OWING to the state of the weather last evening, the Tea Party in aid of the Young Women's Christian Association was not as great a success as it ought to have been. Everything was good and in the best style, and Mr. Galbraith's Band came in from the Square and discoursed sweet music during the evening. The remainder of the Aprons not disposed of will be sold on Friday morning in the Market Hall.

CHORISTESS, of St. John, N. B., held inquests on Monday on the bodies of John McGallion, and John Thompson, whose sudden deaths were recorded in our despatches a few days ago. Death from natural causes was the verdict in each case. An inquest on the remains of Frank Muse, the Indian found dead on the line of the I. C. R., Friday, was held at Rothesay. A verdict of accidental death was returned, no blame whatever being attached to the railway authorities.

THE celebrated Kennedy Family, Scottish Vocalists, are now making their final tour of Canada. They have just completed a very successful season in Halifax, and will open in this city, in the Y. M. C. A. Hall, on the evening of the 15th July. Speaking of one of their performances the London Standard says:—"Mr. Kennedy's 'Nicht wi Burns,' at St. James Hall, was so successful a valedictory performance that the veteran Scottish entertainer will think twice before prolonging his forthcoming American tour, and will probably hasten back with all speed to his friends on this side the Atlantic. Mr. Kennedy recited 'The O'Shaness' in a manner to rouse the enthusiasm of his hearers, and sang, amongst other things, 'Scots wha hae,' and 'The Dell's awa wi the Exciseman,' with inimitable effect. The Misses Helen, Marjorie, Maggie and Jessie Kennedy all lent able assistance to a performance which must have commended itself immeasurably to all lovers of the quaint, picturesque minstrelsy which owes its origin to the country 'North of the Border.'"

The Indians were dressed in their national costumes and performed their old time customs with much pomp and display, and showed that they had not forgotten the days of yore. The festivities were not concluded until a late hour.

THE general verdict of the smokers of the Myrtle Navy is that it is the finest tobacco they have ever used. There can be no mistake upon this point for it is proved by this tangible evidence. The large demand for this tobacco shows it to be true, and the character of the demand gives further proof. It has never been of the spasmodic kind, up one month and down the next. It has been a sustained and constantly increasing demand. The unsurpassed quality of the tobacco accounts for this.
