Death of a Distinguished P. E. Is- lander.

By late advices from the United States, we learn, with regret, of the death of the Rev. Edward Anderson, D. D. Dr. Anderson was born at East Point, Lot 46, in 1821. At an early age he began to study for the ministry, and, after taking a full course at Wolville Academy, was ordained a minister of the Baptist denomination. He labored for some years in Nova Scotia, where he married Miss Helen Best, of Wolville. Then he removed to the United States and became the pastor of the Baptist Church, in Milford, N. H. He was afterwards pastor of the Portland, Oregon, church. The greater part of his life, however, was spent in the Western States.
He was for a number of years President of Kalamazoo College, Mich., at which place he was also engaged as editor of a religious newspaper. Something over a year ago, while engaged in active educational and ministerial work, he was stricken down with paralysis, from which he never completely recovered. He leaves a widow and three sons in the United States, besides many relatives and friends in Eastern King's Co., this Island. He was a forcible and impressive speaker, a profound thinker and writer, and will be remembered by all who knew him, with feelings of affection and respect.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Councillor Large Again.

SIR,—Now that the editor of the Guardian is forced to own that his charges made against myself are false, he endeavors to wriggle out of his unenviable position by saying that I have lost the confidence of my constituents. Is it not painful to think that a man pretending to be on the side of truth and right will wilfully malign and sland another, and then justify himself by saying that the one he has injured is unpopular. I feel that I have been basely slandered by the Guardian, and that without cause. Except in the case of the resolution passed through a misunderstanding by the City Council in December last, and which I opposed at the next regular meeting, I have never given my vote against the temperance cause. The resolution seconded by me at the last meeting of the Council related to the "untruthfulness of the Guardian" statements and that alone. By inserting this you will oblige, PHILIP LARGE.
March 7th, 1890.

Communication with the Mainland.

The Moncton Times reports: A well attended meeting was held in Tait's Hall, Shediac, last evening to take action looking to improved harbor accommodation and better steam service between that place and Summerside. G. Harshman, Esq., was called to the chair, and Dr. White was appointed secretary. A series of resolutions which we are unable to publish this morning were framed by a number of leading citizens, and ably supported by clear and convincing arguments. Messrs. Hannington and Stevens, M. P.'s, who had been invited to be present, spoke warmly of the importance of the project as it had been presented by the different speakers, and they promised all the aid they could render in favor of the needed improvements.

A correspondent of the Times remarks that: "The agitation now going on in re better steam service between Summerside and Point du Chene, cannot fail to attract the attention of ship owners and other capitalists, to the fact that one of the best paying services on the continent is and has been shamefully neglected, and that there is an opening for a most profitable investment for any new company who will take hold and maintain a proper service on this route. What is wanted is a small, swift, strong boat built to contend with ice, and one that will make the run in from two to two and a half hours and fitted for passengers, mails and express goods. Only such a boat should receive any assistance from the Government, as the freight will look after itself and pay any company to put on and maintain boats to do the freighting. If the Government will not take hold and maintain this service in keeping with the requirements, they could scarcely refuse to guarantee a suitable subsidy to some new company who will agree to so maintain it."

Concert at North River.

On the 26th ult., according to notice, the choir held their concert at North River.
The evening was fine, the sleighing good, and pleasure-seekers for miles around came to hear the far-famed North River Choir sing. Therefore, when the choir took their place on the platform, they had the gratification of seeing before them a packed house—the largest congregation that had ever greeted them on a similar occasion. The Rev. F. D. Davison was called to the chair, and the large congregation were hushed by a call for a chorus entitled "O come, let us sing." The programme consisted of solos, duets, choruses, recitations, readings and dialogues, and took two hours to carry it out. Everyone was delighted, and the concert was declared a grand success. We will not particularise, but the encores and deserting applause that greeted several of the solos and duets must have been very gratifying to the singers. Invitations have been received for a repetition of the same in other places, notice of which will be given in due time, to enable any who failed to hear it at North River to enjoy the grand musical treat in another place.
The cash realized amounted to $40.05.

Local and Other Items.

SMALL QUEENS.—Five thousand received to-day. Fresh stock for sale wholesale, cheap at Apothecary's Hall. mh4 t t s HEAVY WEIGHTS.—Windsor, N. S., is to be the front with four ladies, all actively engaged in the duties of life, weighing respectively 251, 267, 248, 278—a total of 1034. Mrs. B., one of the heaviest, wears a No. 4 shoe.

NEW BOOV.—The Pictou Standard says:— A large automatic loom, manufactured by Matheson & Co., of New Glasgow, arrived at Pictou station last week. It is to be placed in the vicinity of Indian Rock on the west coast of P. E. Island.

A SWEET DISCOVERY.—An Alberton correspondent informs the Journal that Mr. R.
Gregg, of Alberton, while chopping in the woods at Alma, Lot 3, a few days ago, cut down a hollow tree, in which he discovered a swarm of bees. Braving their weapons of war he secured about a gallon of honey, of a superior quality.

SKATING.—R. W. Carson, of St. John, is the amateur skating champion of the Lower Provinces, having defeated Frank Carroll, of Pictou, in a three mile race at the Palace Rink, St. John, a few nights ago. Carroll claimed a foul in the first race and they skated again, but this time Carson came in about sixty feet ahead. He will now challenge Carroll to skate for the amateur championship of Canada and the Palace Rink gold medal.

A DETECTIVE IN TROUBLE.—Detective Skef-ington visited Campbellton a few days ago, and while in the town called at the Pioneer office and demanded that the editor apologize to him for something that had appeared in the paper. This the editor refused to do. A row ensued, taken part in by the detective, the editor and the printers. Chairs, sticks, mallets and other weapons were freely used, and the detective was ejected. The editor has since sworn out a warrant for the arrest of the detective, and the case will shortly come up for trial.

A FLOURISHING CONGREGATION.—The Guardian reports that the "roll call" in the Baptist Church in this city was largely attended on Wednesday last; and says: "The response indicates hopeful, healthy spiritual life, and loyal attachment to the cause in this city. Eight men were baptised into the fellowship of this church on Sunday morning.
The communion service on Sunday was largely attended and of more than usual interest.
Deacon Alexander Scott, of West River, East Point, was present and participated in the service."

Personal.

Referring to the lamented death in Vancouver, of Mr. W. H. Lowe, recently of this city, the Guardian says: "He, in company with his father, left here two years ago for the West, where he has been working as his trade, carpentering ever since. He was a young man of sterling character, well and favorably known here for his many estimable qualities. It is sad, indeed, to record his death at the early age of twenty-one years and in the very prime of manhood. To his sorrowing parents and sisters we extend our sincerest sympathy. Deceased's sister, Miss Amelia A. T. Lowe, accompanied by her brother-in-law, Mr. John H. Burns, left here on Tuesday by the steamer Stanley en route to Vancouver, B. C., there to join her father.
Mr. Burns will probably return in about a month."

For Rickets, Marasmus, and all Wasting Disorders of Children

Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, is unequalled. The rapidity with which children gain flesh and strength upon it is very wonderful. "I have used Scott's Emulsion in cases of Rickets and Marasmus of long standing." In every case the improvement was marked.—J. M. Main, M. D. New York. Sold by all druggists, 50c. and $1.00.
