THE DRUNKARD'S CHARACTER.

(From an old Author,)

Of all the fools on earth by heaven accursed,
The drunkard should be reckon'd with the worst.
No beast that walks the plains or bird that flies
Does act so base a part, and so unwise ;
The slow, the dull, the poor despised ass,
In wisdom does the drunkard far surpass ;
It drinks no more, when nature's satisfied,
But leaves the stream along the vale to glide ;
But Drunkards, of inferior sense, will drink,
Till they can scarcely walk, or talk, or think ;
What sin will not a drunkard then commit
While in this vile intoxicated fit ?
Satan can rule him then with easy sway,
And turn him as he pleases in his way ;
His health and wealth, his character and time,
Are all destroyed by this atrocious crime ;
We censure thieves who into houses creep,
To rob their neighbours whilst they are asleep ;
The drunkard does in drink so much delight,
He robs his wife and children of their right
To purchase poison in the flowing bowl ;
Which brings them all to want and damns the soul ;
Stay, Sinner, stay, before it is too late,
Reflect with sorrow on thine awful state ;
The blood of Christ can cleanse thy sins away,
Oh, seek his mercy—seek without delay ;
Then sober live, and let thy future days,

Be wholly spent to God thy Saviour's praise ;
Know ye not that drunkards shall not inherit the Kingdom of God. Cor. vi. 9,10.

Married,

On the 31st ult., in the Wesleyan Chapel, by the Rev. John M'Murray, Mr. John S Fall, St Anthony Falls, M. T., to Amelia Benjamina, seventh daughter of Mr. Jabez Barnard, Charlottetown.

Died,

At Murray Harbour, on Saturday the 19th instant, in the 21st year of her age, BARBARA, the beloved wife of David Reid, Esq., merchant, Murray Harbour, and fourth daughter of Mr, John MacKay, of Gaspereaux. A young and tender husband is thus bereaved of an amiable, dutiful, and affectionate wife ; doting parents mourn the loss of a devoted and dutiful daughter, and a large circle of sympathising acquaintances that of a trust-worthy and steadfast friend. She bore her most painful illness with exemplary fortitude, and yielded herself to the will of an over-ruling Providence with meekness and resignation. But three months ago she was greeted a gay and happy Bride. The past was full of pleasing remembrances, and the future bright with hope, but now her spirit has "returned to God who gave it," and her mortal remains sleep with the "clods of the valley."

On the 9th of June, at Hatton Garden, London, the Rev. James M'Intosh, formerly of St. James' Church, Charlottetown,

HASZARD & OWEN.

August 1st, 1856.

To the Citizens of Charlottetown.

GENTLEMEN ;—Until the morning after the meeting, held in the City Hall, on Tuesday last, I was not aware, that I had been nominated at that Assembly,as Mayor of the City for the ensuing year. Neither of the gentlemen who kindly moved and seconded the proposition had ever spoken to me on the subject : nor did I know that I was to be named, or that a meeting was to be held.

While I duly appreciate the distinguished honor intended to be conferred upon me, and while I most cordially thank my fellow citizens for their good opinion, yet I must most respectfully decline being put in nomination for the office of Mayor ; as my professional and other engagements would wholly prevent my fulfilling the important functions of the exalted position with satisfaction either to the public or to myself.

I have your honor to be, gentlemen,
Your most obdt. and humble serv't,
CHARLES YOUNG.

Charlottown, July 15, 1856.

To His Worship Robert Hutchinson, Esquire, Mayor of the City of Charlottetown.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR WORSHIP:

The Committee appointed at a large and very respectable meeting of the citizens of Charlottetown, on the 29th of July instant, "to convey to your Worship the thanks of the City for the manner in which you have fulfilled the duties of your office during the past year," cheerfully and respectfully comply with such requisition of the inhabitants of this City, and approach your Worship with sincere, hearty and well merited thanks for the very honorable and praiseworthy manner in which you have discharged the onerous duties of the responsible office you have, during the past year, filled as Chief Magistrate of this your native City, and request your acceptance of the same.

And although it was omitted in the wording of the resolution to convey public thanks to the respective members of the Common Council also, who have labored with your Worship during the past year, we beg to say, it was not designed they should be so omitted ; and, therefore, fervently and respectfully present, and beg acceptance by your Council, of the sincere thanks of the citizens, for their kind and united co-operation with your Worship in the performance of the arduous duties which devolved on you and them, and especially in supplying the City with an excellent code of laws, honorable alike to the heads and hearts of intelligent and right-thinking men.

That it may graciously please the wise Disposer of all events to permit your Worship and the gentlemen of the Common Council long to live to witness the good results of, and reap unfading laurels from, the religious, moral and social improvements you have designed for the well-being of our City, is the united, humble, and fervent prayer of your Worship's most obedient and humble servants.

On behalf of the Committee,
CHARLES DEMPSEY, Chairman.

Charlottetown, P. E. Island, 30th July, 1856.
