Bid Farewell To U.C. Pastor At St. Peter's Bay

The people of the St. Peter's Bay Pastoral Charge, comprising Marie, Greenwich and St. Peter's, gathered in the United Church Hall, St. Peter's, on Wednesday evening, July 2nd, to bid a sad farewell to Rev. and Mrs. Anthony Ward, who came from England eleven months ago, to serve in this congregation. The hall was filled to capacity, many being unable to gain admittance. The chairman, Mr. Wendall Coffin, Morell, called on Mr. Colin Jackson, who read an appropriate address to Mr. and Mrs. Ward. Gifts of a well filled purse and a beautiful tri-light were made by Mr. Leith Sanderson, Greenwich. Presentations were also made to Mrs. Ward from the Marie W.M.S. the St. Peter's W.A. and W.M.S. by Mrs. P.W. Robbins, and Mrs. Albert Quigley respectively.

LONG-LASTING PUMPKIN

Wistfully looking at this golden pumpkin and wishing for a mid-summer Halloween, is Master Curtis Sorrie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sorrie of Montague. Picked last fall and still in a perfect state of preservation, the pumpkin was stored in a room of the Sorrie home at room temperature. It is considered quite unusual for one to be preserved for such a lengthy period.

on teaching children good citizenship. Miss Theresa MacLeod, supervisor, spoke briefly. She asked the members to study Canadian food rules, and to plan meals at home carefully in order to promote good health for their families. She asked the Institutes to continue to support the handicraft exhibition at Old Home Week. Each Institute is asked to provide an article suitable for sale at the exhibition.
