OUR $2.75 WATCH, made by the Waterbury Watch Company, will not last as long as the more expensive Watch, but is just the thing for a boy attending school or for boating or fishing parties, saving the risk and yet doing the work of the better Watches.
OUR $4.50 WATCH, made by the same Company, only better quality, is short wind and jeweled.
OUR $7, $10, $15 AND $20 WATCHES are correspondingly better and more reliable. You will be safer in trading with us than by sending to irresponsible parties at a distance, and who, if a misprising break or anything goes wrong, are too far away to send to. We are here to guarantee and stand by every Watch we sell.

Dundas and Souris.
 The members of the Dundas Methodist Congregation, assisted by their friends and reinforced by seven members of the Souris Methodist Choir and Mr. C. B. Warren of Charlottetown, gave a most successful entertainment on Monday, 23rd, when the following programme was effectively rendered:
 1. We are Waiting for the Signal... Choir
 2. Recitation—The Signboard... Miss White
 3. God Calling Yet... Souris Choir
 4. Reading—What is the matter with Ugly Sam?... C. B. Warren

 8. Duet—Cantata... Misses Muttart and Dingwell.
 9. Recitation—Why should the Spirit of Mor- tal be Proud?... F. Ward.
 10. Sweet Eden Shore... Choir
 11. Recitation—The Burial of Moses... A. Clay

 17. Glory to God in the Highest... C. B. Warren
 18. Reading—The Generous Soldier saved... C. B. Warren.
 19. God be with you till we meet again... Choir.
 Miss Gillis, of Dundas, and Miss Carrie Dingwell, of Souris, presided at the organ. The proceeds, amounting to $9.00, were devoted to the Parsonage Improvement Fund.

On the following evening a concert was given in the Souris Methodist Church by the Choir, assisted by five members of the Souris Cornet Band and Mr. C. B. Warren. The following is the programme, which was rendered to the delight of the large audience assembled:
 1. What a gathering there will be... Choir

 3. Sitting by the Gateway... Choir and Band
 4. Reading—After Midnight... C. B. Warren

 14. Reading—What is the matter with Ugly Sam... C. B. Warren.
 15. Selection... Band
 16. God Save the Queen... Band and Organ
 Mrs. W. Mellet and Miss Carrie Dingwell presided at the organ. The playing of the band under the leadership of Mr. Shaw was highly appreciated. The very effective readings by Mr. C. B. Warren was a marked feature of both concerts and would ensure the success of any entertainment given here in the future should he be announced to read. As a reciter, though very young, Miss Weasie Currie is developing rare ability, as also is Miss Bateman as a reader. The amount realized—$10.00—was added to the Church Improvement Fund.—Com

A Well-Founded Complaint.
 Sir,—I have just read the report of the political meeting at Souris on Friday last over the signature of Mr. Hughes, the Secretary. I was always of the opinion that the Secretary of a public meeting was supposed to give an impartial report of the proceedings. Now, Sir, I claim that this has not been done in the above case, and one of our most respected business men one of our most respected justice at the hands of Mr. Hughes. I refer to Hon. Thos. Kichham, M. L. C. Mr. Kichham entertained the audience at the above meeting for some time with select readings from the note book of our little "potato story" man, Currie. I think it is most unfair to Mr. K. after that gentleman's trouble in procuring the book in question, and I can assure you, Sir, it is quite a treat (!) to hear one of Mr. Kichham's political readings.

Every vote cast for the Liberal candidate in most of the constituencies at least, will be in effect a vote for Annexation, since Commercial Union must lead to that.—BUFFALO NEWS

—That our telegraphic correspondent had grounds for the despatch which he sent concerning the Oddfellows, is seen in the following note from Kingston, clipped from the Empire of the 20th inst: "Sir John's speech is still the topic of conversation in both the Tory and grip committee rooms. A prominent Oddfellow, speaking at the banquet given by the Oddfellows of Catarqui Lodge, in the course of his speech charged they should all stand by the old chartered members who were the foundation of their order. Up popped Simon Oberonoff and cried, 'Yes, we should, and let me tell you, gentlemen, that Sir John Macdonald is one of our oldest chartered members and we must stand by him.' (Loud applause)
 —Hon. Mr. Mackenzie Bowell, Minister of Customs, is nominated by the Liberal-Conservatives of North Hastings, Ontario. A little incident occurred just as the Minister entered the limits of Madoc village. A big burly farmer, one who had been a life-long liberal, hailed the sleigh, and rushing up with outstretched hands exclaimed: 'Well, Mac, I'm with ye this time; no annexation for me. Thousands of us awake Liberals throughout the country are with the Government this time. No annexation for them.'
 SOCIAL.—Don't forget to go to Hunter River on the 19th March and learn a new wrinkle in socials. Instruction free. Full particulars later.

Our Duty on the Fifth of March.
 I send you a Canuck song
 That is both real and true,
 Of our good Canadian Ship of State
 Aud her Canadian crew.
 She is built of good Canadian pine,
 And still goes sailing on,
 By the sea-man-hood of her Captain good,
 The gallant, brave Sir John.
 Her rigging is both strong and taut,
 O good old British style,
 And her flag is of stuff that is good and tough,
 That sea-water will not spoil.
 Our Captain well doth know his trade,
 And can both fight and steer,
 Can carry us in the teeth of a gale,
 With a stout heart void of fear.
 From old Saint George's flaming cross
 We take a strand of red,
 And from the royal flag of France
 We show a lily-white thread.
 We have blended them with a brilliant strand
 Of Scotland's old true blue,
 And with them is seen a thread of green,
 Old Ireland's well-loved hue.
 We have sailed our ship 'mid angry seas
 And over some rough water,
 And now we had thought to take our ease,
 But another gale hath caught her.
 This time it comes not from the sky,
 Such storms do us no harm;
 There's a mutiny bold! by men in the hold!
 But we'll send them to the yard-arm!!
 Within the great Atlantic Bay,
 The nearest ship in hail,
 That right abreast our port doth lay,
 'Neath Stars and Stripes doth sail.
 Now while our ship at anchor lay,
 Beside this Privateer,
 Our men with theirs at cards would play
 Over a glass of beer.
 And all the time the Yankee crew
 Sch-moed how our ship they'd gain;
 We would not yield, that well they knew,
 Through fear of loss or pain.
 But with great bribes and promise fair
 They gained upon our men,
 Tho' some who stood their ground there were,
 And some drew back again.
 Among the last of whom I spake,
 Who would not join the phrensy,
 Was one whose name was Edward Blake,
 And one was named McKeane.
 And now the men within our hold,
 For treachery noted long,
 Have made up their mind our Captain to bind,
 And sell our ship for a song.
 But we know their schemes and don't fear
 For them or their treachery arch;
 We'll cast them out of our ship as soon
 Upon the coming Fifth of March.
