

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

OCTOBER 28, 1882.

Editorial Echoes.

Coincident with the opening of Parliament, England has had a great gale which the dispatches say has done damage throughout the country.

The United States have not yet Savings Banks in connection with Post offices. Neither has Prince Edward Island—though they are flourishing institutions in other parts of Canada.

Postmaster General Howe has proposed, and the New York Herald advocates, the assumption by the Government of the electric telegraphs.

It is believed that Jay Gould looks fondly and confidently to the sale of the Western Union Telegraph Company's plants, franchises, patents, and appurtenances to the Government as the ultimate realization of the huge stock jobbing schemes in which he has been engaged.

In England, telegraphy by Government is found to work well; and, if introduced into Canada, the system would be of advantage—most of all to this Province.

One of Arabi's prisoners, who fell into the hands of the English, gives a graphic account of the filthy condition of the prison at Cairo. He says thumb-screws were put on him during the journey from Cairo to Alexandria; at the latter place he was thrust into a prison filthier than the one at Cairo, and was swarming with vermin; he was robbed by the jailers, and then put on board a vessel for Smyrna, but was smuggled ashore at Pera by the aid of an Armenian officer of the ship.

Dr. Carpenter says we do all we can to thwart nature by applying ligatures to the wrong parts of the body. "The good sense of the English nation," says Dr. Carpenter, "is abolishing at least stays from the list of articles which young girls wear, but they are sadly too much used even now."

On Tuesday last, a very influential deputation, comprising leading representatives of the English, Methodist, and Presbyterian Churches of Canada, in Ontario, waited on Mr. Mowat, Premier of Ontario, and requested him to make the teaching of religion obligatory upon the public schools of that Province.

The evils which seem just now to agitate most the body politic of the United States are "Bosses" and "Political Assessments."

The Chinese Question.

The importation of several thousand Chinamen to work as navvies in the construction of the Canada Pacific Railway is creating a stir among the workmen. At a meeting of a Trades Union held in Toronto a few nights ago resolutions strongly condemnatory of "John Chinaman" being allowed the countenance of government or its contractors, and urging a prohibition or restriction, whenever practicable, of Chinese immigration, were passed.

Civil Service Examinations.

The preliminary and qualifying examinations for the Civil Service, which are to commence on the 7th proximo, will be held in the Prince Edward Island provincial buildings at Charlottetown, the Nova Scotia provincial buildings at Halifax, the Custom-house at St. John, N. B., the Quebec provincial buildings at Quebec, the post-office at Montreal, the barracks at Kingston, the Railway Committee-room of the House of Commons at Ottawa, the Temperance Hall at Toronto, the post-office at London, and the University at Winnipeg; and inasmuch as they are the first tests under the new Act, applications for entry will be received up to that date.

THE MARCH TO TEL-EL-KEBIR.—An Ottawa despatch says:—J. Filby, in the employ of Sir John A. Macdonald's Private Secretary, has received the melancholy intelligence of the death of a younger brother in Alexandria from a wound received during the embarkment of that city, or on the effect of which he had partially recovered; but volunteering, like a brave Briton for the march on Tel-el-Kebir, he in consequence suffered a relapse and died. Two other brothers were killed in the same service, one at Alma and the other at Balaclava.

Last Sunday at Tryon.

DEDICATION OF THE NEW METHODIST CHURCH.

On last Sunday the pretty little church lately erected by the Methodists of Tryon was opened for public worship. Beautiful weather, large audiences, impressive services, and handsome contributions, greeted this new effort. The day was remarkable as one of the finest of the season, and the building was much spoken of as one of the best of the Island village churches—

At the morning service, precisely at half past ten, the Rev. Mr. Cowperthwaite presided at the first words of public worship, by commencing the dedicating service as prescribed by the Methodist Church of Canada. The Rev. E. Coary (Baptist) offered a prayer, and the Rev. Prof. Burwash occupied the pulpit. The Hymns used for the occasion were the 657th, 665th and 671st. Mrs. Jabez Lea presided at the organ. The musical part of the services was of a high order, and the anthem "O Be Joyful" at the afternoon service, was rendered in a manner seldom equalled except in Catholic or Episcopal cathedrals.

Professor Burwash chose for his text, Deuteronomy, 29th chap., and 29th verse: "The secret things belong unto the Lord our God; but those things which are revealed belong unto us, and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this law." The sermon displayed much depth of thought. The speaker dwelt largely upon the mysteries of religion and nature, and the bounds set to human enquiry, and then opened up to his hearers the revealed truths of Christianity, as regards their personal salvation. The Professor is a speaker who rivets the attention of his hearers. The sermon was an earnest and eloquent one. He possesses remarkable powers of elocution, especially displayed in his rendering of poetic compositions, an elocution, however, which is somewhat marred by uneasy, ungraceful and nervous gesticulation; but, at the same time, could not war the truths he expounded. One could imagine the pleasure of listening to him, from a written sermon; for as a reader he excels. At the close of sermon, the remainder of the "dedicatory service" was accomplished, taken part in by the Revs. Messrs. Teed, Cowperthwaite and Burwash, together with the leaders of Church. Mr. Teed is the appointed minister of the District.

At three o'clock the Rev. Mr. Cowperthwaite presided at the services, and preached from the 24th chap. of St. Luke, 13th, 14th and 15th verses: "And, behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem about three score furlongs. And they talked together of all these things which had happened. And it came to pass, while they communed together and reasoned, Jesus himself drew near, and went with them." The sermon was a heart-burning, earnestly impressive, soul-stirring one, breathing throughout a sacred influence, gathered into living realities—the realities of faith—which made men feel as much in the company of the Master, as did Cleopas and Simon. It was all Christ.

The evening service—the largest congregation of all—was presided over by the Rev. Mr. Burwash. He wished to "have a plain and easy talk" with his hearers, and founded his discourse upon the 23rd Psalm. Many who heard the "secrets" of the morning, were visibly impressed by the glorious "revelations" of the evening. He fairly revelled in the sublime comfort and unutterable sublimity of the truths laid down in the Psalm, and old and young listened with great attention, as he breathed forth from his heart word after word full of life, pointing upwards to the Christian's home, where they dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Many will never forget the day. It will be remembered for ever. Eternal truths blessed it, and nature smiled upon it. The rich gave bountifully, the poor gave more—all they could. All day long the glorious sun shone out, and the "hallowed shades of even" were tinted by the silvery rays of the moon, and stars, and other worlds. Many, as they wended their way homewards, talked of Christ. One old man said he "had him right in here—in his heart." All were charitable. The day had been to the Methodists, and now each would still love his "own vine and fig-tree," none the less, perhaps all the more.

Financially, the proceedings were a success. I have not learned the exact amount collected for the building fund, but heard it was over two hundred dollars. The Church cost about six thousand dollars, and about one thousand remains to be made up. It is built to seat 350 of an audience. —Com.

ASHORE.—The bark "Alfred" was ashore on North Cape, P. E. I., yesterday and telegraphed here for a tug to go to her rescue. The tug "Gladiator" started from here, to go to her assistance, but it is not likely that she ventured over the bar in the storm last night. The "Alfred" was bound for Miramichi to load deals for the Stewart's.

PEDESTRIANISM.—Rowell retired from the New York pedestrian contest after completing 384 miles. His stopping was due to the irregular action of his heart. He was anxious to continue the race, but his trainers and backers, recognizing the seriousness of the case, refused to allow him to do so. At 1 o'clock, a m., on the 26th, the score, was: Fitzgerald, 431; Noremack, 422; Hughes, 420; Hart, 408; Herly, 402; Vint, 374.

A CASE, unusual in occurrence and peculiarly sad in its details, has recently engaged the attention of a Coroner's jury in Quebec. One day last week a ten-year old son of Mr. Timothy Shea, a provision merchant of Quebec, was taken to the surgery of Dr. Kussell to have a tooth extracted. It was necessary to put the little fellow under chloroform, and before the drug had taken effect so as to render the patient insensible, dangerous symptoms presented themselves and in spite of the use of restoratives death ensued in about two hours.

PERSONAL.—A Montreal despatch says Mr. Thos. P. Gorman, formerly of the "Summerside Press," but for some time on the editorial staff of the "Herald," was entertained at a complimentary banquet, Monday night, at the City Club, by leading reformers of Montreal, the occasion being his leaving the city to accept a position on the "Toronto Globe." Mr. Holton, M. P., occupied the chair, and complimentary speeches were made by Messrs. G. W. Stephens, M. P. P., J. J. McLaren, Q. C., J. R. Ward, members of the city press and others.

"TWO TY-FOUR YEARS' EXPERIENCE," says an eminent physician, convinces me that the only cure for "Nervous Exhaustion" and weakness of the generative organs is to repair the waste by giving Brain and Nerve Foods, and of all the remedies I have used, Mack's Magnetic Medicine is the best.
