Address and Presentation.

MR. JAMES LANDRIGAN, on leaving the Tignish School, was presented by his pupils with a valuable fur cap and an address, which we give below:—

To Mr. James Landrigan:
DEAR TEACHER,—On behalf of the scholars of Tignish School we present you with this address, in which we express our great sorrow for your departure from amongst us, and a firm trust that you shall soon be restored to good health. For the period of one and a half years you have been our teacher, during which time you have always shown yourself a true friend to us, and under your instruction we have made great progress in our studies. We now thank you sincerely for the kindly interest you have always manifested in our welfare.

In conclusion, we beg of you to accept from us, your scholars, this small present as a tangible proof of the esteem and respect which we have for you.

(Signed)
HOWARD R. HILSON,
EDDIE MCFADYEN,
JAS. F. GALLANT,
CHAS. A. HACKETT,
HENRY STEVENSON,
SYBIL MCFADYEN,
NETTIE CARRUTHERS,
And others.

REPLY.
To Howard R. Hilson, Eddie McFadyen, Jas. F. Gallant, Chas. A. Hackett, Sybil McFadyen and Nettie Carruthers.

MY DEAR SCHOLARS,—I am very sorry to be leaving you on the present occasion. During the time I have spent among you, you have willingly joined me in working for the individual welfare of each one and for the welfare of the school in general. Looking back, were it not for my ill health at times, the time has been pleasantly spent, and nothing would please me more than to be in good health and to be able to continue as your teacher. However, I hope that what I have taught you may continue you in the direction of learning more, whereby you may be better able to fight the battle of life.

Your kind feelings regarding my health are a source of gratitude to me, and I am much pleased with your valuable present, which is a proof of more esteem than I had expected. Hoping you will improve your time well under my successors.

I am, yours sincerely,
JAMES LANDRIGAN.

Glenarry's Disgrace.

(Montreal Star, Independent.)

The last Glenarry election is a flagrant example of gross, shameless, undisguised corruption. The proceedings before the election court show beyond the shadow of a doubt that Mr. Purcell depended upon his money alone to carry him into Parliament. There is too much reason to believe that he was chosen to contest the County by the Liberal Convention because he had money and was willing to spend it freely. A man more unfit to represent a constituency of intelligent and independent voters in the Dominion House of Commons, it is hard to imagine. He is without education, and possesses no qualifications for Parliamentary life. Had it not been that he was known to be both rich and ambitious, not a member of that convention would have dreamed of naming Mr. Purcell as a candidate. And why did the Liberal convention choose a candidate whose only qualification was that he had a long purse? Simply that the county might be carried by the Liberal interest by a profuse expenditure of money. There is no use in attempting to discuss the fact that the choice of Mr. Purcell was in itself morally a corrupt act, the first of a series of corrupt acts that have brought disgrace upon the county of Glenarry. And Mr. Purcell did what was expected of him. From the first day of his canvass to the last he spent money right and left. He could not address meetings, but he could lend money. He had no knowledge of the political affairs of the country, but he carried a big cheque book in his pocket. He could not argue with an opponent, but he could and did send agents all over the country with big rolls of bank bills in their pockets ready to lend money to any needy or corrupt voter on the most accommodating terms. In fact, Mr. Purcell was during that election campaign nothing more or less than a perambulating money bag. The members of the liberal party in the country knew this. There was not one of them that was not perfectly sure that Purcell was buying his way into Parliament, and there is no indication, the slightest, to show that they were not, all of them, ready and willing to condone his offences against the purity and the independence of elections. So that in condemning Purcell the judges condemned those who urged him to offer himself as a candidate, and who witnessed his corrupt practices without a single remonstrance.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—MR. WINSLOW'S

Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the pain in the gums; and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind.

Do to-day's duty, fight to-day's temptation, and do not weaken and distract yourself by looking forward to things which you cannot see, and could not understand if you saw them.

F. W. KISSMAN & Co.—Gentlemen: For some time I have contemplated sending you a line or two expressive of the great value Mrs. Bracie and myself place upon Adamson's Balsam, which we have used for years with ever-increasing satisfaction. It is a most excellent remedy for coughs, and an agreeable medicine to take. Chas. W. Bracie, Pastor Methodist Episcopal Church, Augusta, Me. Trial size 10 cents. dy wy 1w
