Odd Fellows Hold Dedication Services In New Quarters

The impressive dedication service conducted by Leonard Jardine of New Glasgow, Warden of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows of the Maritime Provinces in the new quarters of the local organization on Sydney St., last night, marked the termination of a period of sustained activity since the regrettable loss of the Odd Fellows hall by fire last September.

Three active bodies of the organization, St. Lawrence Lodge No. 8, Wildey Lodge No. 27 and Alpha Rebekah Lodge, combined to finance the new set-up which provides for a room of adequate proportions for lodge work; a banquet room and adjacent kitchen fitted with modern equipment, and the necessary cloakroom facilities.

More than two hundred members and invited guests were welcomed by A. O. F. Gill, P. G.M., master of ceremonies, who outlined the work of the Order briefly prior to the dedication service.

Grand Lodge officers present and speaking briefly included D. J. Chisholm, Grand Secretary, New Glasgow, N. S., W. G. Stairs, Grand Patriarch, Grand Encampment, Fredericton, N. B., Col. Sam Gordon, Dept. Commander, Patriarch Militant, Westville, N.S. Local past grand officers in all branches of the organization, and several visitors from Hillside Lodge, Montague, added to the impressiveness of the occasion.

A mixed chorus of ten voices was heard to advantage at indicated places in the ceremony of dedication.

Entertainment and light refreshments was provided in the banquet hall at the conclusion of the lodge room ceremonies.

Heard during the evening as entertaining features were William K. Rogers in piano selections, Mrs. Nancy Cox, who sang "The Lord's Prayer", Miss Thelma Teed, violin solo, Roy Smallman who sang "Prayer Perfect". Mrs. K. S. Rogers was accompanist.

The committee in charge was composed of Peter Shama, Geo. Wilson, D. F. Bethune, L. Stewart, A. M. Whitlock, J. H. Lohnes, Sisters Claudia Acorn, Matilda Frizzell, Hazel Lee, Ruby Houle, Forrest E Clow, (Chairman) and Bertie L. Stewart, Secy.
