate and on the field. At the plate he leads all batters with six hits in nine trips and Sunday he got more hits than all the hitters on the Abbie team combined. His speed in the field made him an outstanding fly hawk and base runner.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 10 (CP) — St. Louis Browns today announced the recall of pitchers Cliff Fanning and Irv Medinger from Toronto Maple Leafs of the International League.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 10 (AP) — Gil Turner, sensational young water polo player, ran his unbeatable string to 24 tonight with a dynamic two-fisted attack that halted former lightweight champion Ike Williams at 2:32 of the 10th and final round of their bout at Shibe Park. The defeat all but finished Williams as a big time boxer.

Pennant Combatants To Resume Action Today

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK, Sept. 10 (AP) — The 24-hour cease fire order ends tomorrow as the pennant combatants in the American League resume action with Cleveland opposing Philadelphia, New York facing St. Louis and Boston meeting Detroit.

Most of the interest will stem from Philadelphia where the Indians play a two-night doubleheader. The Yankees and Browns also play a two-nighter while the Red Sox-Tigers battle in a single day contest.

The Indians are in a tough spot, although they trail the pace-setting Yankees by only four percentage points. The Athletics, despite their sixth-place standing, now are the roughest club in the league.

Fresh from Sunday's double win over the Red Sox, which dumped Boston 5 1/2 games behind the leaders, the A's are fast gaining a reputation as giant killers.

Manager Casey Stengel of the Yankees hasn't forgotten that Jimmie Dykes, relaxed slugger, knocked the New Yorkers out of first place three times in 22 days. And manager Al Lopez of the Indians remembers that the A's whipped his men two out of three

Dean Of Yank Harness Horse Owners Dies

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., Sept. 10 (AP) — William Neal Reynolds, 88, dean of American harness horse owners, died in hospital today. He became ill last month at the Hambletonian meeting in Goshen, N. Y.

After his retirement in 1942 from the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., which he once served as president, Reynolds devoted his time to his philanthropic and racing interests. Known to friends and associates as Mr. Will, he maintained a stable at Tanglewood Farms, a vast showplace near Winston-Salem, and a winter training stable at Orlando, Fla.

Reynolds had been in harness horse racing almost 50 years. His My Shady Bell won 15 firsts and two seconds in 17 starts about 1903-1910.

In 1933 his filly Mary Reynolds won the Kentucky Derby of harness racing, the Hambletonian, in a race called "the $40,000 stamper." The colt Brown Berry and the Reynolds filly each had taken one heat. In the third and deciding heat, Brown Berry stumbled while leading near the finish, and Mary Reynolds swept home the winner. His Tar Heel was the all-time money-winning pacer as a two-year-old.

In 1922, when Reynolds was 59, he started working behind his horses at least 25 miles a day. This was at doctors' suggestions that fresh air would help him recover from an operation. He was ranked one of the keenest trainers in the country.

Reveal Horeck Received Release

Right winger Johnny Horeck, who has agreed to coach the Moncton Hawks this season, received his release last year from Major Tom Rogers, past President of the Islanders Hockey Club, and became a free agent at the end of last season.

Horeck's release was apparently signed at the request of Murph Chamberlain while he was still coach here last year and Major Rogers signed it before Chamberlain left for Vancouver. The release was later passed on to Horeck.

A statement attributed to Horeck said that he had a "release" signed by Major Thomas Rogers prior to Dr. Dougan's appointment as president. Earlier Dr. Dougan stated that as far as he knew Horeck was still the property of the Islanders.

Sugar Ray In Light Workout

POMPTON LAKES, N. J., Sept. 10 (AP) — Sugar Ray Robinson limbered up with a little shadow boxing and bag punching today as he prepared to close his training camp.

Robinson said he expects to weigh 157 for his return 15-round title bout with middleweight champion Fandy Turpin at the Polo Grounds Wednesday night.

At a press conference, Robinson said: "If I don't make any mistakes on Wednesday, I expect to win the title, but 15 rounds is a long time in which not to make any mistakes."

Sport Echoes From Prince County

The Summerside Intermediates and Juniors invaded Charlottetown Sunday afternoon about 1 p. m. and just before 6 p. m. retired from the field licking their wounds. A double defeat was handed to them by the fans of both centres the worth of what-ever they threw into the collection pot. The first game in particular was a thriller. Bob Ashe did yeoman service on the mound for seven innings giving up only one hit. He had given his all, however. He didn't have anything left and Coach Chick was forced to call on his ace, Joe Bernard, who had been catching Ashe. There were two men on, one out and the Dynamite Duo, Whitlock and Matheson ready to bat. Rather a spot to be on, but Joe was used to spots. And as far as the opposition was concerned zero marked the spot a lot more often than x when Joe was through. So we Summerside fans took hope from the mighty achievements of the past, held our breaths and waited. Whitlock grounded out to second but one run scored. The mighty Matheson took three wicked swings at the ball which kept right on its way to the catcher's mitt.

So far, so good. We still had a 2 to 1 edge and Charlottetown had only one more inning to go. "Spy" Reedy started the inning off with the only hit registered off Joe. Then two very costly errors at short field made things look very dark and dismal for Summerside's cause. And those errors couldn't have happened to a more promising ball player than Don Mackenzie. Mackenzie is definitely one of the best prospects in intermediate baseball on Prince Edward Island, but old Dame Fortune sometimes delights to stamp on the forehead of the brightest stars the word "goat." And Don was certainly the "goat" of that second game in the best-of-five series.

The second bobble allowed the tying run to score and a long fly to centre field by "Red" Mackenzie batted in the winning run. So the clan Mackenzie finished a hero and also in that exciting game, they never were impressed with the fact that it's the little things that count in baseball. Gord Mackay hit a triple and with Underwood at the plate, Whalen called for the "suicide" squeeze. Underwood laid down the bunt all right but Mackay missed the signal. It would almost surely have meant a score. In the third inning Don Mackenzie slid home and was called out on a very close play. We're not criticizing the umpire. We're only pointing out how little there can be between victory and defeat.

We must compliment Charlie Ryan on a fine pitching performance. He got off to a shaky start but improved steadily as the game progressed. That is the kind of pitching that brings home the bacon. The flinger who starts brilliantly and fades is not nearly so valuable. More games are won in the seventh, eighth and ninth innings than all the others combined. (This is not a statistical report, but we shouldn't be surprised if it were true.)

Donnie Simmons pitched his usual steady game in the junior tilt but unfortunately he was up against a young man who was having himself what was perhaps the best performance of his as yet short career. Young Benny Carson was just too tough for Chick's Chicks Sunday. Quite a number of Summerside Juniors were taking leads of the sacks because of walks and errors, but only one C and B player got a hit off Carson, and the young Charlottetown pitcher was downright miserly when any sort of Summerside threat developed.

With Paul Schurman and Mark Delaney in rather serious slumps, the hitting power of the C and B Juniors, never very robust, has dropped to the point where it is virtually non-existent. Either the boys will have to do some hitting, or the pitchers, Embrett, Simmons and Co., will have to be better than anyone has a right to expect them to be.

Chick Whalen has a big job on his hands to bring the Summerside entries out on top this year. Chick knows his baseball inside out, don't let anyone tell you different. To sit beside him at a major league game and listen to his comments about the contest is worth at least twice the price of admission. He is handicapped in the intermediate bracket in that he does not know his players, not having coached them all summer. In the Juniors he has a lot of youngsters who can still play baseball, midget and juvenile baseball. That he has done wonders with this group very few doubt. To expect him to mold a championship outfit from these is asking rather too much. But Chick will do everything in his power to do just that.

Well, Wednesday is another day.

Prizes For Best Island Dog In Each Stake At Hun Trials In October

Prizes for the best Island dog in each stake of the Charlottetown Hun Trials, which will be held here on October 10 and 11, will be awarded this year for the first time, it was announced yesterday by Mr. Stewart Jones, Field Trials Superintendent.

More than 50 entries from across the continent are expected for the trials which will be in the Winsloe-Harrington area. About one quarter of the entries are expected to be from this province.

There will be competition in four stakes for both experienced and inexperienced dogs. The four stakes are: The puppy dog stake which takes in all entries from six to eighteen months; the derby stake which includes dogs from 18 to 30 months; the shooting dog stake and the open all-age stake, both of which are open to all dogs.

Seven breeds of dogs will be used in the trials. These are the English and Irish Setters, American Pointers, Brittany Spaniels, German Short Haired Pointers and the Weimaraners.

The trials will be good tests for the handler as well as the dogs because the trials are held under actual conditions, stated Mr. Jones. Hungarian Partridge and Pheasants will be shot.

Following the field trials here the Moncton Field trials will be held on October 13 and 14 and they will be attended by a number of Island men and dogs.

The hunters will probably eat in the Winsloe-Harrington area. A field trials luncheon will be held at Harrington Hall on Oct. 10 and the North Winsloe Hall on October 11.

The field trials are being sponsored by the Charlottetown Kennel Club, the president of which is Mr. Freeman Eddy.

In a six-round semi-final clash, Eddie Zastre, 168, of Montreal took a split decision over Ken Lovegrove 179, of Hamilton, Ont. Preliminary rounds.

Gordie Munroe, 147, Toronto and Jimmy Tokars, 148, Brantford, drew after four rounds.

Gordie Wallace, 164, Brantford, won unanimous decision over Jackie Harris, 170, Troy, N. Y., in six rounds.

TV Question Hot Issue In Housing Project

TORONTO, Sept. 10 (CP) — TV or not TV?

The question—so far as it affects the folks living in Toronto's civic-owned Regent Park Housing project—was answered today.

The aerial which had been erected by A. J. Bluet, one of the residents of the project—a housing district where the city charges rent on a sliding scale in relation to the earnings of the tenants.

The fight over TV aerials began several weeks ago when tenants indicated they wanted to install sets.

The city said no. Its contention was that television is a luxury and that a city-subsidized housing project is "no place for such expensive facilities."

This edict stirred a controversy in which most of the citizens of Toronto took sides. There were charges that the city was being dictatorial—that television was no more a luxury than automobiles, owned by many Regent Park residents.

Mr. Bluet, one of the first persons to move into the project after it was completed, decided to test the city order. He erected an aerial and said the city would have to go to the courts to have it removed.

Canada Given Two British Destroyers

OTTAWA, Sept. 10 (CP) — Canada was given two British destroyers today and took it as a sign that mutual aid under the Atlantic Pact works both ways.

It was announced in London that the 1,700-ton warships Crusader and Crescent in Canadian hands on a loan basis since they were commissioned in 1945—are officially being given to the Royal Canadian Navy.

They cost about $4,000,000 apiece.

Defence Minister Caxton, in a statement said "The transfer is warmly accepted as further evidence of the way in which the North Atlantic Treaty Organization nations are working together."

He promised that substantial alterations will be made "to convert them to the most modern type of anti-submarine destroyers."

The R.C.N.'s entire group of destroyers—eight in service, three in reserve—is being modernized for the Navy's main role, anti-sub warfare.

The Crescent is on the Atlantic coast, the Crusader on the west coast. Both are training ships.

The $8,000,000 gift marked the first time Canada has been on the receiving end of N.A.T.O. mutual aid. She has sent hundreds of millions of dollars worth of arms to Europe and will soon be sending manpower.

The two ships were built at Clydebank, Scotland, and commissioned by the R.C.N. in late 1946.

Who knows, it may be Summerside's day. The summer crowd of the season will probably be at the Recreation Grounds in Summerside to see these four teams resume their struggles.

Local Track Team Going To Sydney

Five members of the Abegweit track and field team will leave for Sydney this morning by car to take part in the annual Cape Breton Invitation Meet, which is being held tomorrow afternoon.

Representing the Abbies will be five Charlottetown youths. They are Ken Atkinson, Wendell Barrett, George Scantlebury, Ev. Cutcliffe and Bob Mills.

Atkinson will participate in the shot-put and weight events; Barrett will enter the sprint and broad jumping competitions; Cutcliffe will take part in the middle distance running and Scantlebury and Mills will be in the pole vaulting competitions.

Cantor-McFater Fight To Draw

TORONTO, Oct. 10 (CP) — Solly Cantor and Alan McFater, both of Toronto, fought to an eight-round draw tonight in a featured lightweight bout at Maple Leaf Gardens. Cantor weighed 133 to McFater's 139.

One judge scored for Cantor, another judged it a draw and referee Billy Burke gave it to McFater.

There were no knockdowns and no visible marks on the boxers at the end. It was a contest between Cantor, the polished boxer, and McFater, who tried to force the bout from the outset. Cantor scored with stiff left jabs to the face while McFater tried to connect with free-swinging uppercuts and overhand blows.

In a six-round semi-final clash, Eddie Zastre, 168, of Montreal took a split decision over Ken Lovegrove 179, of Hamilton, Ont. Preliminary rounds.

Gordie Munroe, 147, Toronto and Jimmy Tokars, 148, Brantford, drew after four rounds.

Gordie Wallace, 164, Brantford, won unanimous decision over Jackie Harris, 170, Troy, N. Y., in six rounds.

Miners Expect To Sign Batten, Neil Amadio

GLACE BAY, N.S., Sept. 10 (CP) — Glace Bay Miner Hockey Association prospects, Naish Batten and Neil Amadio, will be given every opportunity to play with Miners in the Maritime Major Hockey League.

Club business manager Leo Galley said Amadio, who played last year with Quebec Citadels, Quebec Junior League champions, planned to attend New York Rangers training camp this month, but was expected to re-join Miners.

Citadels are sponsored by the New York club. Batten, a flashy skater who made a fine impression in his senior appearance with Halifax St. Mary's of the Big Four last season, is an overage junior and now can pick his own spot.

There is a possibility that Batten and St. Mary's junior linemates of last season, Courtney Malcolm and Kenny Flynn, may attend St. Mary's camp in Montreal. So far, however, Halifax club officials have suggested that only two juniors will be invited to the training camp.

Sport Briefs

CHICAGO, Sept. 10 (AP) — Chicago White Sox today accented Glenn "Rocky" Nelson, first baseman and outfielder, on waivers, from Pittsburgh Pirates.

Vernon Cardy Buys Three Holiday Resorts

MONTREAL, Sept. 10 (CP) — Vernon G. Cardy, onetime owner of one of the largest Canadian chains of hotels and a prominent horseman, today purchased three Laurentian mountain holiday resorts for a reported $1,000,000.

Cardy, who sold his hotel interests in several major cities to the Sheraton Hotels of Canada, bought the St. Margaret's Golf and Country Club, the Alpine Inn and St. Adele Lodge. He once owned the latter two.

The Golf Club and the Alpine Inn are at St. Margaret Station about 50 air miles north of here and St. Adele Lodge is about five miles further south. All are in the heart of the Laurentian summer and winter holiday resorts.

The Galt, Ont., hotelman sold his interests in several hotels in a reported major Canadian cities for $4,000,000 about 19 months ago.

He bought the Golf Club and the Alpine from the Sheraton chain for $480,000. The price was confirmed by a Sheraton spokesman.

The St. Adele Lodge was purchased through a syndicate for a reported $530,000 from George A. (Mickey) Wilson of Toronto. Cardy took over from the syndicate today.

Baseball Playoffs To Resume Here Tomorrow

Mrs. Dr. Campbell of Charlottetown won the low net in the first division with a score of 46. Runners-up were Mrs. Noel DeBlois and Mrs. G. H. Buntain with 49.

Musial Has Long Lead In Batting Race

NEW YORK, Sept. 10 (AP) — When Jackie Robinson was asked last spring whether he thought he could win the National League batting championship, he replied: "Not as long as Stan Musial is in this league. That fellow is in another class. The rest of us are in another."

The averages today bear out Robinson's words. Musial, St. Louis Cardinals' one-man gang, is way up in the clouds with a .370 mark through games of Sunday Sept. 9.

The second batter, Philadelphia's Richie Ashburn, has .340. Robinson is third with .338.

Following the big three in this order are:

Roy Campanella, Dodgers, .329; Johnny Woychick, Cincinnati, .316; Al Dark, New York, .313; Carl Furillo, Dodgers, .311; Ralph Kiner, Pittsburgh, .310; Monte Irvin, Giants, .309, and George Metkovich, Pirates, .302. The latter is the only newcomer to the top ten, replacing the Cards' Harry (Peanute) Lowery.

Musial also is tops with 11 triples. His 187 hits is second only to Ashburn's 195, and his 112 runs scored is bettered only by Ralph Kiner of Pittsburgh with 116.

Stan also has an outside chance to grab the home run title. Kiner, the defending champion, leads with 37 to 36 for Brooklyn's Gil Hodges. Musial is third with 32.

Irvin took over the runs batted in leadership from Boston's Sid Gordon, 103 to 100.

Preacher Roe, the sly Dodger southpaw, tops pitchers with a 19-2, 9.04 percentage.
