

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

SEPTEMBER 9, 1893.

THE STATION AT FREETOWN.

It is pleasing to learn that the railway station at Freetown is to be reopened.

THE HOME RULE BILL.

The expected has happened in respect to the Home Rule Bill. Their Lordships have thrown it out. A larger majority than the one anticipated voted against it.

THE BAIL QUESTION.

We have no desire at present to continue the discussion of the bail question which has been raised under the Criminal Code.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The Montreal Gazette remarks that "just now the Liberals are struggling desperately hard to make people forget that only two short years ago they were anxious to sell their country into commercial bondage to the United States."

—Harper's Weekly: "The most important teaching of our recent struggles is that all those who yielded their better impulses to a heresy which appeared to be supported by a popular movement will never cease to deplore their weakness."

KING'S COUNTY ITEMS.

The harvest about Three Rivers is fairly well finished, so far as grain crops are concerned.

THE SITUATION OF THE SILVER MEN.

A Picture of Destitution in Colorado. Right Rev. John F. Spaulding, Episcopal bishop of Colorado, has sent the following to The Living Church Chicago.

CHARLOTTETOWN

TO-DAY the Native Sons of the Golden West will celebrate their anniversary at Napa, Cal.

The Golden State is forty-three years old to-day, and an elaborate programme in honor of this double celebration of the State and her sons is one of exceptional elaborateness.

The various parlors into which the membership of the sons is divided, are largely represented at the joint gathering.

Yes, the Golden State is proud of her progress within the last few decades. As a coarsening she is celebrating her anniversary to-day.

This establishment, so successful for so many years, proposes to hold a great jubilee, with the special object in view of entertaining the great army of friends who have stood by us since we started business.

If circumstances permit, forty-three years from this date we will do it up brown. In view of this, we need to make as many and as quick sales as possible; so come to the rescue and see what an immense stock we keep of most anything you want, and as cheap as any heart could wish.

Beautiful OVERCOATINGS, SCOTCH TWEED SUITINGS and FURNISHINGS in great variety, all of which we are prepared to sell at double quick for cash.
