CITY POLICE COURT — At the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court yesterday, a woman charged with being drunk and disorderly was fined $10 and costs or 10 days while a second woman charged with common assault was fined $10 and costs or 20 days. A man charged with being drunk and incapable was remanded for seven days.

DISCUSSED CIVIC AFFAIRS—Members of the Charlottetown City Council met informally yesterday morning with Mr. Alan S. Stewart, City Clerk and Solicitor of Owen Sound, Ont. Views were exchanged in the matter of Parking Meters and Traffic Lights. Mr. Stewart offered to confirm his figures, given in a talk at a recent Rotary luncheon, concerning the installation of such equipment at Owen Sound. The cost was at considerable variance with that previously being discussed by the local Council. Other phases of city government were discussed such as taxes, grants, sewage and garbage disposal, street repair and construction.

NEW YORK, Aug. 8 — (AP) — Trans-Atlantic communications were disrupted today by sunspot activity after a display of northern lights over the eastern part of the United States. Press copy and messages from Europe were garbled or delayed in transmission.

DUNEDIN, N. Z., Aug. 8 — (Reuters) — Planes checking reports of "submarines" sighted off Australia and New Zealand today found a possible solution — a long, low-lying 2,000-ton ship off the Otago coast. She was described as apparently diesel-powered, with all super-structure amidships. But there was no identification and shipping circles could not explain her presence.
