A Judge's Sentence on the Rumseller.

The following utterances of Judge Hubbard, of Nebraska, in passing sentence upon some convicted rumsellers, are worthy of repetition, for they contain truths which should be brought home to every rumseller in the land who deals out ruin and death to his fellow creatures:

"There is something in the taking of human life instantaneously, that shocks and terrifies the mind of all, and yet we look upon that man who takes life quite as surely, but by a slow, lingering process if not without condemnation, at least without horror. You who stand before the Court for sentence are in every moral sense murderers, and you are in the spirit if not in the letter, guilty of manslaughter so the law says whoever accelerates the death of a human being unlawfully is guilty of the crime. Your bloated victims upon the witness stand and who is undoubtedly committed perjury to screen you from the law, not only abundantly testify that you are accelerating death, but that you are inducing men to commit still greater crimes than your own. You still maintain the appearance of respectability, but how morally leprous and scrofulous you are inwardly! The ruin, poverty and illness which you are inflicting upon this community declare, as if from the housetops, that you are living in idleness and eating the bread of orphans watered with the widow's tears. Your are stealthily killing your victims and murdering the peace and industry of the community, and thereby converting happy industrious homes into misery, poverty and rags. Anxious mothers watch and pray in tears nightly, with desolate hearts, for the coming home of your victims, whom you are luring with your wiles and smiles of the devil, into midnight debauchery.'

Sabbath School Convention.

The first meeting of council of the (P. E. I.) central district was held at Highfield, on Thursday, 17th inst. The Convention opened with singing and prayer by Brethren Johnathan Smith and Golden Howard. The Rev. W. W. Brewer was appointed Chairman. The churches were called and the following delegates answered:

First church—Rev W W Brewer, Miss White, Miss Gidley, Mrs Richard Goff and Mr Jost.

2nd church—Rev C W Hamilton, Wm A Down.

Cornwall—Rev E C Turner, J Howard, Wm Boyle, G Crewys, J Smith, Geo Sellar, N Younker, Geo Howard.

York—Geo Bryenton, Jos Bryenton, Mrs Bryenton, A West, Geo Crockett, Wm Pierce.

Winsloe—Rev W J Kirby, Chas Bryenton, W J Bryenton and Miss Bryenton, Sarah Holman, D Peardon, J Boundy.

It was determined to hold three sessions, morning noon and evening to be devoted to reading of papers bearing on Sabbath school work and discussion of same. No paper to occupy more than 20 minutes in reading and no speaker more than 5 minutes in discussion. The report of Sabbath school in district was read by Rev. J W Kirby, a summary of which we give:

In the P. E. I. district there are 77 preaching appointments, in 58 of which we have Methodist Sabbath Schools. There are still 19 places where we hold Methodist preaching services without a Sabbath School in connection with our church. I am unable to say whether there are schools in any or all of these places under the auspices of some other denomination, or conducted as Union Sabbath Schools.

There are found in the whole district a total of 400 Teachers, with an average attendance of 333, and a total number of 3,605 scholars, with an average attendance of 2,434. These scholars are divided as follows, viz: In Primary Classes 1,169, Intermediate Classes 1,437, Adult Classes 999. In connection with these figures we find 133 professed conversion during the year and 528 are members of the church. $881.33 (eight hundred and eighty-one dollars and thirty-three cents) was raised by the schools for their own use.

The Central Section which this Convention represents, has 25 preaching places on 6 Circuits, with 22 Sabbath Schools. Two Sabbath Schools are connected with the First Church, Charlottetown, one in the Second Church, five on Cornwall Circuit, four on Little York, six on Winsloe, four on Pownal, leaving three appointments without schools.

Of these only two have regular meetings for the study of the lessons with the Teachers, and thirteen (13) are kept open the whole year. Eight schools are closed about six months out of the twelve.

The roll contains the names of 1753 scholars with an average attendance 1163. 67 conversions from the schools are reported during the year. There are 1025 of the scholars pledged to total abstinence, 219 having taken the pledge during the last year.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Minutes read and approved.

A letter received from Bro. Spargo was read by the chairman.

Verbal reports were presented from Sabbath Schools.

The following resolution was moved by Rev. C. W. Hamilton and seconded by Rev. J. W. Fisher.

This convention urgently calls the attention of the committee of management of such schools and especially of those in which the matter has not received attention at all, of the requirements of the Discipline (pp. 128 sec. 294) regarding the temperance pledge.

The question of keeping the schools open the whole year was spoken to, and it was felt that a growing interest was being taken in this matter, and the time was not far distant when all schools would be thus kept running through the year. The order of the day was then called for.

Rev. W. W. Brewer read a paper on the culture of childhood. The paper, which occupied the full twenty minutes, was one of great interest and profit and can scarcely be epitomized. He spoke of the plastic nature of the child and the law of inheritance. We bequeath much to our children, let us see to it that we bequeath a legacy of truest wealth to them. He urged the use of the catechism, right books and reading.

Spoken to by members of convention. Rev. E. C. Turner read a paper on success in S. School work, its hindrances and failures.

1st, hindrance—Rank and file of the church has not awakened to a sense of the importance of the work.

How shall they be awakened? Agitate.

2nd, hindrance—Lack of interest by parents. All should be there; parents as well as children.

3rd, hindrance—Need of better accomodation, study of lesson by teachers so that he may be prepared. Organize teachers meeting for study of the same. Love for God. His word of the salvation of souls. What is needed is a thoroughly awakened church.

Spoken to by several members of convention.

The evening session of this convention was very interesting. The church was comfortably filled with delegates and friends and the chairman, John Edwards Esq., presided well. The addresses were more than good. They were excellent and delegates seemed to freely enter into the subject. J. D. Seaman Esq., gave the first address on "The relation of the Parent to the Sabbath School" showing that the parents relation should be:

1. One of earnest and hearty sympathy,
2. One of co-operation, not criticism.
3. Financial support.

These points were well handled and illustrated.

Several delegates spoke expressing their pleasure with the address and adding some other points touching the subject. The next address by Geo. E. Full, Esq., on "How to teach a Bible class" was given in a very free and captivating style and was well received by the audience. Some differed somewhat with him on a few points but none could dispute that it was an excellent address. The convention very freely discussed the matter after the reply of Mr. Full and the answering of questions by the committee consisting of Wm. Boyle, R. K. Jost, F. J. Smith. The convention closed by reading the minutes. Doxology and Benediction. The general opinion is the convention was a perfect success.

It was decided to hold a second convention in six months time, a committee being appointed to arrange programme and place.

The delegates and friends attending the convention were right royally entertained by the people at Highfield.

A Long Standing Nuisance.

SIR,—How long are we, in Charlottetown, to be subjected to the annoyance caused by a few young blackguards, who make it a practice to attend concerts and like gatherings for the sole purpose of disturbing the proceedings, and with no other result than an occasional mild remonstrance in the papers, about as effective as the feeble appeal of poor old Father Eli: "Why do ye do such things?" It is not as if the remedy was so very far off. It needs but once or twice to designate the offenders by name, not so very difficult in Charlottetown, where every one is known; turn them out neck and crop from the building, and if that be not enough, a judicious application of a flexible rattan to that part of the person so specially adopted by nature for the reception of salutary discipline.

DISGUSTED.

Astray.

SIR,—In your account of the burgulary at Mr. T. L. Chappelle's store you state that the door was found open by Messrs. Urquhart and Dawson on their way home from the Hockey match. This surely must be a mistake as both these gentlemen reside respectively at the Eastern and Northern end of the city. Either your account is misleading or they were going astray. AD-MONITOR.
