"The position of the affairs of the Society calculated up to December 1st, 1851, stands thus:—

Amount of Investments, together with the present value of the Income from Annual Premiums, ...	£1,114,591	7	1
Present value of Liabilities on all Assurances, Annuities, &c., including paid-up Capital,	1,000,915	16	3
Balance in favor of the Society, ...	£113,675	10	10

"From this Balance I would recommend the sum of £87,024 3s. 8d. to be reserved for future profits, and one-third of the remainder, after making a further reserve of about 18 per cent. of the same, for the purpose of extinguishing the sum put down for preliminary expenses, will enable you to declare to Policy-holders a cash bonus of 15 per cent., and a reversionary bonus, in addition to the sums assured, varying according to age, &c., from 22 to 52 per cent. on the Premiums of Policies on the profit scale, and of 5 years' standing; and to the Proprietors, a bonus of 3½ per cent. in addition to the regular interest of 5 per cent.

"Presuming upon the adoption of the recommendation here given, I cannot conclude without alluding, in terms of congratulation, to the complete elimination of the preliminary expenses, an item which has hitherto stood against the Society as a liability.

"As stated in my last year's Report, the reserved portions of the divisible surplus will, in future years, accumulate in the formation of an additional guarantee fund, and give increased stability to the Society.

"I am, Gentlemen,
Your most obedient servant,
(Signed,) "W. S. B. WOOLHOUSE, Actuary.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.—LOSS OF THREE LIVES.—On Thursday the 22nd of July, Mr. Francis Clark, near Darnley, and his three sons, Thomas and Jacob, (twins aged 24 years,) and Francis, together with John Mahar, aged 17 years, son of Mr. Edward Mahar, of the same place, went out in a boat with the intention of fishing, and on their return in the evening, when within a short distance of the shore, were overtaken by a sudden squall from the North West, by which the boat was upset; and Thomas and Jacob Clark, and John Mahar were drowned: and Mr. Clark, though a feeble old man, over 60 years of age, and his son Francis were preserved, by holding to the mast of the boat, until they were saved by another of Mr. Clark's sons and William Pickering going to their relief in another boat. The bodies of the three young men were found the same evening, and were conveyed to their respective burying grounds on Saturday, by a large number of the inhabitants of the neighbourhood. We are in jeopardy every hour, and ought to prepare to meet God, who, by this dispensation, is saying to all, and especially to the young:—"Be ye also ready, for at such an hour, as ye think not, the Son of man cometh." The boat formerly belonged to Charlottetown, and was known by the name of the "Tam O'Chanter."

The Annual Festival of the Wesleyan Sabbath School passed off with much eclat on Tuesday last on the beautiful grounds of Kensington. The fineness of the weather, the lovely scenery, the plentiful and gracefully served repast, the sweet music and the appropriate speeches combined to render the occasion one of high enjoyment to all present.—Com.

We are requested to state, for the information of parents intending to send their sons to the Academy at Mount Allison, Sackville, N. B., that the next term at that Institution will commence on Thursday, the 5th of August next. The Rev. A. Desbrisay, the Chaplain of the Academy, who is now in Charlottetown, returns on Thursday next, and will be happy to take under his care any young gentlemen who may be entrusted to him.

REVIEWS OF THE WORK.

"MANHOOD, by J. L. CURTIS—We agree with the Author, that so far from works of this class being objectionable in the hands of youth, or difficulties being opposed, every facility should be given to their circulation; and to strengthen our opinion, we need but refer to the recent distressing events at our Military and Scholastic Academies at Carshalton and Woolwich."—Naval and Military Gazette, Feb. 1, 1851.

"We feel no hesitation in saying, that there is no member of society by whom the book will not be found useful—whether such person hold the relation of a parent, preceptor, or a clergyman.—Sun, Evening Paper.

"CURTIS ON MANHOOD.—Fortunate for a country would it be, did its youth put into practice, the philanthropic and scientific maxims here laid down—one cause of matrimonial misery might then be banished from our land, and the race of the enervate, be succeeded by a renewal of the hardy, vigorous spirits of the olden time."—Chronicle.

The undermentioned PROPERTY will be sold by Public Auction on the Premises on TUESDAY the 10th day of August next.

THE Subscriber offers for Sale a GRIST MILL erected nearly 2 years ago, with the Leasehold Interest of fifty-five acres of excellent LAND, on 999 years. Lease at 1s. per acre. This Property may be sold in one, two or three Lots, to suit purchasers.
