RELIGION—WHAT IS IT?

Is it to go to church to-day,
To look devout and seem to pray,
And ere the morrow's sun goes down
Be dealing slander through the town?

Does every sanctimonious face
Denote a certain reign of grace?
Does not a phiz that scolds at sin
Oft veil hypocrisy within?

Is it to make our daily walk,
And of our own good deeds to talk,
Yet often practice secret crime,
And thus mis-spend our precious time?

Is it for sect or creed to fight,
To call our zeal the rule of right,
When what we wish is at the best,
To see our church excel the rest?

Is it to wear the Christian's dress,
And love to all mankind profess,
And treat with scorn the humble poor,
And bar against them every door?

Oh no, religion means not this;
Its fruit more sweet and fairer is—
Its precept this—to others do
As you would have them do to you.

It grieves to hear an ill report,
And scorns with human woes to sport,
Of other's deed it speaks no ill,
But tells of good or keeps it still.

And does religion this impart?
Then may its influence fill my heart;
Oh! haste that blissful, joyful, day,
When all on earth may own its sway.

THE NEW MOON.

When, as the garish day is done,
Heaven burns with the descended sun,
'Tis passing sweet to mark
Amid the flush of crimson light,
The new moon's modest bow grows bright
As earth and sky grow dark.

Few are the hearts too cold to feel
A thrill of gladness o'er them steel,
When first the wandering eye
Sees faintly, in the evening blaze,
The glimmering curve of tender rays
Just planted in the sky.

The sight of that young crescent brings
Thoughts of all fair and youthful things,
The hopes of early years;
And childhood's purity and grace,
And joys that like a rainbow chase
The passing shower of tears.

The captive yields him to the dream
Of freedom, when that virgin beam
Comes out upon the air;
And painfully the sick man tries
To fix his dim and burning eyes
On the soft promise there.

And there do thoughtful men behold
A type of errors, loved of old,
Forsaken and forgiven;
And thoughts and wishes not of earth
Just opening in their early birth,
Like that new light in heaven.

COURTSHIP IN AUSTRALIA. — When a young warrior is desirous of procuring a wife, he generally obtains one by giving in exchange for her a sister or some female relative of his own; but if there should happen to be no eligible damsel disengaged in the tribe to which he belongs, then he hovers round the encampment of some other blacks, until he gets an opportunity of seizing one of their leubras, whom he has perhaps seen and admired when attending one of the corroborries. His mode of paying his addresses is simple and efficacious. With a blow of his nulla nulla (war club,) he stuns the object of his "affections," and drags her insensible body away to some retired spot, whence, as soon as she recovers her senses, he brings her home to his own gunyah in triumph.

Sometimes two join in an expedition for the same purpose, and then for several days they watch the movements of their intended victims, using their utmost skill in concealing their presence. When they have obtained the knowledge they require, they wait for a dark, windy night; then, quite naked, and carrying only their long "jag-spears," they crawl stealthily through the bush until they reach the immediate vicinity of the camp-fires, in front of which the girls that they are in search of are sleeping.

Slowly and silently they creep close enough to distinguish the figure of one of those leubras; then one of the intruders stretches out his spear and inserts its barbed point amongst her flowing locks; turning the spear slowly round, some of her hair speedily becomes entangled with it; then, with a sudden jerk, she is aroused from her slumber, and as her eyes open she feels the point of another weapon pressing against her throat.

She neither faints nor screams; she knows well that the slightest attempt at escape or alarm will cause her instant death, so, like a sensible woman, she makes a virtue of necessity, and rising suddenly, she follows her captors. They lead her away to a considerable distance, tie her to a tree, and return to ensnare their other victim in a like manner. Then, when they have accomplished their design, they hurry off to their own camp, where they are received with universal applause, and highly honored for their chivalrous exploit. Occasionally, an alarm is given, but even then the wife-stealers easily escape amidst the confusion to renew their attempt at some future period.—Chambers' Journal.

THE LABOR OF THE PEN.—The mass of the people are to apt to underrate literary labor, work with the pen; they look upon it as no work at all; a very easy thing, nothing to be compared to work at the anvil, the bench, or pursuits requiring great physical exercise. But it is work, and hard work too. We have had experience in both, physical and mental labor, and I have therefore a right to speak on the subject. Take, for instance, the preparation of the reading matter for a daily, think you it is an easy affair, a light task? Think you that all the editor has to do is to sit down in his office and write away, with no thought, no effort? or that he merely has to examine paper after paper, and cut out an item here and there? A lazy kind of life, say you! Well, that is because you have no experience of it. Just sit down now and try to write a business notice, a letter, a description of something you have seen; easy, is it?—words come ready, the pen flows glibly over the paper; is that the case? Suppose you have accomplished this your first essay at literary composition, now let some one read to you what you have written—why, what mixing up of things, what strange words not meaning that which you intended. You have been spending an hour or two writing a dozen lines and have made nonsense of them. At that rate it would take you several days to get matter enough ready for even one day's paper, and besides too, people would throw down the sheet with contempt at the bungling manner in which the article had been prepared. Ah, now you have come to the conclusion that writing is an art, a business to be acquired by labor, hard and systematic; that it is wearisome labor, wearing to the system, and not the pleasant pastime you had thought it.—Bath Times.

VESUVIUS AND THE BAY OF NAPLES.—The beautiful Bay of Naples and the smoke-crowned height of Vesuvius have been so often described that we need scarcely enter on a long detail of the many memorable events with which the subject of our engraving is associated.

The situation of Naples is one of the finest that can be imagined. Seated partly on the declivity of a hill, and partly on the margin of a spacious bay, it spreads its buildings along the shore, and covers the shelving coasts and adjacent eminences with villas and gardens. Its suburbs stretch in a magnificent and lengthened sweep, from Potici on the east, to the promontory of Misenum on the west. The bay is extensive, and presents an almost unrivalled assemblage of picturesque and beautiful scenery.

The harbor of Naples is formed by a mole projecting from a centre of the city, nearly in the form of the letter L having a light-house on its elbow. Immediately within the mole there are from three to four fathoms of water, the ground being soft, but only small vessels can approach the town. The water in the bay is deep, and there is no bar, but it is a good deal exposed to the south-westerly winds; and to guard against their influence vessels in the bay moor with open hawse in that direction.

The country round Naples is the most beautiful that can well be imagined, and is peculiarly interesting from its classical associations. Virgil was buried in the immediate vicinity of the city; and the ruins of an ancient mausoleum on the left-hand side of the road, leading from the promenade of Chiaia to the grotto of Pausilippo, is said to have contained the remains of the prince of Latin poets. There is, however, no really good foundation for this statement.

Naples is very ancient. It was founded by the people of Cumæ, a colony from Greece, who gradually spread themselves round the Bay of Naples, and was called from this circumstance Neapolis, or the new city. It was also called Parthenope, from its being the burying-place of one of the sirens of that name. It was, therefore, to all intents and purposes, a Greek city; its inhabitants spoke the Greek language, and were long distinguished by their attachment to the manners and customs of their ancestors. It was on this account, according to Tacitus, that it was selected by Nero to make his debut on the stage; such a proceeding being less offensive there, and less repugnant to the prevailing sentiments, than in Rome. Naples, in truth, was then as now, a chosen seat of pleasure. Its hot baths were reckoned equal to those of Baiæ and the number and excellence of its theatres and other places of amusement, its matchless scenery, the mildness of the climate, and the luxury and effeminacy of the inhabitants, made it a favorite retreat of the wealthy and luxurious Romans.

Vesuvius being so near Naples, is usually visited by strangers resorting to that city, as the whole ascent and descent to and from Naples may be readily accomplished in seven or eight hours; and during an eruption many tourists visit the neigbourhood of the mountain.

TWO PRAYERS TO BE STUDIED AS A CONTRAST.

From the New York Tablet.

The first is by the Rev. Doctor Brownlow, and we give it on the authority of the New York Times.

The pious divine is speaking of a conquered and submissive people, and finds nothing better to ask for them than this:

"Impoverish the villains! Take all they have! Give their effects to the Union men they have crippled and imprisoned, and let them have their "Southern rights." They swore they would carry on the war until they lost their lands. Put it to them, is our advice! Most religiously fleece them, and let them know how other men feel when robbed of all they have.

Let them be punished! Let them be impoverished! Let them be slain! And after slain, let them be damned!"

The other prayer is the concluding passage in a reply to an Address presented lately to the Holy Father, assuring him of the sympathy of the faithful in the midst of unexampled combinations against His Person and against the sacred rights of the Holy See.

"It is true, beloved children, that many men are united to despoil us, to cover us with outrage, to spare us no indignity. But to those who pursue us with revilings, moved by divine charity, we have only benedictions to offer in return. We pray fervently that every soul that has strayed consciously or unconsciously from the Way may be brought again to the Truth, and restored to the Unity of Faith. Let our prayers ascend in concert to Heaven, that all men may again be united on earth in the bonds of holy charity, and being reconciled to the Son, may we one day glorify the Father in the joy of a blissful eternity."

"DOCTORS DIFFER."—M. de Lamartine has dared to take the field as the rival of his Emperor, and has just published a "Life of Cæsar" from his own point of view. How that view differs from the Imperial one is sufficiently indicated by the following concluding passage of the preface:—"Such was the heritage of Cæsar — an immense genius employed to agitate, to corrupt, and to enslave his country; a great general, a clever demagogue, an execrable citizen, the brilliant scourge of all morality and all liberty on earth, the illusion of history, the example of the ambitious, a name the more fatal to the world, since tyrants make it their excuse; to the soldiery an idol, to the people a dazzling object, giving them glory that blinded them to their servitude, and triumphs that made them forgetful of virtue."

There is a cell in Castle Thunder, at Richmond, four feet eight inches high. McCool, private in Harris' light dragoons, a man measuring six feet and half an inch, was kept in the cell eleven months and a half. McCool had a ball and chain on his leg all the time, the ball weighing thirty-two pounds, the chain ten pounds. The rain penetrates that cell, and on wet days McCool lay in the wet. Eleven months and a half passed, and he never once stood straight. He escaped five months since through a hospital window.

HUMAN SACRIFICES IN KHONDISTAN.—In Khondistan, the victims who are called Meriah must be bought with a price. The goddess accepts no enthusiastic self-dedication, and no easily obtained prisoners or criminals. No caste, sex, or age, is rejected, but adults are valued the most by the goddess, as they are the most expensive to the offerers. Sometimes the victims are bought from poor or starving persons. Mostly, however, they are supplied by Meriah. The price of the Meriah is seldom paid but generally in cattle, pigs, goats, brazen vessels or ornaments, and sometimes in saffron, wax, and products of the hills Mr. Russell has given an account of the ritual of the sacrifice. The victim is stupefied with drink on the day before his death, and bound to the foot of a post crowned with the likeness of the god.

THE PUBLIC DEBT OF THE UNITED STATES.—The public debt of the United States amounted on the 31st March to $2,266,950,076; and during the past five months increased by $340,858,564, or at the rate of $840,000,000 per annum. The expenses of the Government at present amount to $3,300,000 a-day.

The Canadian Legislature has appropriated $5,000 to secure a proper representation of Canadian products at the Dublin Exhibition.

A PROCLAMATION

BY HIS EXCELLENCY

GEORGE DUNDAS, Esquire,

Lieutenant Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Island Prince Edward, and the Territories thereunto belonging, Chancellor, Vice Admiral, and Ordinary of the same, &c. &c. &c.

[L. S.]

GEORGE DUNDAS, Lieut. Governor.

WHEREAS it appears that divers persons in certain parts of this Island have associated or leagued together for the purpose of councelling, aiding and assisting one another in resisting the payment of certain Rents, which they became legally bound to pay, as Tenants, on certain Townships in this Island:

And whereas it has been brought to my notice that an Officer of the Law has recently been violently obstructed and prevented from discharging his duty by persons who have so combined as aforesaid: Now I have thought fit to issue this my Proclamation, warning all parties concerned in such unlawful combination, that, in attempting to carry out such purposes, they do oppose themselves to Her Majesty and the Laws.

And I do command and enjoin all such persons immediately to abstain from all such unlawful associations.

And I do further command and enjoin all Magistrates, Sheriffs and other Ministers of the law, and all Constables and Peace Officers, and all other loyal subjects of Her Majesty, to discourage, by every means in their power, such unlawful combination, and to give their prompt aid and assistance, when lawfully required, in opposing, preventing and resisting all persons, whomsoever, who shall take part in any such unlawful combination, and in arresting and bringing to justice any such persons offending, or having offended as aforesaid.

And I do further solemnly warn all persons that it is my duty to see that the Law shall take its course, and that I shall cause it to be obeyed and respected throughout the Island.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of this Island, at Charlottetown, in the said Island, this 22d day of March, in the year of Our Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and in the twenty-eighth year of Her Majesty's reign.

[EXTRACTS FROM NEWSPAPERS.]

On reference to a return made to Parliament, and ordered by the House of Commons to be printed, 7th June, 1861, it will be seen that the increase of Duty for the year, paid by the "QUEEN," was £2567, being upwards of £1000 more than paid by any other office ever yet established in this City.

[From Gore's General Advertiser, Oct. 24, 1861.]

"Indeed, we believe that we are perfectly justified in saying that no other Company, within the same period, ever attained so large an income in either the Fire or Life Departments as the Queen Insurance Company. In making this statement, we make no exception even in favor of our older local companies, namely, the Liverpool and London, the Royal, and the Lancashire Insurance Companies."

[From the Civil Service Gazette, Nov. 2, 1861.]

"Among these important institutions stands eminent for its solidity, as well as for its success, 'the Queen Insurance Company,' which last week held its annual meeting of proprietors in Liverpool. A reference to the ample report in another page will fully satisfy every reader of the signal progress made by this association since its foundation. Such success is, indeed, rarely attained, and it attests at once the excellence of its management, and the public confidence in its constitution."

[From the Liverpool Mercury, Nov. 2, 1861.]

"It must be gratifying to the public generally, and especially to the proprietors, to find that its income during the past three years has increased at the rate of £20,000 per annum. We believe that no other Company, within the same short period, ever attained so large an increase either in the Fire or Life Department. This speaks highly for the activity and zeal of the management, while the promptness with which all the claims, arising out of the late disastrous fire in London were met, testifies itto their financial ability and the care and prudence which marked the investment of these funds."

THE NEW FRENCH REMEDY.

By Royal Letters Patent, under the special sanction of Her Majesty's Government, and the Chiefs of the Faculte de France.

THERAPION:—or CURE OF CURES; This successful and highly popular medicament, as employed in the continental hospitals by Rostan, Jobert, Velpeau, and others, combines all the desiderata to be sought in a medicine of the kind, and surpasses everything hitherto employed. Devoid of taste, odour, and appearance of medicine, it can be left or carried anywhere, and taken from time to time without exciting suspicion Each package contains full instructions for every case.

THERAPION, No. 1, in three days only removes gonnorrhœ, gleet and all discharges, effectually superseding injections, the use of which does irreparable harm by laying the foundation of stricture and other serious diseases. In dysentery, piles, irritation of the lower bowel, cough, bronchitis, asthma, and some of the more trying complaints of this kind, it will be found astonishingly efficacious, affording prompt relief, where other well-tried remedies have been powerless.

THERAPION, No. 2, for syphilis, disease of the bones, sore throat, threatened destruction of the nose and palate; impurity of blood, scurvy, pimples, spots, blotches, and all diseases for which it has been too much a fashion to employ mercury, sarsaparilla, &c., to the destruction of the sufferer's teeth; and ruin of health. Under this medicine every vestige of disease rapidly disappears; and the skin assumes the pleasing softness of infancy.

THERAPION, No. 3, for relaxation, spermatorrhœa, and all the distressing consequences arising from early abuse, excess, residence in hot, unhealthy climates, &c. It possesses surprising power in restoring strength and vigour to the debilitated. To those who are prevented entering the marriage state by the consequences of early error, it will render essential aid by subduing all disqualifications; and restoring the lost tone to the system. Therapion may be procured at 11s, and 33s per package, through all medicine vendors, or in £5 packages for foreign shipment, direct from London only, by which £1 12s are saved; and £10 packages for the more inveterate cases, by which a still greater saving is effected. In ordering the above, the purchaser should state which of the three numbers he requires.

HER MAJESTY'S HON. COMMISSIONERS have graciously permitted the Government stamp, bearing the word "Therapion" in white letters, to be attached to each package; thus insuring the public against fraudulent imitations, and securing to the proprietor the sole right of supply throughout her dominions; and any infringement of which they will prosecute with the utmost severity.

AGENTS FOR ENGLAND, Thomas & Co., 7, Upper St. Martin's-lane, London; Raimes & Co, Liverpool; Apothecaries Comp, Glasgow; Ferris & Co, Bristol; Cornish & Co., Plymouth; Rowe, Devenport; Randall & Co., Southampton; and obtainable through all medicine vendors in the known world, or in case of difficulty, by enclosing a draft or order for £5 or £10, according to the nature of the case, payable in London to Messrs. Thomas & Co., as above, a large package will be sent by return mail, carefully secured from observation or accident.

The Cause and Cure of Premature Decline.

Sold by all the Agents for Dr. De Roos' Medicines, or sent post free, secure from observations direct from the Author, for 2s 6d.

THE MEDICAL ADVISER on the modern treatment of mental and physical incapacity, syphilis, stricture, &c.; with unfailing rules and prescriptions for the speedy cure, by very simple means, of all the more common diseases and supposed incurable maladies of the sexual system. By Dr. W DE ROOS, M. D, &c, of the Ecole de Medicine, Paris.

REVIEWS AND NOTICES.

"The MEDICAL ADVISER, by WALTER DE ROOS, M. D., for the class of diseases upon which it treats is undoubtedly the best and most soundly practical book which has come under our notice The author is a man of most enlarged experience."—North of England Telegraph, June 29th, 1861.

"To those who contemplate marriage its perusal is especially recommended.—Bap. Mag.——"The knowledge it imparts must come some time, and happy they who do not possess it too late."—Politician.——"Cure is certain in every curable case, and few indeed are they which are not so."—Med. Review——"It is calculated to effect a complete revolution in the treatment of these complaints."—Med. Gaz.——"Simple and inexpensive, every sufferer may cure himself speedily, privately, and at the least possible cost."—Scalpel.

From long practical observation of the treatment pursued in the most famous Institutions of this country and the continent, for those diseases referred to in the above work, the Proprietor has had somewhat unusual facilities for acquiring that uniform success which has hitherto characterized his practice, in which the distressing consequences resulting from the injurious employment of mercury, capivi, sarsaparilla, and similar dangerous medicines are entirely obviated. Lasting benefit in these cases can only be reasonably expected at the hands of those who devote their chief attention to such diseases; and to such only can confidence be safely extended. Dr. De R. refers with pride to the numbers he has been instrumental in restoring to health and happiness, whilst to all who need such aid he offers every assurance of speedy restoration.

FOREIGN RESIDENTS can be successfully treated by correspondence, on sending the detail of their cases, with a Bank note or Bill on a London house for £5 or £10, in order that a package of medicines to meet the exigencies of the case, may be sent out by next mail, thus avoiding the protracted suffering and unnecessary loss of valuable time, which must otherwise occur.

DR. DE ROOS' GUTTÆ VITÆ OF LIFE DROPS; Protected by Royal Letter Patent of England; Seals of the Faculte de France; Royal College of Prussia, &c, have in numberless instances proved their superiority over every other advertised remedy for Spermatorrhœa, languor, lassitude, depression of spirits, irritability, anger, excitement, needless fear, distaste and incapacity for society, study or business; indigestion, pains in the side, palpitation of the heart, giddiness, noises in the head, impotency, impediments to marriage, &c. This medicine strengthens the vitality of the whole system, gives energy to the muscles and nerves, thus speedily removes nervous complaints, renovates the impaired powers of life, and invigorates the most shattered constitution. For skin eruptions, sore throat, pains in the bones, and all those diseases in which mercury, sarsaparilla, &c. are too often employed in vain, to the serious detriment of health, its surprising efficacy has only to be tested to be appreciated.

As these complaints if neglected become chronic or incurable, sufferers will do well before they waste valuable time in seeking aid from instruments, and other absurdities professing to supersede medicines, to make fair trial of a remedy, which concocted on unerring scientific principles, cannot fail, and may be carried about the person, or left upon the toilet table, without exciting a suspicion of its nature. Price, 11s, and four times the quantity at 33s per bottle. The £5 packages containing twelve 11s quantities, by which a saving of £1 12s is effected, will be sent from 25, Bedford Place, only on receipt of the amount per draft on a London house or otherwise.

PAINS IN THE BACK, GRAVEL, LUMBAGO, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS, BLADDER, &c. DR DE ROOS' COMPOUND RENAL PILLS are a most safe and speedy Remedy for the above dangerous complaints. Discharges and Diseases of the Urinary Organs generally, which too frequently harass the sufferer over the best years of life, and end only in an agonizing death. They agree with the most delicate stomach, and in three days effect a cure when capivi, cubebs, &c., have utterly failed. 2s 9d., 4s. 6d., 11s, and 33s. per box. The superiority of these celebrated medicines over everything of the kind, is universally acknowledged, and the extraordinary demand for them without precedent.

Many there are, who from natural diffidence, or fear of discovery, would silently bear their afflictions rather than apply for aid to those from whom they may reasonably expect relief. With the aboveremedies the sufferer may without the knowledge of a second person, cure himself speedily, privately, and at the least possible expense.

C, and they will be sent securely packed per return.

CAUTION.—Sufferers should guard against the recommendation of useless imitations by dishonest vendors, who thereby obtain a larger profit. The genuine have the words "WALTER DE ROOS, LONDON," printed in white letters on the Government Stamp, BY ORDER OF HER MAJESTY'S HON. COMMISSIONERS, to imitate which is felony.

The Most Wonderful Pills in the World.

ARE DR. DE ROOS' PILULÆ VITÆ or LIFE PILLS. All sufferers from general nervousness, debility, low spirits, sleeplessness, barrassing dreams, unnecessary fears, mental irritability, failure of the mental and bodily powers, weakness of the nerves, noises in the head, giddiness, indigestion, rheumatism, pains in the back, and other symptoms of chronic disease, will hail with joy the discovery of Dr. De Roos' Life Pills, that speedily and almost magically remove pain and disease of whatsoever nature, restore cheerfulness of spirit and vigor to the mind, and strengthens all the organs on which health and life depend. They do not contain a particle of mercury, but are purely vegetable. They act mildly on the bowels, without pain or griping, impart strength to the stomach, promote a healthy action of the liver, thus preventing, or when when present curing the jaundice and dropsy, clearing the skin, removing sallowness and pimples, purifying the blood, and marvellously invigorating the whole system. For elderly people or when an occasional aperient is required, nothing can be better adapted. Owing to the great and increasing demand for these pills, and in order to protect the public from fraudulent imitations, Her Majesty's Commissioners have graciously permitted the proprietor to have his name "WALTER DE ROOS, LONDON," impressed upon the government stamp affixed to each box. Sold by all medicine vendors in the world; price 2s. 9d., 4s. 6d., 11s., and 33s. per box.

JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS.

The Manochan or Great Medicine.

THESE PILLS have now been thoroughly tested and have maintained the highest character everywhere; they have the wonderful power of restoring to health persons suffering under all diseases arising from

IMPURE BLOOD,

and as the Blood is the life when pure, so it is when corrupt the source of nine-tenths of the diseases which afflict mankind.

The following are among the distressing variety of diseases in which the Pills are invaluable:

BILIOUS FEVERS AND LIVER COMPLAINTS—General Debility, Loss of Appetite and Diseases of Females, —the Medicine has been used with the most beneficial results in cases of this description.—King's Evil and Scrofula, in its worst forms, yields to the mild yet powerful action of this most remarkable Medicine. Night Sweats, Nervous Debility, Nervous Complaints of all kinds, Palpitation of the Heart, Painters' Colic, are speedily cured.

DYSPEPSIA, by thoroughly cleansing the first and second stomachs, and creating a flow of pure, healthy bile, instead of the stale and acrid kind, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Heartburn, Headache, Restlessness, Ill Temper, Anxiety, Langour and Melancholy, which are the general symptoms of Dyspepsia, will vanish as a natural consequence of its cure.

COSTIVENESS, by cleansing the whole length of the intestines with a solvent process, and without violence: all violent purges leaves the bowels costive within two days.

FEVERS, of all kinds, by restoring the blood to a regular circulation, through the process of respiration in such cases, and the thorough solution of all intestinal obstruction in others.

SCURVY, ULCERS AND INVETERATE SORES, by the perfect purity which this Medicine gives to the blood and all the humors.

SCORBUTIC ERUPTIONS and bad complexions, by their alterative effect upon the fluids that feed the skin, and the morbid state of which occasions all eruptive complaints, sallow, cloudy and other disagreeable complexions.

The use of these Pills for a very short time will effect an entire cure of SALT RHEUM, and a striking improvement in the clearness of the skin. COMMON COLDS and INFLUENZA will always be cured by one dose, or by two in the worst cases.

MERCURIAL DISEASES — Persons whose constitutions have become impaired by the injudicious use of Mercury, will find this medicine a perfect cure, as they never fail to eradicate from the system all the effects of Mercury, infinitely sooner than the most powerful preparations of sarsaparilla.

☞ The Plants and Herbs of which these Pills are made were discovered in a very surprising way among the Tezucans, a tribe of Aborigines in Mexico. Get the Almanac of our Agent, and you will read with delight the very interesting account it contains of the "GREAT MEDICINE" of the Aztecs.

OBSERVE—The Mountain Herb Pills are put up in a beautiful Wrapper. Each box contains 40 Pills, and retailed at 25 cents per box. All genuine, have the signature of B. L. Judson & Co. on each box.

THE INVALID'S FRIEND!

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

Nervous Disorders.

What is more fearful than a breaking down of the nervous system? To be excitable or nervous in a small degree is most distressing, for where can a remedy be found? Here is one:—Drink but little wine, beer, or spirits, or far better, abstain from them altogether; do not take coffee—weak tea is preferable; get all the fresh air you can; take three or four of the Pills every night; eat plenty of solids, and avoid the use of slops. If these golden rules are followed, you will be happy in mind, strong in body, and forget you have any nerves.

Mothers and Daughters.

If there is one thing more than another for which these Pills are famous, it is their purifying properties, especially their power of cleansing the blood from all impurities, and removing dangerous and renewing suspended secretions. Universally adopted as the one grand remedy for female complaints, these Pills never fail, never weaken the system, and always bring about what is required.

Disorders of the Kidneys.

In all diseases affecting these organs, whether they secrete too much or too little water, or whether they be afflicted with stone or gravel, or with aches and pains settled in the loins over the region of the kidneys, these Pills should be taken according to the printed directions, and the Ointment should be well rubbed into the small of the back at bed time. This treatment will give almost immediate relief after all other means have failed.

The Stomach out of Order.

No medicine will so effectually improve the tone of the stomach as these Pills; they remove all acidity, occasioned either by intemperate or improper diet. They reach the liver, and reduce it to a healthy action; they are wonderfully efficacious in cases of spasm—in fact they never fail in curing all disorders of the liver and stomach.

Bronchitis, Diptheria, Coughs and Colds.

No diseases are more frequent, few more dangerous, than affections of the respiratory organs. The first symptoms of disordered action may always be removed by Holloway's renowned Pills. They quickly remedy any temporary stagnation of blood, relieve any over-gorged veins, moderate the hurried breathing, and enable the windpipe and lungs to perform their functions with ease and regularity. These Pills, by their purifying powers, cleanse the blood from all impurities, and thus fortify the system against consumption, asthma, and other pulmonory complaints.

Debilitated Constitutions.

In cases of debility, langour, and nervousness, generated by excess of any kind, whether mental or physical, the effect of these Pills is in the highest degree bracing, renovating and restorative. They drive from the system the morbid cause of disease, re-establish the digestion, regulate all the secretions, brace the nervous system, raise the patient's spirits, and bring back the frame to its pristine health and vigour.

Biliousness, Loss of Appetite, Headache, and Lowness of Spirits.

These Pills effect a truly wonderful change in debilitated constitutions, as they create a healthy appetite, correct indigestion, remove excess of bile, and overcome giddiness, headache, and palpitation of the heart.

Holloway's Pills are the best remedy known in the world for the following diseases:—

Ague	Female Irregularities	Scrofula, or King's Evil
