A Call For Submissions

The Cadre is will be having a poetry issue on March 28th. We are looking for submissions from anyone who would like to see his or her poetry in print. If this is you, then please give us your poetry on or before Thursday, March 22nd. To make things easier, please have the poetry typed and on a computer disc for us. Make sure that it is formatted as you want it to appear in print. Also, if you have any images of any kind that you want to go with your poems (photographs, drawings, diagrams, etc.), hand them in too. Due to space limitations, we cannot guarantee that your poetry will be printed, especially if there are a lot of submissions. Spread the word.
