

Local and Other Items.

No EXAMINER to-morrow—Dominion Day.

A REPORT of Saturday's proceedings of the Methodist Conference unavoidably crowded out of to-day's issue; will appear on Wednesday.

CLOSING sale of vases, jewelry, rings, forks, and numerous other goods, by F. S. Hanford, at half past seven o'clock this evening at LePage's building.

I. O. O. F.—Regular meeting of St. Lawrence Lodge, No. 8, for election of Officers, will be held at the Lodge Room this evening, at 8 o'clock.—JOHN H. YEO, Rec. Sec'y.

EXCURSIONISTS will take notice that trains leave the city for St. Peter's at 6.50, and for Summerside at 6.20 and 10.05 to-morrow morning.

CRICKET.—One of the best local matches will be played on the Park ground to-morrow (Dominion Day)—"Bankers" vs. "All-Comers" Stumps pitched at half-past ten o'clock, a. m.

The body of Madame Rowland, the young bride who fell into the rapids at Niagara on Saturday last, has been recovered.

We are indebted to Henry A. Holl, Esq., for excellent specimens of cucumbers grown in his garden this season. They are unusually early and large.

AT THE Stipendiary Magistrate's this forenoon, James Hughes, waterman, was fined $4.00 and costs or twenty days for using abusive language towards Mrs. McGuigan. James Joy was fined $1.00 and costs for assaulting David Stanley.

TO-MORROW—Dominion day—will be observed as a general holiday. Among other ways in which our friends may spend a pleasant day are at the tea party at St Peter's Bay; the excursion to Orwell; the excursion to Point Du Chene; and the Cricket match and dinner at Victoria Park.

A SPECIAL MEETING of the "Prince Edward Island Fish and Game Protection Association" will be held in Dr. Strickland's office, on Wednesday evening next, at 7 o'clock. Members will please attend, as matters of importance will have to be brought to the notice of the meeting.—S. D. FITZGERALD, Sec'y.

At the regular convocation of "Port la Joie Encampment," held on Wednesday evening, 25th inst., the following Patriarchs were elected for term ending December 31st: J. S. Bagnall, C. P.; F. Henderson, N. P.; George E. Hughes, S. W.; Theo. L. Chappelle, Scribe (re-elected); John A. Moore, F. S.; W. F. Carter, Treasurer (re-elected); A. D. White, J. W.

Our friends, the French, with that talent for epigrammatic courtesy which is characteristic of that sprightly nation, have a saying that you must not talk of ropes to a man whose father has been hanged. Following out to the letter the charitable suggestion of the French proverb, we had dropped from our political vocabulary the historic words "steel rails."

Juvenile Concert.—No postponement on account of the weather. We would call special attention to an additional interesting feature in connection with the Juvenile Entertainment this evening in Y. M. C. Association Hall, of readings by the talented elocutionist, J. L. Morrison, Esq., of Toronto, who has kindly volunteered to assist in making the evening's performance one of interest to all who may be disposed to patronize Mr. Ross and his band of 409 little singers. The readings are entitled "The Lang Heided Laddie" and "Dot Laby of mine."
