Every Lady in the Dominion should have one.

Every lady in the Dominion should have a MELISSA wrap of some style. Costing only a trifle (about $1.50) more than ordinary wraps of similar material, they are at once the most useful and most economical garments of the present day, because they are really two in one, being a rainproof garment as well as a stylish and comfortable wrap.

MELISSA wraps should not be classed with ordinary waterproofs. They are made up in all the latest styles, out of fine soft woolen materials (rendered thoroughly rainproof by the MELISSA process); beautifully finished, and they fit to perfection, as only tailor made garments can.

Many ladies have written us asking for information, patterns, etc., etc., but as we do a strictly wholesale manufacturing business, cannot in justice to our many customers, sell directly to anyone not in trade. Desiring, however, to give all information possible and place our MELISSA wraps within easy reach of every lady in the country, we invite direct correspondence, and will, on receipt of a letter from any lady, giving the name and address of the merchant with whom she deals, at once send that dealer a full range of our patterns, catalogues of designs and other necessary information.

If there is no local dealer that will take the trouble to serve her in the way we suggest, we will place her in communication with one of our most reliable customers in some other place, who we can guarantee will be only too glad to give her every possible attention.

DRUMMERS' DAY.

The World's fair committee on ceremonies has assigned June 10 as the fete day of the Commercial Travelers' Protective association. The programme will be a very elaborate one and will include the attendance of at least 8,000 traveling men from almost every state in the Union. The annual convention will be held at Peoria, Ills., on June 6, 7 and 8, and on the 9th the delegates and members will adjourn to Chicago, special trains being chartered for the purpose. The Peoria people are raising $5,000 for the entertainment of the traveling men.

There will be parades and other festivities at Peoria, and at Chicago there will be a mammoth parade. The "boys" will be in 20 state divisions, each division headed by a first class band, and other steps will be taken to make the parade one of the biggest events of the season and of the fair. Special trains will be on hand to take the traveling men out to Jackson park, where there will be another parade and ceremonies of a very unique character. Six orators of national reputation will deliver addresses, and the governors of 10 states will also occupy positions on the platform.

SPECIAL FETE DAYS.

The following special fete days have been arranged by the World's fair committee on ceremonies: Washington, May 17; Wisconsin, May 23; Maine, May 24; Denmark, June 5; commercial travelers, June 10; Germany, June 15; Nebraska, June 16; Massachusetts, June 17; New Hampshire, June 21; France, July 14; Utah, July 24; Liberia, July 25; Independent Order of Foresters, Aug. 12; Hayti, Aug. 16; colored people, Aug. 25; North Carolina, Aug. 18; Austria, Aug. 18; the Netherlands, Aug. 81; Nicaragua, Sept. 1; Catholic education, Sept. 2; New York, Sept. 4; Brazil, Sept. 7; California, Sept. 9; Maryland, Sept. 12; Michigan, Sept. 13 and 14; Kansas, Sept. 15; Colorado, Sept. 19; Montana, Sept. 20; Patriotic Order Sons of America, Sept. 20; Iowa, Sept. 21; Rhode Island, Oct. 5; Spain, Oct. 12; Italian societies, Oct. 12; Minnesota, Oct. 18.

EUROPEAN NEWSPAPERS.

The subject of "The Public Press In Russia" will be presented in the world's public press congress by M. Constantine Rakouza de Soustcheffsky, the imperial Russian commissioner, and "The Public Press of Italy" by Signor V. Zeggio, the royal Italian commissioner. M. Alexis de Kobelatzky, member of the Russian imperial commission, will contribute a paper on the great transsiberian railway. Dr. Panaghiotis G. Fiambolis, resident priest of the Greek church, will present the faith and distinguishing characteristics of the Greek church in the world's parliament of religions.

A MODEL KITCHEN.

The Illinois woman's exposition board will conduct a model kitchen in the Women's building. Mrs. Richard J. Oglesby has planned the work to illustrate the value of corn, one of the chief food products of Illinois. Lessons in the scientific and hygienic preparation of food will be given such as involves no loss of nutriment or useless expenditure of personal energy or fuel. All the modern contrivances for saving labor and annoyance will, as far as possible, be in actual use. It is believed a better knowledge of the nutritive properties of the cereal and the many excellent dishes which may be prepared from it will prove of great advantage to visitors.

RARE CHINA.

One of the rarest exhibits at the exposition will be a selection of Coalport china. A specialty is the chalcedony decoration, which reproduces the hues of the agate. Imitation turquoises are studded on some of the vases with fine effect.

GRACE DARLING'S BOAT.

The little boat in which Grace Darling went to the rescue of the passenger steamer Forfarshire on the rocks of Farne island Sept. 6 and 7, 1838, will be one of the many interesting exhibits in the Transportation building at the fair.

It Hurts Those Who Let It Alone.

There are persons who tell us that the drink will not hurt us if we let it alone; and that every one should enjoy his personal liberty to do just as he pleases about it. But though we may let the drink alone, it is by no means certain that the drink will let us alone. In fact, there are multitudes who never use strong drink, and yet it will not let them alone. None of us liveth to himself, none of us dieth to himself, and that which we do may affect others, while that which others do often affects us most deeply. In an address delivered in New York, Gen. Samuel F. Carey related the following incident:

"I remember many years ago, in the course of my wanderings, I made a series of addresses at Madison, Indiana. I had spoken every night for a week, and anxious to get something new, I was puzzling my brain to know what to say. I was walking along on the bank of the Ohio when I saw a beautiful little blue eyed girl, a perfect beauty. She was standing on the edge of the river, rinsing out some old rags that she had been gathering in the streets of the city. I said 'What are you going to do with those rags?' 'I want to get me a pair of shoes.' 'Have you a mother, little girl?' 'Yes, I have a mother; but I have brothers and sisters younger than I am, and my mother is not very well, and I have to get my own shoes.' 'Have you a father?' 'Yes, I have a father, but he is a drunkard.'

'Suppose I had said 'Little girl, let liquor alone and it won't hurt you.'

"I gave the little girl a quarter, all the change I had in my pocket, and I swore in my heart that while I lived I would make war upon the enemy that was robbing the children of the land of their parents, and I am here to ask you if you will enlist in this good work. Yes, my friends, those who let it alone are the worst hurt by it."

What myriads of children are cold and hungry, sick and suffering because others will not let it alone. Shall we not protect these by prohibiting its sale?

Habit.

That which has been done once is easier done the second time. Repetition is the only basis of perfection. Patient continuance in well doing conducts by a straight path to glory, honor and immortality.

Since 1874, I have been a steady student of the law of habit—I had well-nigh said the law of fate. I have seen it slowly, gently, imperceptibly, wrap men round and round in its close winding sheet, as if they were Egyptian mummies. So quietly was all this done that they never knew their bondage until the first faint movement towards a better life, when, behold, their helplessness recalled the Indian-tortured hunter perpendicularly planted in the ground with earth packed around him even to the lips. A miracle of faith has rescued some of these; but a study of years compells the admission that not more than five in one hundred inebriates, gamblers or libertines are ever permanently reformed. The thoughtless boy, cigar in mouth, playing cards "just for fun," and a little later with a glass of beer as the stake of hiding all these things from his mother, saying to himself, "I'll quit this after a while, but I want to sow my wild oats"; the idle spendthrift youth with fondness only for the vile company where his worst passions can be gratified; the besotted man, sold under sin, accursed of God and his own conscience and his fellow men—these are the piteous object lessons that have taught me the supreme power of habit over human destiny. But I saw that the tendency to repeat the same act, and the greater ease with which this is done the second time than the first, and the third time than the second, is the key to Paradise as well as pandemonium. I saw the slow, unerring, unfailing plan of God, by which our habits may become our stepladder to saintship. And I said to my own heart, in the presence of many a bloated inebriate, what I now whisper to you: "No evil habit, however small, shall have dominion over me."—From "How to Win," by Frances E. Willard.

Sam Jones believes that the devil does not care how many missionaries we send to the heathen as long as we average thirteen thousand barrels of whiskey to each missionary.

The liquor interests in some cases boast that they "can defeat or elect any man that any party may put up." Probably that will continue very true just as long as the Temperance electors divide their strength between the two parties, and let the liquor interests circumvent them. Let the Temperance electors get together, and how long would the liquor interests last?

FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS Mrs. Winsloe's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for their children while cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best-known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winsloe's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. 1yr

"We can't stay at this hotel, Maria," exclaimed Farmer Meddergrass after reading the rules tacked to his door.

"Why not, Nathan?"

"Why, they have dinner from 11 to 2. I kim to town on business, an' I can't afford to waste no three hours a day on dinner, to say nuthin' 'bout breakfast and supper. Gather up yer traps, and we'll go somewhere else?"

SKODA DISCOVERY CO.:
GENTS:—We cannot be too grateful for the benefit our little babe derived from the use of SKODA'S REMEDIES. When less than 3 months old, his face broke out with a Terrible Eczema. The itching and burning caused him to scratch so much that his cheeks became raw, and bled considerably. He suffered extremely. We gave him 3 drop doses of the DISCOVERY internally, used the SOAP and OINTMENT externally, and in a few weeks he was perfectly cured, and is to-day a rugged, healthy boy.
Respectfully,
