Strong westerly winds; generally fair and cool.

SKETCHES IN OIL.—There are on exhibition at Newson's two oil paintings: (1) St. John's Church, at Bellisle, and (2) Dixon's Mill and hill in vicinity. These sketches are very pretty. The scenes are well taken, their tone natural, and the work on them far better done than that of the average amateur. Without presuming to appraise their artistic value, we may say that, in our opinion, they reflect very great credit upon their painter, Miss McLean, of this city; and we hope she may be encouraged to continue in the cultivation of her undoubted talent for art.

He neglected to lock the door and when he awoke in the morning his own money was missing. It is reported that there is a clue to the robbery.
