THE Amateur Christy's Minstrels performed in the Temperance Hall, on Thursday and Friday evenings of last week. The weather was unfortunately unpropitious and the audiences consequently not so good as was anticipated. The Minstrels, however, acquitted themselves handsomely, the music, both instrumental and vocal, being pronounced by competent judges little if at all inferior to that of professionals. We understand that the Minstrels intend visiting Pictou sometime next month.

THE New Dominion Monthly for May has been received. Its contents are as usual varied and interesting.

☞ We learn that Frederick Hyndman, Esqr., R. N., has been appointed Assistant Paymaster to H. M. S. "Newport," which has been fitted out for surveying service in the Mediterranean.

By a telegram to the Reading Room dated May 16th, we learn that the President has been acquitted on the eleventh and most improtant article of the Impeachment. If the Senate has pronounced Mr. Johnson not guilty of the most serious of the offences laid to his charge, it will be hardly worth while to pursue the matter any further. We think we are quite safe in predicting the complete acquittal of Mr. Johnson The Senate stands adjourned until the 26th inst.

LATEST DESPATCHES.

Montreal, May 14.

A man named Duggan, a saloon keeper, and two accomplices, were arrested this morning, charged with being implicated in the plot for the assassination of McGee.

The prisoners were examined before Judge Coursol with the doors of the Court closed. A witness testified to being present in Duggan's house in December when the conspiracy was hatched. Twelve American and twelve Canadian Fenians were also present.

One man, called Smith, was selected to do a certain job, but witness could not say what job it was, but he heard one of the men say: "My God, if McGee only knew what he has in store for him, wouldn't he leave the country." Witness also heard another man say: "Smith, you did that job of burning the Orange Lodge first-rate." Witness has identified Whalen as the man he heard called Smith.

The prisoners leave for Ottawa to-morrow morning in charge of the officers.
