Band at the Rink to-night.

The Stanley is still detained in Pictou by the ice.

I. O. O. F.—St. Lawrence Lodge to-night. Initiation.

To-Morrow Evening.—A cake and candy table for children will form one of the features of the basket social in the Lyceum to-morrow.

Meeting of Legislature.—The Legislature of the Province of New Brunswick has been summoned to meet for the despatch of business on February 13th.

At the Capes.—There was no crossing at the Capes to-day. The boats left Cape Traverse, but had to return on account of the immense quantities of lolly met with.

Ladies, clean your kid gloves with Josephine Glove Cleaner. It is not a liquid, gives no odor, and can be used while the glove is on the hand. For sale only at A. W. Reddin's drugstore. tf.

Race.—William Carbonell has accepted the challenge of A. Gaudet to skate a mile for a silver medal offered by the Managers of the Rink, to-morrow evening, during the intermission of the hockey match. This will be very closely contested.

Epworth League.—Rev. D. Sutherland will give a paper under the auspices of the Epworth League of the First Methodist Church this evening at 8 o'clock in the parlor of the church. Subject, "George Eliot." The paper will be followed by a discussion. The public are invited.

Dairying in January.—Vernon River Bridge factory seperated for the last week 20,461 lbs. milk. In this amount Mr. D. P. Irving supplied 1,304 lbs., and Mr. Owen Sullivan 1,114 lbs. For the previous week: 22,310 lbs. The total amount received at Vernon River factory from the 1st of January to Saturday last was 95,890 lbs.

For Civic Honors.—A correspondent of the Guardian writes: "The many friends of Messrs. Crabbe and Beer are pleased to hear that there is a possibility of their contesting Ward 4 at the coming civic election. Both are men of experience at the Council Board, and may be relied upon to do their utmost in every respect to advance the best interests of the city.

Be sure and attend the hockey match and race at the Rink to-morrow night.

Starved to Death.—A despatch from Mamaroneck, N. Y., says: An autopsy on the body of Miss Mary E. Hillis, school teacher, found dead in her home on Tuesday evening, revealed the fact that death was caused by starvation. While Miss Hillis was in the house starving to death two letters containg money, sent to her by her brother in New York, were awaiting here in the post office.

Entertainment.—At a meeting of the members of the League of the Cross yesterday, it was decided to hold their annual entertainment on Wednesday, the 5th of February, in the Lyceum. As this entertainment is always one of the best of the season, the promoters feel confident of making it a success in every particular. Some of the best talent has been engaged for that evening and all may expect a rare treat.

Hockey Match.—Don't forget the hockey match, Clerks vs. All-comers, in the rink to morrow night. It will be a hotly-contested game, and one most interesting to spectators. In connection with the match there will be a one-mile challenge race for a medal offered by Messrs. Dawson and Rogers between Arthur Gaudet and William Carbonell, the winner of the one-mile amateur race on Wednesday evening last.

Teachers' Institute.—The regular meeting of the Teachers' Institute was held on Saturday evening, Principal McSwain in the chair. Mr. Seaman conducted the class in calisthenics, and Mr. Stewart led the class in singing. After the regular business was disposed of Mr. Seaman spoke of the benefits to be derived from a pedagogical society, and seven teachers handed in their names for the formation of such a society.

For The Poor.—The Ladies' Sewing Circle in connection with St. Vincent de Paul Society, assisted by the ladies of St. Dunstan's congregation, will hold a basket and candy social in the Lycum on Tuesday evening next, 28th inst, the proceeds of which will be devoted to relieving the necessities of the poor. The proceedings will begin with a vocal and instrumental entertainment, for which a choice programme has been prepared, after which the sale of baskets will take place. As the object for which the social is being held is a worthy one, we hope there will be a large attendance. Admission only 10 cents.

C. M. B. A.—Kensington Hall was crowded on Thursday evening last, the occasion of the entertainment given under the auspices of Branch 254, C. M. B. A., among the audience being quite a number who went by special train from Summerside. The affair was a grand success. Miss Amy Hopgood, of Kensington, sang "If I Could Read Thy Heart," and responded to an enthusiastic encore with a Scotch song, "Loch Lomond," which was also generously applauded. Miss Hopgood is a very fine singer, with a clear, sweet and carefully cultivated voice, and she at once became a favorite. She is sure to be much sought after in musical circles in the future. We understand she was for some time under the instruction of Mr. Earle, Charlottetown. The above we have much pleasure in taking from the Summerside Agriculturist of January 25th, and congratulate Mr. Earle on the success of his pupil.

The Weather.—Cloudy with light falls of rain or snow.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

AN INQUIRY

Sir,—Some years ago Mr. Donald Nicholson, who is now in the field for Ward Four, was in favor of sewerage. Would Mr. Nicholson let us have his present views on this important question? We should know for certain before we are asked to vote for him whether he still holds the same views, and whether, if elected, he would plunge the city into a big indebtedness and outlay for sewerage purposes, or if he would first submit the question to the citizens for a plebiscite vote.

Elector Ward Four East.

A GOOD TEAM.

Sir,—Messrs. Nicholson and Whear should make a good team to run in Ward Four. At any rate their appearance together would seem to guarantee that the contest will be free from Local or Dominion politics, as both gentlemen belong to different sides. This is one step in the right direction, and it is to be hoped that the electors will do their part and keep politics out of the campaign. We shall expect to have the cards of these gentlemen without delay, and I would suggest to them to come out square'y and give their views plainly and explicitly on the different civic questions now before the citizens.

Ward Four.

THE PEOPLES' CANDIDATE

Sir,—The early bird catches the worm. The candidates who are first in the field for civic honors will undoubtedly have an advantage over their later rivals, and this is already being felt by Nicholson and Whear, the peoples' candidates for Ward Four. These gentlemen, who at the earnest request of a number of influential citizens have decided to contest Ward Four and who are not connected with any clique or party, are securing assurances of support from unexpected quarters, who feel that it is necessary for the people to have representatives at the City Council who are in sympathy with the masses. As one of the common people, I think we would have good councillors in the persons of the above named candidates, and for that reason I intend voting for them and all my friends are going to do likewise.

Elector.

ANOTHER INQUIRY.

Sir,—It is currently reported that a requisition is being taken around Charlottetown asking certain gentlemen to run as candidates for ward 4 and that a certain judge is at the back of it. I have always understood that when a person accepted a position on the bench he ceased to vote or interfere in any kind of politics—Dominion, Local, or Civic, and I write now to know whether the law or the custom has been changed and if so where and why?

Ward Five Meeting.—The electors of Ward Five are requested to meet in the Magistrate's Court room, City Building, on Tuesday evening, the 28th inst., at 8 o'clock to discuss civic matters and nominate candidates to represent the Ward.

IN THE CHURCHES YESTERDAY.

ST. PETER'S CATHEDRAL.

Rev. Mr. Simpson's text was Rom. xiv:7, "None of us liveth to himself." Rev. Mr. Simpson, in the course of his discourse, stated that "the government of a city or nation is exactly what the majority make it; it is a reflection of the wishes of individual voters. I would impress this upon you with reference to the civic elections, and while I have no intention of influencing your votes for any party or person, I would entreat you to look at the matter from a broad and Christian standpoint, and act accordingly. . . . The City Council has been fairly satisfactory, although by no means perfect. It is our duty to see that the next Council is better if possible. We must progress, until the management of our civic affairs is a credit to the Province, and a pattern to other cities. The Citizens' League desire to elect Councillors who will undertake to enforce the Canada Temperance Act more efficiently. Whatever opinion may be held with regard to this act, all right-minded men will surely admit that so long as it is law it ought to be enforced, and as good citizens we ought to insist on its enforcement. If, then, men are brought forward who are prepared to do their utmost to enforce this act, and if these men are likely to possess the confidence of the community on other questions as well, I am sure they stand every chance of election if the electors will only do their duty. Remember it is your duty as citizens to vote conscientiously for the good of the city, not from any selfish motives. You are responsible to God that your influence and your vote be used to further the public good, just as you are responsible to Him for the right use of all your talents, and you have no right to shirk that responsibility by voting at the request of this or that person, without weighing all the circumstances. While there are different interests at stake there will always be different parties, and one person may quite conscientiously vote for one party, while another may equally conscientiously vote for another. And this thought should make us more just to our opponents and refrain from attributing evil motives to their actions. I ask you then to be conscientious. There ought to be no question of personal benefit connected with the matter, but simply the good of the community and the credit of your bity, always remembering that no man liveth to himself, but we are all members one of another in Christ our Head."

SECOND METHODIST CHURCH.

The Second Methodist Church was re-opened yesterday, after some very material and beneficial changes had been made in the interior arrangements. The sittings of the church have been reversed and the choir and pulpit removed to the northern part of the building, making the interior of the place much more convenienient for both pastor and people. The sermons both morning and evening were delivered by Rev. Mr. Weddall. In the evening his text was Romans, 14th chap, verse 7—"For none of us liveth to himself and no man dieth to himself." It was pointed out that the most important thought in our lives ought to be the proper use and improvement of our God-given faculties. If we had the desire to use our talents for right how beneficial would our influence be? We exert influence on those we meet in domestic and social life. The force of character which tends to permanancy is achieved by following our good impulses. Rome became a great nation, mistress of the world. But now "Thou art no more," as the people follow after pride, and thus her power diminished. Greece boasted of her wisdom, but counted the wisdom of God as foolish. England has been living not to herself. She has been the defender of the oppressed. She has kept the nations in check. Her success as the greatest nation is due to defending the Faith. As with nations so with individuals. As the smallest barque at sea leaves its mark on the ocean, so with us: each one leaves a mark on the ocean of life. Our pattern Jesus Christ is alone worthy of imitation. He was pure and good. People felt his power and purity and followed Him. If we led the Christ life those around would feel and know it. The hopeless wicked and sick believed in His power and cried out "Thou art Christ." What is our aim in life? To live to make dollars to die; to follow fashion to die; to be amused to die; to love Christ to live forever. Let us say with the poet,—

Make use of me my Lord,
Let me not be forgot,
Rather let me be a broken vessel
Cast aside, the meanest of them all.

Influences of mother's love brings forth love in the child. Can we forget the prayer at mother's knee? She knew not the influence on the child. So with us we know not what is influence, not till that great day. Holy Spirit Influence is silent but effectual Spirit strives with us. Let us not reject or quench not, but accept Christ then none of us will live to himself. May God give us influence for Christ. The choir rendered choice selections at both services.

ZION CHURCH.

In the course of his sermon in Zion church yesterday, Rev. Mr. Sutherland pointed out that "good citizenship strikes at everything base and vicious, and fosters whatever is good and true. It labors for physical and moral health. Realizing that public health is closely allied to public morals, it seeks to enforce the lesson of Leviticus that sins against health are sins against God, and fights to the death the forces in a community that make for diphtheria, typhoid and scarlet fever. Gambling it stamps out as a foul cancer on the body politic. Drunkenness it outlaws, and crushes with the mailed hand of moral indignation and legislative enactment. It is bound by every consideration to carry on an increasing campaign against the liquor traffic as the enemy of the common weal which flourishes at the expense of every honest trade and is never legalized without permanent injury to the welfare of the community. Only a fastidious spirituality holds aloof from the direct application of Christianity to civic government. . . . 'The town council should be governed by Jesus Christ, and therefore Christian men should go there to represent him.' Only councillors who promise to administer the affairs of a Christian city in a Christian spirit ought to be elected by Christian citizens, otherwise the daily prayer, 'Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done,' is a mockery. Vote as you pray and pray as you vote. A vote is more than a privilege. It is a sacred trust committed to a follower of Jesus Christ. To shirk the opportunity it offers is to betray the Master. To use it for partizan purposes is to abuse it."

Quebec Winter Carnival.—Preparations are being made on such a scale as to point to the fact that this carnival will, in all respects, far surpass all previous ones, and this statement, coupled with the low fares, should induce a large number of people to visit Quebec. The People's Railway, in this connection, issue return tickets at first-class single fare on the 24th and 25th, good leaving Quebec up to February 5th, and at special fare of $11.00 from Pictou to Quebec on the 28th and 29th, good leaving Quebec up to February 3rd. jan 17 eod

Again Remembered.—The Bible class of the Main Street Baptist Church, St. John, N. B., held a reunion and social gathering an evening or two ago at the residence of their pastor, Rev. J. A. Gordon, formerly of Charlottetown, and presented him with a dressing gown and an address. They also presented Mrs. Gordon with a rocking chair. Mr. Gordon thanked the class for their appreciation of his services. After Mrs. Gordon had thanked the class the gathering sat down to a sumptuous repast. The gathering broke up about 11 o'clock after having spent a very enjoyable evening.

The Wheels of Fashion

Run one way to-day and another way to-morrow, but there are two things Fashion always demands—first, that a Suit or Overcoat must be a good fit; and, second, that the goods must be of good quality and look well. We know our line of SUITINGS and OVERCOATINGS has no superior in the city and few equals. We know they are well and stylishly made, and that the prices are as low as it is possible to sell goods of this grade. To the Electors of Charlottetown;

GENTLEMEN—In compliance with the wishes of a large number of citizens, and in response to the numerously signed requisition presented to me, I have decided to nominate for the Mayoralty at the forthcoming Election, and would take this opportunity of soliciting your support.

If elected, I shall endeavor at all times to act impartially, giving justice to all, favors to none. It shall be my aim to see that the affairs of this City are conducted with the strictest economy commensurate with its requirements and that the rate of taxation be kept down to the lowest figure consistent therewith.

I shall continue to stand up for the citizen's rights both as regards the Roadway to Victoria Park and all other questions which may arise. I believe that all laws at present in force, or that may hereafter be enacted, should be faithfully carried out.

I am opposed to the expenditure of any public moneys in defiance of the well understood wishes of the people.

As I publicly stated two years ago, I believe that good government in civic affairs can only be assured by having a change in representatives from time to time; and having served four years as Councillor, I now respectfully solicite your votes for the office of Mayor.

I remain, Gentlemen,
Your Obedient Servant.
