POLITICAL CORRUPTION.

WHISKEY IMPERSONATION, FREE TRANSPORTATION, CRISP TWO DOLLAR BILLS, WHO PAYS THE MONEY—THE PEOPLE EVERY TIME.

The average elector has an idea of the amount of political corruption which is rampant during one single county election. Imagine a party heeler soaking a doubtful voter with whiskey and carting him out of town to keep him from the polls for fear he would vote for the other side. Imagine getting a half dozen 'loose fish' corralled the night before an election, and starting them off at day-break on a fishing excursion. Again, a name, say John Smith, appears on the list—Mr. Smith is dead or in Texas—perhaps he is not well known to the returning officer, or poll clerk—by the aid of the heeler outside, and possibly the clerk inside, another man, either a Smith or a Jones, attempts to vote on the name, and generally succeeds. Then before an election list of absentees is prepared and their presence on election day solicited, many come, and very few pay their own expenses. They receive cold cash or ticket for the trip.

Again, it is impossible to be around a booth on election day without seeing some prominent party man handle a roll of crisp new bills—two dollars being the favorite denomination. Express parcels containing money are freely handled a few days before an election; waggon loads of goods of various kinds go out from the shire town to outlying districts a day or two, or the night before election. In some districts the purchasable vote is larger than others—here then the ablest heeler is sent for the day. Smart young lawyers are transferred to outside districts to ostensibly oppose corruption on the other side, but fully prepared to adopt any possible sharp practice for their own side. A prominent townsman originally came from a certain district where he has considerable influence—election days finds him in that district with a good wad of bills in his pocket. A certain candidate once put $10,000 into a county to be snowed under—another $4,000 to be almost elected. Instances are plenty of prominent party men receiving large sums from the party treasurer, and quietly putting a good share in their own pocket. A prominent man in a district has been known to receive a large amount of money and then to use his influence to aid the opponent. Our references show not only a reckless expenditure of money, but also an utter absence of moral principle. But the question may well be asked before going further, where does the money come from? This is a vital point. Were we convinced that the men aspiring for political honors spread all this money around, there might be a tendency to continue to bleed them, but instances are many of men not owning scarcely a cent, running an election, in which their supporters pay thousands of dollars to secure their election.

They do not furnish the money—where does it come from? A moderate estimate places the sum expended in the West Huron and Brockville Dominion bye-elections and five provincial bye-elections in the province of Ontario at $400,000—Who furnished the money? It was sent into the constituencies. Who would send it in but the government so anxious to hold or carry the seats. The government, as such, did not contribute it; thanks to the vigilance of the Auditor-General, some persons outside furnished it to the government machine. The people do not make this contribution for love of party, or conviction in the justice of the party's platform. It is to their interests to contribute, and they expect something in return. The feeders of the great party machines are not philanthropists. A man, a company, or a corporation, makes a donation to the machine of a few, or many thousands of dollars; it is safe betting to conclude that the favoured party, if successful, will reward the donor with some lucrative appointment, with some large subsidy, with some important concession, with some favorable customs legislation, with some profitable railway deal, or some such return. Who then pays the bills? The answer is obvious: Every wage earner in this broad Dominion shoulders the responsibility. These donors expect to receive back from the public their money, with a good profit as well. The citizens may pay for it in an increased price of coal, in an increased price of oil, in a poorer service of some kind, in an increased duty on soda biscuit, to help Mr. Patterson's factory, to acquire an unnecessary line of railways, to enable the Toronto Globe to acquire immense coal fields; or, in any one of a hundred ways, the citizen bears his share of the burden. Imagine a man once in four years accepting $2.00 or $5.00 for his vote, and paying 65 cents a ton more for his coal, and 5 cents a gallon more for his oil! THE PEOPLE PAY IT EVERY TIME!—Truro Search Light.

STOMACH TROUBLE

MAKES THE LIVES OF THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE MISERABLE.

Mrs. John Holland, of Tarantum, P. E. I.

Gives Her Experience for the Benefit of Similar Sufferers—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Cured Her After Other Medicines Failed.

From the Watchman, Charlottetown,

Mrs. John Holland, of Tarantum, P. E. I., is well known and highly respected in the community where she resides. For some years her life was one of misery and suffering, having been an acute sufferer from that common foe of humanity, dyspepsia. A reporter hearing of her restoration to health through the agency of that wonderful remedy, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, called upon Mrs. Holland to obtain particulars, which were cheerfully given as follows:—“About four years ago I became very ill. I was attacked with a distressing pain in my stomach, accompanied with flashes of heat and cold. These attacks were generally preceded by sleepiness and stupor which required constant exertion to keep awake. I had little or no appetite and food lay as a stone on my stomach. As time passed, I was growing worse, vomiting of food set in, with sudden changes of heat and cold in my feet. I was so reduced in strength as to not be able to walk any distance without resting. To work I dare not attempt. I began to feel that I could not live very long in my present condition. I was reduced in weight to 115 pounds. Two years ago I began using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Before this I had tried various advertised medicines, but without any benefit resulting. I was using the second box of the pills before I felt any benefit, but from that time my recovery was rapid. I used in all five boxes of the pills and have never felt better in my life than I do at the present moment. All the disagreeable sensations that accompany dyspepsia have vanished; I can enjoy my meals with relish, and my weight has increased from 115 to 139 pounds. It is now more than a year since I discontinued the use of the pills, and as I have not had the slightest touch of the trouble in that time, I feel safe in saying that my cure is permanent. I would strongly advise those suffering from stomach troubles to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial.” Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure by going to the root of the disease. They renew and build up the blood, and strengthen the nerves, thus driving disease from the system. Avoid imitations by insisting that every box you purchase is enclosed in a wrapper bearing the full trade mark. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. If your dealer does not keep them they will be sent postpaid at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50 by address the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
