BOARD OF TRADE.—The adjourned general meeting of the Board of Trade will be held on Monday evening next, at 8 o'clock.

THE STANLEY crossed from Picton to Georgetown to-day. She will remain at Georgetown on Monday to clean her boilers.

NOT TRUE.—A report was current about town this afternoon that Mrs. Weeks had escaped from the custody of City Marshal Cameron. The report was not true.

CURTAINS.—Our city ladies will appreciate the large variety of Curtains—400 pairs—now showing at Beer Boos, and no doubt find something to exactly suit their taste and requirements.

HORSE RACE.—There will be a trotting race for a set of driving harness on Hillsborough ice on Tuesday afternoon next at two o'clock. None but green horses will be allowed to start. An interesting afternoon's sport is expected.

Y. M. C. A.—The opening lecture for the season will be delivered on next Friday evening, by the President, Charles Palmer, Esq. Subject: "British Columbia and the Northwest"—from personal observation. Advertisement next week.

CARNIVALS.—There are three skating carnivals announced for next week. The first will take place at Georgetown on Tuesday; the second at Souris on Wednesday; and the third in Charlottetown on Thursday. All will be well worth attending.

HOSE SLEIGHS.—Two new sleighs for conveying the hose to fires during the winter months have been secured by the chief engineer of the fire department, and are now in the central station, loaded and all ready for use when required. They will be a great improvement on the old rigs.

EXCITEMENT AT A FUNERAL.—Some little excitement was occasioned at the funeral of the late W. S. Symonds at Halifax on Monday. Some of his friends expressed the opinion that he was not dead, but only in a trance, but Dr. Cunningham declared that Symonds was dead, and pointed out that decomposition had already set in. The funeral proceeded.

TESTIMONIAL FROM H. HOULE, Esq.—It gives me much pleasure to state that the Williams piano purchased some time ago, is a very fine instrument, and has given us the best of satisfaction. I recommend these pianos with sincere pleasure and wish you the success you merit.—Sole agents J. F. Willis & Co., Lower Queen St., Charlottetown, P. E. I. d w 11

TOOK HIS CHOICE.—The Amherst Press says: A sample of the precocity of Amherst youths was seen in one of our leading grocery stores recently. A little lad not as high as the counter enquired the price of oranges and was told he could have "two for five cents." The lad asked if that was not high and was "no it was only three cents for one and two cents for the other." Quick as a flash the archer replied "all right I'll take the other."

A BOILER BURST.—Considerable excitement was caused Friday morning, by the explosion of a boiler in the stockyard of Messrs. J. E. Page & Sons, and used for the purpose of heating water for the stock. The man in charge, it appears, left the apparatus without having sufficient water in it, and the boiler burst with a terrific sound. A part of the boiler, weighing about 400 lbs, was thrown into the air, and in its descent struck upon the roof of the carriage house and crushed it through as though it were an eggshell. No other damage was done and no one was hurt, though the fireman got a bad scare.—Amherst Press.

HOCKEY MATCH.—The names of the players composing the teams taking part in the hockey match played in Hillsborough rink last night are as follows:

Chas. Leigh, Captain; D. H. Robinson, A. W. Weeks, H. C. Wilson, J. F. Wheel, W. H. Davies, Geo. Rogers, W. Knight.—8 games. L. G. Wheel, Captain; Geo. E. Robinson, B. R. Newbery, H. B. Findley, S. C. Moore, P. McDonald, F. R. Beer, A. H. McNeill.—8 games.

The games were well contested, as will be seen on reference to the scores. Galbraith's Band was present and furnished some excellent music.

THE COMING CONCERT.—According to reports we hear concerning this concert, it certainly promises to be unusually good. Mr. Vinnicombe has spent no little time and expense to make it a decided success, musically speaking. The class will be assisted by some of the best vocal and instrumental talent of the city. It is to be hoped that our musical public will endeavor to make such arrangements as to set apart that night to enable them to attend such an excellent concert. It not only will give Mr. Vinnicombe encouragement to go on with his good work, but has the influence of giving the members more perseverance in their studies in the future. Give them a full house. The programme, etc., will appear shortly.

Caught in the Gale.

TO-DAY at noon, while the gale was at its height, two countrymen with loads of hay and straw each, experienced very tempestuous weather while entering the Steam Navigation dock. A heavy squall, which took the load of day on the port side, caused it to go over on its beam ends. The horse, fortunately, got detached from the load in time to save his bulwarks from being stove in. Some passing craft bore down on the wreck and succeeded in getting her on even keel, and towed her ashore.

The load of straw horse did not escape so well. When the owner saw the fate of his shipmate he should have shortened sail and sounded the pumps. Instead of this, however, he, by careless steering, allowed her to beach to, which had the effect of throwing the horse on his beam ends. Signals of distress were then hoisted, and after some considerable time assistance was rendered and the horse was righted. Then the tug began. The load of straw got to making considerable leeway, and finally began to whirl around making at least about 400 revolutions to the minute, while the owner stood gazing on the awe-inspiring scene in open-mouthed astonishment. The load finally fetched up korbunk against the S. N. Co's wharf. She was, after a time, towed off again into the offing, but trouble began brewing as before, as she would not answer her helm, but went spinning around again, when she for the second time fetched up against the wharf. The crew by this time got disgusted and abandoned her where she now lies stranded.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT

Summary of Proceedings.

OTTAWA, Feb. 7.

In the House of Commons to-day Sir John Thompson introduced a bill further to amend the criminal law. The intention of this is to make the sedition offences by masters, employers or foremen a criminal offence, to define and punish incest, to make provision for the suppression of polygamy, to enable jurors to be supplied with refreshments, to declare the law with regard to the rights of court martial, to sentence persons to jail, and for other purposes.

The House then went into committee on the bill to amend the act respecting bills of exchange and promissory notes, and good progress was made with the measure.

Objection was taken to the amount of charges for protest of notes, and when the schedule of fees is reached a motion to reduce it will be made. Complaint was also made against banks closing at 1 o'clock on Saturday, the 11th day.

After recess the House went into committee of supply.

Mr. Laurier moved in amendment a resolution affirming that no relative of duty should be allowed on corn imported for use in the manufacture of spirits. In support he said no one class would enjoy an exemption not granted to another. He wanted equal rights.

Mr. Kirkpatrick explained that a motion which he intended moving had been anticipated, but he would support the resolution.

The debate and House adjourned at 11.40.

Nipped in the Bud.

PARIS, Feb. 7.

By prompt action, the government to-day nipped in the bud what apparently was intended to be a Royalist coup d'etat, modelled after Louis Napoleon's mad descent upon Boulogne. The Duke of Orleans, eldest son of the Comte de Paris, arrived in Paris to-day, bearing a letter written and signed by the Count of Paris, announcing to the faithful and all others the Count's abdication. He also had a manifesto addressed to the people of France. In virtue of this abdication of the Count of Paris, all his claims, rights and titles descend to his eldest son, Philippe Louis Robert, Duke de Orleans. This gentleman is, therefore, the actual pretender to the throne in virtue of his claims as heir of Louis Philippe and the old Bourbon line. His coming into this country in violation of the law, banishing all heads and direct heirs of the reigning families, is a rich escapade if it stands alone. There is reason to believe that the movement is in connection with more determined opponents of the republic. The duke was arrested at the house of the Duke D'Alaynes and taken to the prefecture of police, where his identity was fixed beyond a doubt, and a statement of his violation of the laws of banishment drawn up. Constant, the Minister of the Interior, ordered the duke to be held in custody, and the further disposition of the case will depend upon whether there was a regular royalist movement behind this incident.

Ottawa Notes.

OTTAWA, Feb. 7.

The British Columbia members waited on the Minister of Customs to-day and intimated the strong desire of their constituents for the removal of duty on mining machinery.

Fears is expressed that Senator Abbott will not be able to be in his place again this session. As Mr. Abbott is leader of the Government in the Senate, his absence will be greatly felt.

Robert Sedgwick, Deputy Minister of Justice, will, it is reported, be appointed to the vacancy in the Nova Scotia Supreme Court caused by the death of Judge Smith.

Students Rioting Again.

OPORTO, Feb. 7.

The students in this city to-day made a demonstration in favor of the poet Anthero Quental, President of the Northern Patriotic League. They became riotous and smashed the windows leading to the Social Club, because they had not expelled Englishmen belonging to it, and had admitted others. The Progressive and Republican papers of Portugal continue to violently attack England.
