

The Kensington Races.

THE Kensington Driving Park was opened yesterday by one of the most exciting and interesting stallion races ever witnessed in this Province. The Park is situated on the farm of Mr. J. Haslam, a short distance from the village of Kensington. It has not the most beautiful surroundings, but, as the track is as good as could possibly be made in red clay, the "park" answers the purpose admirably. The train from Charlottetown, containing a number of gentlemen interested in turf matters, arrived at Kensington shortly after one o'clock. At that time the streets of the village, and the roads leading to the Park, and the Park itself were crowded with men, women and children all "a going to see the races." Not less than two thousand people were present on the grounds. The stallion race was billed to start at one o'clock; but owing to difficulty in getting competent judges, the start was delayed an hour. At two o'clock Mr. John Davies, of the "Rankin," Mr. Stephen McNeill, of Summerside, and Mr. Patrick Reid were appointed judges. They immediately rang up the stallions entered, as follows:—

Mr. A. N. Large's b. s. 'Messenger Boy.'
Mr. N. Lea's by. s. 'All Right.'
Mr. Robt. Fitzsimmons' by. s. 'Dean Swift.'

The horses, as they drove into position, presented a noble appearance. Seldom do we see three animals with better style, shape and gait on a race course. And each horse had his admirers. Charlottetonians, naturally, sounded the praises of 'Messenger Boy'; and Summerside men did not fail to speak a word of encouragement to 'All Right'; while New Londoners in a body were ready to stake the last farthing on 'Dean Swift'—we should say for second place.

First Heat.—After much difficulty in bringing the horses together, the word "go" was given and the trio dashed off abreast. 'Messenger' took the poll with little difficulty at the first turn, and began to show daylight between himself and 'All Right.' At the quarter mile he led 'All Right' by three lengths, and 'Dean Swift' by six. They all trotted splendidly, and kept the above-mentioned positions—with a large increase in 'Messenger's' lead—to the half mile. Here 'All Right' went off his feet; 'Dean Swift' came close on his quarter, and threatened to give him the go-by; but 'All Right' does not lose any by a break, and when he settled to work again he was a length ahead of 'Dean Swift.' 'Messenger', in the meantime, forged ahead considerably. At the three-quarter he could not be any less than fifty yards in front, and the shout of "He will distance them," was heard from all parts of the park. 'All Right' galloped down the homestretch, as it were, to save distance, and he and 'Dean Swift' had only passed the distance about twenty yards when the distance signal was hoisted. The heat was given to 'Messenger Boy,' 'All Right' second, and 'Dean Swift' third.

Second Heat.—All went off together—"All Right" starting with a view of taking the poll. 'Messenger' was equal to him in that respect, and in answer to a sharp stroke of the whip, sprung to the front and led 'All Right' by the nose up the back-stretch, with 'Dean Swift' at the latter's quarter, trotting finely. At the half mile the heat was well in 'Messengers' hands. Here 'Dean Swift' showed some fine bursts of speed. He collared 'All Right,' and both neck and neck, pursued 'Messenger' up the back stretch. At the three-quarter 'Messenger' led by several lengths. 'Dean' fell to the rear of 'All Right,' and in this position they continued to the finish—"Messenger" passing the wire about ten lengths ahead. He was awarded first place, 'Dean' second for fair trotting, and 'All-Right' third.

Third Heat.—"Messenger" led from the word "go," and trotted the whole course apparently at leisure in front of his opponents. One would think he merely got out of their way in order to give them a clear course to fight for second position. 'Dean' showed himself to be very gritty in this contest, and had second position at the half mile. Both galloped up the back stretch, and 'All Right' relieved him of the second place at the third quarter. 'Dean' then fell several lengths to the rear, and they kept this position on the homestretch to the finish. 'Messenger Boy' took the heat and race, 'All Right' second, and 'Dean Swift' third.

SUMMARY.

'Messenger Boy'	1	1	1
'All Right'	2	3	2
'Dean Swift'	3	2	3

The three-minute class race did not fill, and the next called by the judges was a green race, for which there were seven entries. It was won by Mr. Edward Pendergast's bay gelding, 'Fred,' with Charles Lock's 'Prince' second, and Fred Davis' 'Lady Carleton' third. There were five entries for the running race. It was won by Robert Damel's 'Molly,' with John Durant's 'Snow Bird' second, and Joseph Noonan's 'Jenny Lind' third.

On the whole, the day's racing was very successful, and must have been very profitable to Mr. Haslam, the owner of the Park.

Several men were run over on the track, and a number of collisions between carriages occurred. Mr. Charles Binns, of this city, was badly hurt, having been run over by a horse attached to a sulkey.
