

The Little Farmer Boy.

Oh pa, I'm twelve years old to-day, I'm old enough to work, you say; Please give a patch of land to me, I'll work it as it ought to be.

If I can have a patch of corn I'll cultivate it night and morn; Then I can go to school, you know, And learn to be a farmer too.

Am up to sunshine as a rule, Could hoe my corn till time for school, Then in the evening, I am sure, There's time for work an hour more.

Will work my rows out straight and true, And then I'll plant it as you do, And when I leave off work at night, Will hang my hoe up clean and bright.

I wish to do my chores each day, And help my mother all I may; Then work my little patch alone, And have the crop my very own.

Oh, thank you pa, I knew you would give it to me, because you're good; I'll try to have the neatest patch— Why pa, we'll have a farming match. Thus spoke the little farmer lad, Who tried to have and always had As neat a patch as could be found For many miles the country round.

Knights of the Garter.

It has been announced that on his return to England, the Marquis of Lorne will be created a Knight of the Garter. The members of this Order are the Prince of Wales, the Duke of Edinburgh, the Duke of Connaught, the Duke of Albany, the Duke of Cambridge, the Duke of Cumberland, the Emperor of Germany, the King of Portugal, the King of Denmark, the King of Belgians, the Emperor of Austria, the Emperor of Brazil, the Shah of Persia, the King of the Hellenes, the King of Italy, the Emperor of Russia, the King of Sweden and Norway. The King of Spain, the King of Saxony, the King of the Netherlands, the Duke of Saxe-Meningen, the Duke of Brunswick, the Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg-Strelitz, the Grand Duke of Hesse, Crown Prince of Germany, Prince Christian of Holstein, Prince William of Russia, the Duke of Buccleuch, the Duke of Abercorn, Earl Granville, the Duke of Wellington, the Duke of Devonshire, the Duke of Somerset, the Earl of Shaftesbury, Earl Fitzwilliam, Earl Grey, the Duke of Sutherland, Earl Spencer, the Duke of Cleveland, Earl Cowper, Earl Cowley, the Duke of Richmond and Gordon, the Duke of Rutland, the Duke of Beaufort, the Marquis of Ripon, the Duke of Westminster, the Earl of Leicester, the Marquis of Salisbury, the Duke of Bedford, and Prince Albert Victor, eldest son of Prince of Wales. The Bishop of Winchester is Prelate of the Order; the Dean of Windsor is Registrar. The motto is "Honi soit qui mal y pense."

A Constitutional.

Few people walk enough in winter, yet it is precisely at this season that people of sedentary habits should walk. How grateful the crisp air is to the lungs, how clear and sweet to the nostrils; how it inspires and sustains one in a swinging gait of four or five miles an hour. How the cheeks glow and the eyes shine, and the muscles tingle with delightful vigor, after a walk through the winter sunshine. A sleigh-ride is not half so good, for it robs the trip of a necessary exercise. Try it if you seek health and strength. Winter walking as a nerve is a million times better than medicine, and for the complexion it is worth a whole harbor full of lotions and washes. It will put an edge on appetite that you can't buy at the doctor's and in prompting digestion is better than a corner drug store's entire stock of bitters and pills. If you have never tried it, take a walk. Keep your mouth closed, your shoulders well thrown back, your head up, and remember that your legs, and especially your hips, were given you to walk with. Some people walk with their knees, bodies, and our shoulders; no wonder they don't like it. We don't like to see them. There is an art in walking like in other things. If you don't believe it, observe the motion of some shapely woman who knows how to move, or study the gait of a man who has some spring or litheness in him. It is never too late to learn to walk by walking.

To Prevent Counterfeiting.

Mr. Clinton Roosevelt, a metallurgist, purposes to use platinum to prevent counterfeiting. His plan is to make small discs of the metal representing the various silver and copper coins intrinsic value. "You cannot counterfeit it," he says, "in any way they could not be detected at once by a blind man, and more, they can be converted into any form desired. Rolled out into sheets it can be stamped into shapes suitable for postage stamps, and in this way affixed to a letter would be taken off by the postal authorities instead of concealing as is now done with the paper ones, and used over and over again. As they are exactly what they represent, no one could counterfeit them. The same for fractional currency, which, in its present state, is too heavy for transportation by the mails, and people who have occasion to receive small amounts from large distances have heretofore been obliged to content themselves with stamps. My plan does away with this, and provides a good circulating medium. I wish to lay the matter before Congress and the public, who are the real interested parties."

PHYSICIANS and druggists have been in the habit of charging patients and customers more than many of them are able to pay. We are glad to inform our readers that Mack's Magnetic Medicine is sold at the low price of fifty cents a box, a quantity sufficient to last over two weeks. AYER'S PILLS.

A large proportion of the diseases which cause human suffering result from derangement of the stomach, bowels, and liver. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS act directly upon these organs, and are especially designed to cure the diseases caused by their derangement, including Constipation, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Headache, Dysentery, and a host of other ailments, for all of which they are a safe, sure, prompt, and pleasant remedy. The extensive use of these PILLS by eminent physicians in regular practice, shows unmistakably the estimation in which they are held by the medical profession.

These PILLS are compounded of vegetable substances only, and are absolutely free from calomel or any other injurious ingredient. A Sufferer from Headache writes: "AYER'S PILLS are invaluable to me, and are my constant companion. I have been a severe sufferer from Headache, and your PILLS are the only thing I could look to for relief. One dose will quickly move my bowels and free my head from pain. They are the most effective and the easiest physic I have ever found. It is a pleasure to me to speak in their praise, and I always do so when occasion offers."

W. L. PAGE, of W. L. Page & Bro., Franklin St., Richmond, Va., June 3, 1882. "I have used AYER'S PILLS in numberless instances as recommended by you, and have never known them to fail to accomplish the desired result. We constantly keep them on hand at our home, and prize them as a pleasant, safe, and reliable family medicine. FOR DYSPEPSIA they are invaluable."

J. T. HAYES, Mexico, Texas, June 17, 1882. The REV. FRANCIS E. HARLOWE, writing from Atlanta, Ga., says: "For some years past I have been subject to constipation, from which, in spite of the use of medicines of various kinds, I suffered increasing inconvenience, until some months ago I began taking AYER'S PILLS. They have entirely corrected the cause of my ailment, and have vastly improved my general health."

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS correct irregularities of the bowels, stimulate the appetite and digestion, and by their prompt and thorough action give tone and vigor to the whole physical economy.
