DAVIS CUP HOLDERS WIN OPENING MATCHES

Perry And Austin Give England 2-0 Lead With Victories In Singles

(By Guardian's Special Wire)
WIMBLEDON, England, July 26.—Great Britain's three-year supremacy in Davis Cup tennis competition appeared today to be assured for another year.

With the first two singles matches of the challenge round series with Australia won, the British team had only to capture one match out of three remaining.

Fred Perry did the expected Saturday as he conquered the Australian champion, Adrian Quist, in four sets, 6-1, 4-6, 7-5, 6-2. But Henry W. "Bunny" Austin, the slender stylish number two player of the home forces, had previously shown the way by a convincing victory over Jack Crawford, 4-6, 6-3, 6-1, 6-1.

The Aussies had counted on Crawford to beat Austin to give them a chance of capturing the series. With that match lost, their task appeared insurmountable. They had to win the doubles engagement Monday and then both singles matches Tuesday to pull out their first Davis Cup tennis title since 1919.

Quist and Crawford probably will team up for the doubles encounter against the British "regulars," Charley Tuckey and George Patrick Hughes. In the last two singles Quist will play Austin while Crawford faces Perry.

Saturday's matches were played in a high wind with showers interrupting progress several times. A crowd of 16,000 was in the stands.

Austin and Crawford met in the first encounter.

Austin out-generated Crawford in all but the first set and swept through him with amazing ease in the last two sets. In the final one, Crawford took only three points, apart from those in the single game which he won on service.

Perry played erratically against Quist. The Australian champion played a canny game and for a time appeared to have the upper hand. He lost the first set, taking only one game, then won the second 6-4 and led 5-1 in the third. But at that point Perry settled down and showed his real form, taking six games in a row and capturing the next and deciding set, with the loss of only two games.

ROVERS DEFEATED BY HAWKS 21-17

Brighton Hawks defeated the Rovers 21-17 in a weekend encounter of Holy Redeemer Parish's Mid-geet Softball League.

This league has been exceptionally successful to date. The midgeets are showing increased enthusiasm with each game, and officials are loud in their praise as to the spirit with which the youngsters meet each scheduled match. Let it continue!

This morning at 10 o'clock sharp, Rovers will play Maples. On Tuesday morning at the same hour Hawks and Maples will meet.

Mr. Jack McCourt, under whose guidance the league is functioning, intimated last evening that he intended picking an all-star team from the midgeet league to stage an exhibition match with the Scouts, of the House League, some evening this week. The exact date will be announced later.

SOFTBALL TONIGHT

At 6:15 o'clock tonight Stewart's Bakery and the Rovers will meet in another game for the Brighton softball trophy. The Rovers have yet to beat the Bakers this season, and tonight will be out for a win to hold second place in the league standing.

Nels Whitlock who has been doing a fine job behind the plate, will be calling them.

Hawks Win From Scouts

The Scouts, newly organized entry in Holy Redeemer Parish's Softball House League, went down to defeat at the hands of the Brighton Hawks in a weekend fixture. The score was 25-17. It was the Scouts' first appearance since entering the league.

To-night at 6:15 sharp the Scouts will meet the Excelsors.

Giants Split Doubleheader With Reds; Chicago Cubs And Phillies Break Even

NEW YORK, July 26.—(AP)—The Giants took over third place in the National League today by splitting a doubleheader with Cincinnati Reds, dropping the nightcap 5-2 through three Red homers, after taking the opener 5-4.

A three-run rally in the last of the ninth saved the first game for the Giants, with Clyde Castaman getting credit for the victory after Carl Hubbell was taken out after seven innings behind him. A freak triple play featured the first game with the Reds playing the last five innings under protest because of it.

The triple play game with Kiki Cuyler and Les Searcella on base. Hank Leiber took Ernie Lombardi's home run and passed the ball to Joe Moore, who threw it to Jock Bartlett at second base. Bartlett relayed it to third-sacker Ernie Mayor, doubling Cuyler. Mayor then threw to Leslie, catching Searcella off first.

At Philadelphia, Chicago Cubs, blanked in the opener 4-0, got their revenge on the Phillies in the second game of a doubleheader by blasting out six home runs and an 18-5 victory before 20,000 fans.

Bucky Walters, Phillies' twirler in the first game, was largely responsible for holding the league leaders to an even break. He allowed only two hits. Timely hitting by the Phils accounted for the lull in the face of commendable pitching by French for the Cubs.

In the second game Frank Demaree led the circuit assault with two blows into the left field bleachers and five hits out of five times at bat.

The Dodgers staged a couple of ninth inning rallies at home to break up a pair of pitchers' battles, take a doubleheader from Pittsburgh Pirates 1-0 and 4-3, and in the National League.

knock the Bucs into fourth place. Van Lingle Mungo shut the Pirates out in the opener with a five-hit pitching performance, besting Red Lucas, who gave up but seven safe balls.

In the nightcap, Ed Brandt limited the Pirates to five hits, while big Jim Weaver, Mace Brown and White Hoy allowed but seven. Borogary's single brought in the winning run in the ninth.

Before 41,598 paid customers, at Boston, the largest crowd in National League Park since 1930, Boston Bees and St. Louis Cards divided a doubleheader today. The Bees won the first game 4-3 and the Cards took the second 8-5.

Wally Berger's 15th home run off venerable Jess Haines, after Rupert Thompson had singled with two out in the eighth inning, gave the Bees the two runs they needed to win the first game.

With the score 2-3 in the seventh inning of the nightcap, the Cards' heavy artillery came to the aid of Dizzy Dean and pushed home five runs.

Chicago Cubs increased their lead to three games Saturday by beating the Phillies 17-4 at Philadelphia while Boston Bees were defeating the Cardinals 3-2 at Boston.

The Cubs reached three Phillies pitchers for 19 hits while Curt Davis held the opposition to six hits.

The Pirates defeated Brooklyn at Ebbets Field 7-4 on five tallies in the sixth and seventh inning.

The Giants barely kept out of the second division with a 5-4 win at home over Cincinnati on three runs in the last half of the ninth.

Wild Bill Hallahan appeared headed for a well earned pitching victory when a single by Burgess Whitehead and a double by Hank Leiber knocked in the winning runs.

Red Sox Humble Tigers; Browns Beat Senators

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
DETROIT, July 26.—Boston Red Sox made a clean sweep of their three-game series with Detroit by humbling the Tigers 10-3 today, with the aid of Jimmy Fox's 28th and 29th home runs of the season.

Fox's first homer came during a five-run attack in the eighth inning, with one on. His second circuit blow opened the ninth inning. Alameda also hit four bases in the eighth to give the Red Sox their first run.

Wes Ferrell went the route for Boston. The Tigers got to him for 13 hits, including three out of three for Goose Goslin.

At St. Louis, Al Thomas pitched six hitless innings and his Browns mates planked out 16 base knocks to snap the Washington jinx and win the second game of a Sunday doubleheader 9-3 after dropping the first 9-2.

The St. Louis victory in the afterpiece was the first time the Browns have defeated Washington here this season. The twin bill ended a series in which the Senators won three of four.

Cleveland divided a doubleheader at home with Philadelphia by taking the nightcap 8-5 after the Athletics won the lopsided opener 13-0. The Indians were held to six hits by Buck Ross in the first game.

In the first inning of the second game, however, the Tribe sluggers pounced on Dusty Rhodes for four runs, including a home run by Hal Trosky. Rhodes went the whole route but was reached for 13 hits.

In a riotous doubleheader that saw Umpire Bill Summers felled and injured by one of the 100 missiles hurled upon the field by enraged fans, New York Yankees overpowered White Sox at Chicago twice, 12-3 and 11-8, to increase their lead to 9 1-2 games over Cleveland.

The Yankees won the second game by scoring three runs in the 11th on an error by second baseman Jack Hayes and hits by George Selkirk and Roy Johnson off relief pitcher Red Evans, after Zeke Bonura's home run had tied the score at eight-all for the Sox in the ninth.

Lou Gehrig's 29th and 30th home runs and circuit blazes by Joe Di Maggio and Tiny Lazzari also featured the baseball end of the proceedings, which were witnessed by a sell-out crowd of 50,000.

Summers was injured just as Bonura was rounding second base with his secret-lying homer in the second game. A pop bottle hurled by an unidentified fan hit the umpire in the groin and he collapsed. After receiving first aid on the field, he was able to walk to the clubhouse.

Commissioner Kenesaw M. Landis, who was in a rail-side box, authorized an announcement that his office was offering $5,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the assailant.

Frankie Hayes, young Philadelphia Athletics catcher, equalled the major league record for two baggers in one game Saturday by pounding four doubles against the Indians at Cleveland.

The Athletics out-clouted the tribe to win 15-12, dropping Cleveland a full game in the pennant race as the first place New York Yankees won from Chicago White Sox 5-3.

The slapping world champions, Detroit Tigers, gave up 20 hits as Boston Red Sox pounded them into an 18-3 defeat. Boston scored all its runs in two innings, six in the second and 12 in the fifth.

Jimmy DeShong pitched six-hit ball at Washington Senators defeated the Browns at St. Louis.

British Ace Experiences No Difficulty Piloting Detroit Entry To Victory

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
BOLTON LANDING, N. Y., July 26.—Kaye Don, famed British speedboat and automobile pilot, stood alone today as the only foreigner ever to drive a winning boat in the 33-year-old Gold Cup regatta, premier motor boat classic of the United States.

Pounding Saturday over Lake George's waters with ease and without competition after the first half mile, the stocky Isle of Man racer piloted the 11-year-old Impi, owned and piloted by George Reis of Bolton Landing and Pasadena, Calif., speed to an average 43.689 miles in the second heat and then chalked up his best speed in the final heat, with 41.12 miles. Fastest speed for the 90 miles was 60.277, established by Delphine IV at Detroit in 1930.

Wilson, Ingersoll, Ont., speedster, was forced to withdraw his Canadian craft, launched at Cravenhurst last week, when the supercharger broke before the start. Boat after boat dropped out and only Don's craft and the defending champion El Legarto, owned and piloted by George Reis of Bolton Landing and Pasadena, Calif., faced the starting line.

Alone in the field after the other eight entries, including Harold Wilson's Miss Canada II withdrew, Don made no attempt to set any records and coasted to victory as he pleased to return the cup to Detroit after a lapse of three years.

Impi is owned by Horace Dodge, whose Delphine IV won in 1930 and 1932.

The Briton sent Impi around the first 30-mile course at a 46.392 mile-an-hour clip, lowered the
