Local and Other Items.

EASTER MONDAY is a statute holiday under Dominion law.

FINE ANIMALS.—A number of fine horses were shown on Market Square to-day.

FINED FOR DRUNKENNESS.—Two countrymen were fined $1 or 4 days each for drunkenness this forenoon.

MEETING.—The Oddfellows Natal Day Celebration Committee will meet in the Market Hall this evening at 8 o'clock.

BALLAD CONCERT.—Don't fail to attend Mr. Williams' Benefit Concert in the Lyceum on Monday evening. See the programme in another column.

Y. M. C. A.—Gospel meeting in the Y. M. C. A. Hall to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. Subject: The Two Great Commandments, Mark 12. 28 to 34. Address by Rev. John Read. Everybody welcome.

GOOD FRIDAY.—Yesterday being Good Friday, was generally observed in this city. Many of the stores and places of business were closed, and the usual services were held in the Churches.

BOARD OF TRADE.—Attention is called to the meeting of the Board of Trade, which takes place on the evening of Wednesday the 24th inst., at 8 o'clock. As business of much importance is to be discussed, it is particularly requested that all members attend.

RAILWAY GOSPEL MEETING.—This meeting is held every Sunday afternoon in McLeod's Hall, at 4 o'clock. Open to all. Strangers always welcome. Lesson for to-morrow, John 15-5. "I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing."

"IT'S AN ILL WIND THAT BLOWS NOBODY GOOD.—On account of being rushed with work the Laundry was not in a position to shut down yesterday and observe the holiday. But many of those who were at liberty to suspend business took advantage of the situation and visited the Laundry, going away pleased with what they saw and leaving good wishes.

LAWN TENNIS.—There is every prospect of a large attendance at the tennis concert in the Lyceum on Tuesday evening next. It therefore behooves all purchasers of tickets to call at Reddin's Drug Store immediately and select their seats. Those who have not yet secured tickets should obtain them at once—before all are disposed of.

TRINITY UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—M. D., C. M., J. F. MacCormack, Rustico; Primary Examination, G. J. Tweedy, Vernon River; A. E. Douglas, Mount Stewart; First Year Examination, N. W. Cozens, Alexandria; R. D. MacLauchlin, Head Hillsborough, Messrs. Tweedy, Cozens and MacLaughlin taking honors in their respective examinations.

STEAMERS' MOVEMENTS.—The St. Lawrence left Point du Chene this morning at 8.45, but as the straits are reported full of ice yet, it is uncertain when she will reach her destination. During the run over to the Point on Thursday she sustained some damage to her paddle wheel.

The Princess of Wales arrived at Pictou from this port this morning, and left on return at 1 45 this afternoon.

Easter Market.

There was a large attendance at the market to-day, and sales were lively. The display of beef was, as it always is at Easter, more than usually good, and was, of course, the centre of attraction. Messrs. Blake Bros. had several splendid carcasses on sale, the total dead weight of which was upwards of 6,400 lbs. The feeders were D. McCallum, E. McLean, W. Laird, themselves, and others. They also had a carcass of mutton that weighed 135 lbs. Mr. R. Stockman was the feeder. Saunders & Newsom had four carcasses of beef, the aggregate weight of which was about 3,000 lbs.; and a carcass of mutton, 101 lbs. The feeders were Messrs. McKinlay, McKinnon and Clarke. George Thorne had three carcasses fed by Messrs. McNeill, McEwen and Irving, which dressed 2,226 lbs. He also showed a carcass of mutton weighing 102 lbs. H. McGregor had two carcasses which aggregated 1,400 lbs., the feeders of which were Messrs. McCallum and Mutch. John Drake's two carcasses weighed 1,350 lbs. They were fed by Francis Bain and R. Drake. S. Gay had three carcasses fed by William Pippy, Pope Mills and James Pratt, which dressed 2,040 lbs. Jenkins Bros. showed the carcass of a cow fed by Joseph Haley, that dressed 800 lbs., and also a carcass of lamb fed by Michael Haley, weighing 25 lbs. W. Sellers had three carcasses, fed by A. Mutch, Isaac Essory and Thomas Cameron, aggregating 1,740 lbs. Barret Henderson's two carcasses, one of which was fed by himself and the other by John McKinlay, dressed 1,515 lbs. Patrick Trainor showed two carcasses, fed by Messrs. Henderson and McDougall, which dressed 1,297 lbs. Stephen Brown and Henry Balls had three carcasses, aggregating 1,960 lbs. They were fed by Thomas Vessey, Abraham Brown and Henry Ford. The other butchers also had a very good quality on hand. Below are the prices:—

Moderate to fresh winds; partly cloudy weather; not much change in temperature.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

A Big Blaze.

NEW YORK, April 19.

The biggest and fiercest fire New Yorkers have witnessed in this generation swept the east bank of North River clear to-day from 59th street to what would be 65th street if the street ran to the river. It destroyed more than a million and a half dollars' worth of property belonging to the New York Central Railroad, at least half a million dollars' worth of stores, lard, flour and the like, belonging to other persons, notably N. K. Fairbanks, the great Chicago lard merchant. Two big elevators, A. and B. Vanderbilt system; the big brick building stretching from 59th to 60th street, occupied jointly by Fairbank Lard Refinery and the Rosseter Store, and the dock property of the New York system, 59th to past 65th street, are wiped out. Henry Benning, (single), a workman in Fairbank's refinery, was killed by jumping from the third story window, and a number of others were in-injured by jumping from windows. Rumors were flying round all the evening that a number of workmen were caught and burned in Fairbank's factory, but it is impossible to verify them. Piers and pierheads connected with the elevator system are badly damaged and rendered temporarily useless. Some freight they contained was destroyed. Three immense vats containing 200,000 gallons of melted lard and cotton seed oil, when the flames reached them exploded, throwing the burning fluid in all directions. The employes had not a chance to save themselves save by jumping out of the windows. Many estimates place the loss far above $2,000,000, some as high as $4,000,000, while the police estimate is $3,000,000.

"Green Goods" Again.

OTTAWA, April 19.

Some time ago one Roots, of New Jersey, flooded Ontario with letters offering "green goods" on the usual terms. One of the earliest letters was sent to the Department of Justice and resulted in negotiations with the American postal authorities, whereby all letters to Roots' address from Canada were forwarded to the Dominion authorities. Lots of these letters are now in the hands of Major Sherwood, Chief of the Dominion police, and as under a statute of last session it is criminal matter to offer to purchase any "counterfeit token of value" it looks as if quite a lot of Canadian greenhorns are in a bad box. If the prosecution of one Holden, in Ottawa, started a few days ago, results in conviction, other prosecutions will speedily follow. The Department of Justice is determined to make this trade so dangerous that not even the most gullible will dare bite at such Yankee bait.

Late Ottawa News.

OTTAWA, April 19.

E. Stone Wiggins made his appearance in the gallery yesterday, and the first rainstorm of the season followed to-day.

The members are tearing themselves away from the capital. It is now believed that the session will string out till the last of next week.

There was a cricket match on Parliament grounds this afternoon. L. H. Davies carried off the bowling honors, and Mr. Dickie did some grand batting.

The debate on the Atlantic mail subsidies which was suspended at 12 o'clock last night, will be resumed to-morrow, and may last some time. Mr. Skinner had the floor when the debate adjourned.

The Wimbledon team has been filled. But two provinces—Ontario and Nova Scotia—are represented.

The Plot Discovered.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 19.

The Prefect of Police has discovered the existence of a Nihilist plot to assassinate the Czar, while attending the funeral of Gen. Panicker, Minister of Roads. The Czar was warned not to attend the funeral. A number of persons charged with being implicated in the plot have been arrested. The Nihilists intended to use dynamite.

The Danmark.

NEW YORK, April 11.

All the steamers which passed the course where the Danmark lay when last seen have reached port. Some of the sailing vessels have not yet reported; but little hope for any knowledge through these is held out. The general impressien that now prevails is that the passengers and crew have reached the Azores.

Lower California's Fisheries.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., April 17.

The International company of Mexico claims the sole control of the fisheries of Lower California, the Pacific Ocean and the Gulf waters. The authorities at Ensenada will commence an active crusade against and confiscate all vessels found fishing in the proscribed limits.

Mortgage Sale.
