Alf Flanagan Enters Hospital For Observation

MONCTON (CP) —Alf Flanagan, spunky centre with Nova Scotia Senior Hockey League-leading Moncton Beavers, entered Hotel Dieu hospital here Wednesday for observation of an abdominal injury suffered in a game here against second place Halifax Tartans earlier this month.

Flanagan, 20-year-old native of Charlottetown, had been playing since the injury, but the pain became so great he entered hospital. Tests are expected to be taken today (Thursday).

Flanagan has 63 points on 30 goals and 33 assists in 41 games.

JACK ANNEAR, Montague, president of The Prince Edward Island Harness Racing Club, and W. G. 'Bill' Gillespie, secretary- treasurer, talk things over just before the annual meeting of the racing club got underway last night. Both were re-elected to their posts.

Harness Racing Club Has Most Successful Season

The Prince Edward Island Harness Racing Club will seek an additional grant from the provincial government in order to further encourage the raising of standard breeds.

This was decided last evening at the annual meeting of the club held in The Charlottetown Hotel.

The meeting also went on record as being in agreement in raising the nomination fee, first payment and starting fee for those entering colts in the stakes. It was felt that this would be an incentive for more persons to nominate two, three and four-year-olds.

Jack Annear was re-elected president and Frank MacKay was selected as vice-president. W. G. 'Bill' Gillespie was again chosen as secretary-treasurer.

Named as directors at last night's meeting were Jack Annear, Doug Hill, Lee Taylor and Bob Humphrey. Mr. Humphrey is completing the unexpired term of the late George Brookins.

ANNUAL REPORT

In presenting his annual report of the directors, president Jack Annear stated that the past year must be considered one of the best in the history of the club. Mr. Annear based this on the number of horses that started, the number of spectators in attendance at the colt stakes, the good response of the public at the mutuel windows and the great behaviour of the young pacers and trotters.

The president reported that 71 horses nominated in March. There were 32 two-year-olds, 33 three-year-olds and six four-year old trotters. The two-year old trot carried a purse of $470, the twoyear-old pace $600, the three-year old trot $430, the three year old pace $600 and the four year old trot $400. Mr. Annear cited that the Prince Edward Island Harness Racing Club paid out $100 to ten nonmoney winners and as usual donated a cooler to the winner of each class. In addition, the following trophies were donated:

The Rendezvous trophy — winner Doug Hill with two year old pacer, Rushaway Chief.

The Horse and Sulky Club Trophy — winner Wilbur Dickie, Cape Traverse, with two-year old trotter, Sarah's Fortress.

The J. R. Williams Memorial trophy — winner Cyril Smith and Elmer Clark, Hunter River, with three year old pacer, Dot's Chief.

The E. F. Acorn Memorial trophy — winner George Semple Kensington, with three year old trotter, Little Art.

The Col. D. A. MacKinnon trophy — winner R. S. Humphrey, Kensington, with four year old trotter Mr. Gallon.

Mr. Annear expressed his regrets at the passing in the past year of Roy Bevan, Emmet Gallant, Senator Barbour, George Brookins, Byron Brown, Ensor Bowness and Harry O'Brien. He also extended to trainer- driver Joe Hennessey the sympathy of the club on the recent death of his mother, Mrs. Walter Hennessey.

One minute's silence was observed in memory of the above mentioned persons.

The president extended thanks of his directors to Premier Shaw and his government for the help and encouragement given the raising of standard breeds, with their annual grant. Thanks was also expressed to The Charlottetown Driving Park and Provincial Exhibition Association "for their co-operation and financial assistance in making our stakes successful."

Mr. Gillespie presented the financial statement which showed a balance on hand of $355.24. Receipts during the year totalled $2298 and disbursements amounted to $2475.63.

Sherwood High Holds Ice Sports

A large crowd turned out at the Sports Arena last night for Sherwood Junior High's annual ice sports which was featured by a hockey game between Birchwood and Sherwood schools. Birchwood emerged on the long end of a 5-1 score.

Smooth -skating defenceman Kevin Smith paced the winners with a brace of goals, one of them coming while his team was shorthanded. Other counters went to Jack Arsenault, Gary Clow and Bill LeClair.

Blaine Jelly fired the lone Sherwood tally.

Referees John Richard and Harold Stewart handed out a total of ten penalties, eight of them going to Birchwood.

Penguins Have New Look

OLD Spain Penguins lost another hockey game Tuesday night at The Sports Arena but they left their supporters feeling good about the whole thing.

The Baby Birds, favorites to cop the Prince Edward Island junior hockey crown, came through with their most aggressive style of play of the entire season and with a wee bit of luck could have thrown the short-handed Parkdale Royals for a loss. The Bucko Trainor coached outfit skated off after the first 30 minutes sporting a 1-0 margin but they deserved about a four-goal edge on the play. They were failing to do the most necessary thing in any hockey game, put that rubber in the net.

BUT the youngsters have nearly two months before Maritime playdowns and they should improve in their shooting greatly before that time. Coach Trainor has them skating like fiends and they were driving in on goalie 'Butch' Ward all evening. We are sure that 'Bucko' will give them plenty of shooting practice from here on and if they find their shooting eyes, all opposition is going to be in for some very interesting evenings.

The addition of Gary Bursey, a Moncton native, surely added much needed strength to the Juniors' defence. Not only did Gary play a solid game as a Penguin rearguard but he scored the Penguins' first goal and was a playmaker on two of the other three. Folks liked the look of the young New Brunswicker and he should certainly solve some of coach Trainor's defensive problems.

Opposition, Beware

THE way the Penguins were going Tuesday night should be an indication that they'll prove troublesome foes in the Island Hockey League playdowns. The team that draws the Birds will surely know they are in a series and don't go making them underdogs too quickly. They have a lot of hockey talent in the lineup and that talent is bound to assert itself sooner or later.

Right now we see the Baby Birds as definite threats for Maritime Junior honors and that trip to the Ottawa Valley where the Maritime representative tackles the ODHA winner in Eastern Conference junior play.

Bobby Was There

ONE of the greatest supporters Parkdale Royals ever had, Bobby White, was in attendance at Tuesday night's game.

The last time we had seen Bobby was when he was being taken from Victoria General Hospital in Halifax. We happened to be a passenger on the car ferry that October Sunday afternoon when Sinclair Cutcliffe was conveying Bobby back to Charlottetown. At that time we never thought we'd see Bobby at a hockey game this winter but we are surely glad we were wrong.

Bobby was seriously injured in a car accident last summer and waged a long fight against severe injuries. However, he's looking great again and tells us that things are improving every day.

All of his many friends were giving him a handshake Tuesday and Royals' Sandy Frizzell was among the first. Things went right as far as the game was concerned for Bobby with Royals conquering 6-4.

Hope to see you soon again, Bobby.

Pulled A 'Boner'

WE apologize to Elizabeth MacDonald and her associates who represented Prince Edward Island women curlers twice at the Diamond 'D' championships.

Last week in referring to those who made trips to the Dominion championships, we cited Mrs. Macdonald's rink as going only in 1962 to Regina. We were dead wrong because in 1961 the same rink won provincial honors and earned the trip to the Dominion championships at Ottawa.

Our apologies, ladies.

All-Family Rink

AND still on curling, we understand that an all-family rink will compete in Charlottetown Curling Club's mixed bonspiel in March.

The veteran curler himself, John 'Snag' Squarebriggs will skip the rink and three others by the name of Squarebriggs will be his rink mates. They will be John Jr., and his wife, Barbara and Snag's daughter, Sandra.

It's a novelty around these parts to have a rink composed of the same family. Opposition is hereby warned to look out for the Squarebriggses.

Penalty Specialist Hurts Teams

The time has come, the walrus said, to talk of many things—of drips, and schmoos, and maniacs, and cabbage heads, and—come to think of it, all these are only one thing—or rather, one person, the guy who specializes in picking up misconduct penalties because he has never learned to discipline his emotions. He hurts himself and his team.

For the sake of argument, a referee can do one of three things—he can call a play correctly, or he can call it incorrectly with honest intent, or he can deliberately call it incorrectly to hurt a team. (We admit very little of this is done, but we are discussing all the possibilities). If his calls are correct, or incorrect, but well-meant, there is no occasion for pyrotechnics. If you think he has made a mistake, a quiet word may start him thinking without getting you in a jam. But most players who go berserk are convinced that the referee is out to get them, and if he is, they play right into his hands.

If we were crooked (again, we are discussing all the possibilities), and were out to hurt a certain team, we'd slap an undeserved penalty on one of them, and hope the pop-offs would start popping so we could make with the misconduct penalties. Maybe if we were lucky, we could hand out a few match penalties and cripple the team for a month, or even the rest of have such fine reflexes, wonderful bursts of speed, and stickhandling magic, get rid of those cabbage heads and resigns from the society of schmoos.

Up On Bandwagon

We hereby crawl up on the bandwagon and beat a drum to welcome Ivan Doherty back into the hockey picture. From away back when he was drumming up enthusiasm for boxing in Charlottetown, Ivan has shown himself to be something of a promotional wizard. The position of ISHL president cramped his style a little because the only acceptable promotion in this sphere of action is over-all league promotion that will benefit all clubs, and you couldn't promote the interests of one team without getting criticized.

We think Ivan will be happier in his present position, promoting the Old Spain Penguins, and as all Island fans should be behind this promising Junior team, satisfaction will be general at Ivan's new appointment. We wish him every success, and are confident, Ivan being who he is, that our wish will be granted.

Minor All-Stars Chosen

Charlie Morrison, mentor of Summerside minor hockey, picked his all-star minor teams, and it will not be too long before they will be pitting their skill against minor all-star teams from other centres. The boys had their first practice, Wednesday evening.

Buck Whitlock is going to be hard to dislodge from that scoring leadership. Greg Deighan, Jim MacLeod, Stan Pearson, Angie Carrol, and maybe one or two others are snapping at his heels, but Buck always manages to pick up enough points to stay ahead of the pack. Before his "hat trick" of Tuesday evening, Alger Cutcliffe had him tied in goals scored, and that's pretty good for a young fellow who is playing his third year in the top Island hockey bracket.
